

Northeast Today

Thursday, November 3, 1977

"HAPPENINGS"

TODAY, November 3

- Coroner on --9:07 am,
"Area Scene" KIRX-AM
Freshman tests --1:30 pm
Coping with --7 pm, 3rd Fl.
Problems Loun., DH
Death and Dying --7 pm, Main
Loun., CH
TM --8 pm, Cafe.,
MH
Marriage Prep. --8 pm, Music
Rm., RH

FRIDAY, November 4

- Swim Meet --3:30-5pm,
Natatorium
Hypnotist --8 pm, Geo. Rm,
SUB

SATURDAY, November 5

- Parent's Day --8:30 am
Coun. on --11:30 am,
Excep. Child. Sirloin
Stockade
Men's Cross- --10:30 am,
Country Warrensburg
Football --1:30 pm,
Stokes Stadium

SUNDAY, November 6

- Sub Sandwich --4:30 pm,
Sale Residence Halls
lobbies

PARENT'S DAY will begin at 9:30 a.m. Saturday with registration and an informal coffee hour in the Quiet Lounge of the Student Union Building. President Charles J. McClain will welcome parents in a general assembly at 10:30 a.m. in Baldwin Auditorium. Dr. Terry B. Smith, dean of students, Dr. Darrell W. Krueger, dean of instruction, and Greg Rumpf, student senate president, also will address the parents. A buffet luncheon will be from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the Georgian, Activities, and Spanish rooms of the Student Union Building. Parents will be given complimentary tickets. Additional tickets for other members of the family may be purchased at registration or at the door. Parents may eat in the residence halls if they choose. Immediately following the afternoon football game, parents are invited to open houses in the residence halls. Members of Alpha Sigma Gamma service sorority will act as hostesses for Parent's Day.

FALL SEMESTER FRESHMEN are required to participate in the Freshman Testing Program today. Testing will begin promptly at 1:30 p.m. Students who enrolled in classes for the first time at NMSU this semester or during the last summer session of this past summer are required to take the tests. The test schedule appeared in last week's Index. Students required to take the test are to be excused from scheduled classes and other activities during the testing period.

HER MAJESTY'S CORONER for the City of London, Dr. David M. Paul, will be interviewed at 9:07 a.m. today on KIRX-AM's Area Scene program. Dr. Paul spoke Friday afternoon on "The Medical Investigation of Death." He visited the University as part of a lecture tour of the United States. The Law Enforcement and Corrections Program,

(continued next page)

Alpha Phi Sigma (National Police Science and Criminal Justice Honor Society) and Lambda Alpha Epsilon (American Criminal Justice Association) sponsored his presentation.

PROGRAMS OFFICER for the U.S. Navy, Gary C. Bakken, will be at the Placement Office First Floor, Blanton Hall, today and tomorrow to talk with students interested in the Navy Officer Program. For more information, go to the Placement Office.

COPING WITH COLLEGE PROBLEMS will be the program at 7 tonight in Third Floor Lounge of Dobson Hall. Dr. Massye Goins, professor of education, will present the program. The public is invited to attend at no charge. Dan Ripley, resident assistant in Dobson Hall, is sponsoring the program.

DEATH AND DYING will be the subject of a program at 7 tonight in the Main Lounge of Centennial Hall. Dr. Harold Eastman, professor of sociology, and Bob Davis of Davis Mortuary will be the speakers. Linda Reiman, resident assistant in Centennial Hall, and Phil Jaspering, resident assistant in Missouri Hall, are sponsoring the event. All students, faculty, and staff are invited to attend at no charge.

TRANSCENDENTAL MEDITATION will be the program at 8 tonight in the Missouri Hall Cafeteria. Edward Butler, chairman of the Fairfield, Iowa, chapter of Transcendental Meditation will give a slide presentation. The public is invited to attend at no charge. The program is sponsored by Paul Thomassen, resident assistant in Missouri Hall.

MONEY will be the subject of a talk by Dr. Charlotte Revelle, associate professor of home economics, at 8 tonight in the Music Room of Ryle Hall. Topics to be included in the speech will be budgeting, finances, and major expenses of the first year of marriage. This program is part of a series on Marriage Preparation being sponsored by Beth Yaeger, resident assistant in Ryle Hall. The public is invited to attend at no charge.

(continued next column)

THE U.S. SAVINGS BOND CAMPAIGN concludes tomorrow. Persons must have enrolled or increased their savings by then to be eligible for the eight $25 Savings Bonds to be given away.

THE NMSU SWIM TEAM invites all students, faculty, and staff to attend an inter-squad swimming and diving meet from 3:30 to 5 p.m. tomorrow at the natatorium. No admission will be charged.

HYPNOTIST TOM DELUCA will be featured in a mini-concert at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the Georgian Room of the Student Union Building. The program will be free to holders of student activities cards and 50 cents to all others. The program is sponsored by the Student Activities Board.

MISSOURI'S BASIC ESSENTIAL SKILLS TEST will be discussed by a man from the state department at a luncheon meeting of the Northeast Chapter of the Council on Exceptional Children at 11:30 a.m. Saturday at the Siroloin Stockade. The test to be discussed is the one which will soon be required of all Missouri public school students for graduation from high school. The public is invited to attend and prospective members are welcome. For Further information call Nancy Hendrix, member of the council, at ext. 7252.

THE MEN'S CROSS-COUNTRY TEAM will travel to Warrensburg Saturday to participate in the MIAA Conference meet beginning at 10:30 a.m.

THE BULLDOGS will host Central Missouri State from Warrensburg in a football game at 1:30 p.m. Saturday in Stokes Stadium. The jersey of All-American Dale Mills will be retired in a ceremony before the game.

SUBMARINE SANDWICHES will be sold beginning at 4:30 p.m. Sunday in the lobbies of Centennial, Dobson, Ryle, and Missouri halls. The cost is 85 cents for a half of loaf of french bread, ham, cheese, bologna, lettuce, and mayonnaise. The French Club is sponsoring the sale.

THE NATIONAL THEATRE OF THE DEAF, a company of deaf actors known worldwide, will present "The Three Musketeers" at 8 p.m. Sunday at the American Theatre, 416 N. 9th St., St. Louis; and at 8 p.m. Monday, Nov. 7, at the St. Louis Community College at Florissant Valley, Campus Theatre, 3400 Pershall Rd., Florissant. Tickets are $3 and may be purchased at the door. For more information and coordination of car pools, call Nancy Hendrix, at ext. 7252, or contact Jim Higgs (by note) at 242 Missouri Hall.

A SPECIAL ELECTION for the position of Councilwoman #2 on Student Senate will be held Friday, Nov. 11. Petitions are available now in the Student Senate office in the Student Union Building. They are due back by noon Tuesday, Nov. 8. For more information, call Phyllis Booker, election chairman, ext. 2041.

UNICEF cards, Christmas Cards, calendars, etc. are for sale by the Lutheran Students Association as a service project. Immediate delivery is available on some items and orders are being taken on others. When sale of these items begins in the Student Union Building, the hours will be posted on the Student Union Building bulletin board. For further information, call Mary Jane Kohlenberg, sponsor, at ext. 2758.

A DANCE-A-THON will be sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity, starting at 7 p.m. Friday, Nov. 18, in Kirk Gym. The 24-hour event will help raise money for the March of Dimes. Three meals and snacks will be provided for the dancers. Trophies will be awarded to the couples who dance the longest and collect the most donations. Rules and pledge sheets will be available soon. For further information, call Justin Doerle, president, at 665-6382, or Dave Bowmaster, vice president, at 665-2517.

SPRING SCHEDULES are in today's Index.

UNITED TELECOM, the second largest independent phone company in the United States, will interview December and May graduates in accounting for the position of internal auditors on Thursday, Nov. 10. Interested students should sign up now in the Placement Office, First Floor, Blanton Hall.

K-MART APPAREL CORP. will interview business, home economics, and liberal arts majors on Wednesday, Nov. 9. December and May graduates should sign up in the Placement Office, First Floor, Blanton Hall.

THE UPJOHN COMPANY, a pharmaceutical firm, will be represented on campus Wednesday, Nov. 9, to interview science or business administration majors for sales positions. The sign-up folder will be posted tomorrow in the Placements Office, First Floor, Blanton Hall.

HOME ECONOMIC PROBLEMS OF THE AGED will be a new course offered at NMSU during the spring semester. The course is a part of the new area of concentration offered in Gerontology. The course will include nutrition housing, management, clothing, and human relations as they affect people of advanced age. The course will be pertinent to students in many fields as they plan both their professional and personal lives. Many professional people work with aged people and this course could help with interpersonal relations students will have in the future. The course number is HE 460. For further information, contact any faculty member in the Home Economics Division.

ALL FRESHMAN STUDENTS who have been interviewed by their Freshman Counselor and have decided to declare a specific major should report immediately to the division of which their major is a part and arrange for an appointment with their new advisor. The division can assign the advisors when notified. A student must meet with his new advisor before planning his classes for the spring semester.

THE NMSU CLARINET CHOIR, under the baton of Dr. David Nichols, professor of music, will present a Parents' Day concert, Sunday, November 6 at 2:00 p.m. in the Faith Lutheran Church.