THIS WEEK...

ENTRIES for the Oct. 21 issue of the "Northeast Today" must be turned in by 5 p.m. today, in the Public Relations Office, 202 Administration/Humanities Building. The early deadline is due to no classes on Friday.

ON-CAMPUS INTERVIEW appointments with McDonnell Douglas Corp., Price Waterhouse Co., the Peace Corps, and Penn-Daniels, Inc. can be made now, at the Career Planning and Placement Center, located in McKinney Center. Interviews are by appointment only.

A BROWN BAG Lunch Program, sponsored by Phi Delta Kappa, will be held at 11:30 a.m. today, in the Georgian Room in the Student Union Building. The topic for lunch discussion will be the five-year teacher education proposal. The discussion will be initiated by Dr. Robert Dager. Everyone is welcome. For information, contact Debbie Shroat at 785-4490 or 785-4450.

NMSU WIND SYMPHONY auditions will be held today through Wednesday in 155 Baldwin Hall. Audition music may be picked up in 155 Baldwin Hall. For more information, call Raydell Bradley at 785-4436.

LYCEUM PRESENTS the Kansas City Lyric Opera at 8 p.m. tonight, in Baldwin Hall Auditorium. The opera brings Gounod's "Faust" in English with orchestra to NMSU. Free tickets are available to students, faculty and staff between 9:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. today, in the Student Activities Board Office in the Student Union Building. Recording devices are prohibited.

A DANCE MARATHON is being sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega. Anyone interested should sign up from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday, in the Student Union Building. Sign-up will also take place from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday, in Ryle and Missouri Halls. The dance marathon will be held from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m., Nov. 2, in Kirk Gym. Proceeds will go to the Chariton Valley Learning Center.

A SEMINAR for the Indian Hills Board of Trustees, conducted by Dr. Jack Ross, professor of education, will be held at 3:15 p.m. Tuesday, in Albia, Iowa. Ross will focus on characteristics of a good administration and its relationship with governing boards.

PEP RALLY SKIT applications for any organization wishing to audition for pep rally skits during Homecoming Week are due by 5 p.m. Wednesday, in the Student Activities Office, 204 Administration/Humanities Building. Registration forms and rules are included in the registration packet.

THE STAGE BAND, directed by Tijuana Julian; the Jazz Lab Band, directed by Ray Bradley; and the Jazz Ensemble, directed by Roger Cody, will present their fall concert at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, in Baldwin Hall Auditorium. A wide range of big-band jazz styles will be represented at the program.

INTRAMURAL SOCCER, bowling and water basketball applications are due by 4 p.m. Thursday, in the Intramural Office, 309 Pershing Building. There will be a manager's meeting Oct. 21, for all three activities. For information, call the Intramural Office at 785-4467.

BED RACE REGISTRATION applications are due by 5 p.m. Thursday, in the Student Activities Office, 204 Administration/Humanities Building. Any organization wishing to enter a bed in the bed race to be held Oct. 22 must register by 5 p.m.

A CANOE TRIP on the Current River is being sponsored by the Newman Center. Rides will leave at 5 p.m. Thursday from the Newman Center and will return Saturday. Cost for the trip is $20, which covers canoe rental and all meals.

THE NMSU-LIVE SHOW will be held at 8 p.m. Sunday, in the Georgian Room in the Student Union Building. NMSU-LIVE is a student talent show that takes place in a nightclub-type atmosphere. Admission is free.

ITEMS OF INTEREST...

FREE GLAUCOMA Screening for faculty, staff and students will be held from 1 to 4 p.m., Oct. 22, at the Student Health Clinic. Anyone 35 years or older or who has a family member with glaucoma should attend the screening clinic.

PEP RALLY SKIT Auditions will be held at 6 p.m., Oct. 21, in Baldwin Hall Auditorium. Any organization wishing to have a skit in the Pep Rally to be held Oct. 25 must audition. Organizations are responsible for bringing their own props.

BANNER DECORATING CONTEST applications are due by 5 p.m., Oct. 21, in the Student Activities Office, 204 Administration/Humanities Building. Any organization wishing to decorate and hang a banner in the contest during Homecoming Week must register by 5 p.m.

THE MELLON FELLOWSHIP in the Humanities provides a renewable $8,500 stipend plus tuition to seniors entering a graduate school in a humanities field in fall 1986. Candidates must take the Graduate Record General Examination in December (registration deadline is Nov. 8), and complete an application by Tuesday. For information, contact the Division of Social Science, 785-4636.

BULLDOG 5K RUN Registration will be from 10:30 a.m. to 1 p.m., Oct. 21, 22 and 23 in Missouri, Ryle, and Centennial Hall Cafeterias, respectively. Sign-up will also be held from noon to 3 p.m., Oct. 24, in the Student Union Building.

A GREAT PUMPKIN Carving Contest, sponsored by the Student Activities Board, will be held from 4 to 5 p.m., Oct. 24. Anyone interested should register by Oct. 22 in the SAB Office in the Student Union Building. Prizes will be awarded and all pumpkins will be displayed in the Haunted Laughlin Hall.

PICKLER MEMORIAL Library is now taking requests for displays and exhibits for the 1986 spring semester. Individual collections, hobbies and/or class projects are welcome. Facilities include the large window in the library's foyer, plus two flat cases in the bay window area on first floor. Normal display period is two weeks. For information or to schedule a display, call Eleanor Ellebracht at 785-4528.

WINDFALL literary magazine is accepting typewritten submissions, fiction and poetry, until Oct. 23. Send your entries and a self-addressed, stamped envelope to the Windfall Mailbox located in the Student Union Building. For more information, contact Monica Barron at 785-4505 or Charlie Sorrells at 785-5408.

STUDENT TEACHING OVERSEAS can be arranged through the American International Schools Program. The one-semester program provides participants the opportunity to do their student teaching at an American International School in Austria, Brazil, Portugal or West Germany. The program is open to any student eligible for student teaching. Application dates vary, but students interested in student teaching during the second semester should apply as early as possible in the fall. For further information, contact Constance Reid at 785-4509.

MEN OF NMSU calendars are being sold now by members of Sigma Sigma Sigma social sorority. Calendars are $3.50 each and can be purchased at 103 Brewer Hall or by contacting any Tri Sigma pledge.

ALUMNI FAIR ENTRIES are due at 5 p.m., Oct. 23, in the Alumni Office, 112 Administration/Humanities Building. Any organization wishing to have a table in the alumni fair should contact David Clithero in the Alumni Office at 785-4125. Set-up will be from 3 to 6 p.m., Oct. 25, in the Quiet Lounge in the Student Union Building.

Phillips Receives Congressional Award

Freshman Russ Phillips has been selected to receive the silver Congressional Award. The award is presented by the Congress of the United States to students who demonstrate above-average involvement in community affairs, personal development and physical fitness. Recipients are recommended by schools, churches and civic groups they have worked with or by an adult teacher or counselor from their high school or college.

The award was presented to Phillips Oct. 7, at an awards luncheon in St. Louis.
