

Northeast Today

October 13, 1975

THE BOARD OF REGENTS will meet at 10 a.m. Friday in the Conference Room of the Student Union.

THE 3 JAZZ BANDS will present an outdoor concert at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday on the sun deck of the Student Union. The concert is free and open to the public. Performing will be the Stage Band, under the direction of graduate assistant Keith Thomas; the Jazz Lab Band, under the direction of Mike Metheny, graduate assistant; and the Jazz Ensemble, under the direction of Roger Cody, Fine Arts. In case of rain the concert will be held in the Student Union Activities Room.

THE UNIVERSITY STRING ORCHESTRA, under the direction of William FitzSimmons of Fine Arts, will present a concert at 8 p.m. Thursday in Baldwin Hall Auditorium. Selections by Antonio Vivaldi, Norman Dello Joio, Joseph Haydn, Alan Hovhaness and Arcangelo Corelli will be presented. The concert is free and open to the public.

A THEATER TRIP TO STEPHENS COLLEGE is being planned for Thursday. Connie Jones, Language and Literature, will make reservations for car space and theater seats for the performance of Arthur Miller's "The Crucible." Departure time from Kirksville will be 4:30 p.m.

KNOW OF ANYONE WHO IS INTERESTED in the Pershing Scholarship or should be? Terry Smith, Dean of Students, tries to contact as many outstanding high school seniors in Missouri as he can about the scholarships. He asks University faculty and staff who know of a student who is interested in the Pershing, or should be, to let him know and he will get in touch with him/her immediately. Let him know if you would like him to tell the student of your personal recommendation. Contact Terry at ext. 7162.

WATCH THE MERCURY RISE in the large United Way campus thermometer as contributions are made in the 1975 campaign drive. Jerry Vittetoe of the Business Division is the campus chairman and has as his goal $10,000. Representatives in each division will be contacting their co-workers about pledging their "fair share." If you have any questions about the United Way contact Jerry or your division representative. This year's theme is "Thanks to You It Works -- For All of Us."

KNEU, THE UNIVERSITY'S NEW RADIO STATION (1600 AM) starts broadcasting at 4 p.m. today from the basement of Stenographic Services. The student-run station will air popular, classical and easy-listening music programs and news of the campus and the world. The station is being aired via carrier current and can be heard in the residence halls.

FRIDAY IS THE DEADLINE for memberships for the Missouri State Teachers Association, according to Jerry Vittetoe, Business Education. Dues are $20/year and cover subscriptions to School and Community and The Communicator. For more information call Jerry at ext. 3396.

FACULTY NOTES. . .Jeff Piper, Fine Arts, will present a trumpet recital Thursday at 8 p.m. at Quincy College. He will be accompanied by Anna Norberg, Fine Arts.Max Cogan, Health and Physical Education, will speak on "Lifestyle and Physical Education" at a meeting of the Missouri State Teachers Assn. Jan. 30-31. He and Dale Woods, Mathematics, were part of a North Central Association evaluation team that visited McCluer North High School Oct. 5-7.Kenneth Fountain, Science, will be a guest on KHQA-TV at 9:30 a.m. Thursday to discuss the work his undergraduate chemistry students are doing on new anti-hypertensive drugs.Tomasaki, Language and Literature, was notified this week that his poem, "From Old Stones" will be published by ETC.Marlow Ediger, Education, has received notification that his manuscript "Using Maps and Globes in the Social Studies" has been accepted for publication in Geographical Perspectives.The Speech and Hearing Clinic has been busy this semester, reports Mary Barbara Kline of Special Programs. Jim Sparks, Wynne Rutledge, William McClelland and Mary Barbara have tested the hearing and evaluated the speech and language of children in more than 400 children in Canton, Moberly, Macon, Clarence and Monroe.A review of Carriers of the Dream Wheel: Contemporary Native American Poetry of which Jim Barnes, Language and Literature, is co-author, appeared in the October 15 Kansas City Star. The reviewer states that "Jim Barnes, who teaches at Northeast Missouri State University in Kirksville, writes simply and lucidly of the familiar Missouri landscape but with a sensitivity that made me see it as it for the first time."

AN EXHIBIT OF PAINTINGS AND SCULPTURE by John Balsley will be on display in the University Art Gallery, Baldwin Hall, from Oct. 14-30, according to Trudy McRae, gallery director. The artist, who is an assistant professor of art at Drake University, will be on campus Oct. 16 to present a slide lecture at 10 a.m. in the Little Theater and at 12:30-2:30 p.m. for an open class session in the Adair House. Gallery hours are 1-4 p.m. weekdays.

NORTHEAST TODAY is published every Monday by the Public Relations Office, McKinney Center. Deadline for news items is noon Friday (ext. 7213.)