ITEMS OF INTEREST...

APPLICATIONS for the fall Upperclass Scholarship competition are available in the Dean of Students Office, 204 Administration/Humanities Building. Students with 30 hours or more who have at least a 3.5 grade point average or a sophomore ACT of at least 24 or ACT-COMP of at least 190, and have no previous or current institutional scholarships, may qualify for a University scholarship worth up to $500. Application deadline is Friday.

FORMER U.S. AMBASSADOR to the United Nations, Jeane Kirkpatrick, will not reschedule her Lyceum Series lecture. Kirkpatrick was slated to begin the 1985-86 Series with a lecture, Sept. 24, but cancelled her visit due to her husband's poor health.

A CAMPUSWIDE canned good drive is being sponsored by Delta Sigma Pi. Canned food should be delivered by Nov. 20 to 310 Centennial Hall or 515 East Filmore, apartment A. The food will be distributed through the Red Cross to needy families during the Thanksgiving season.

ANTIQUE AND MODERN Christmas ornaments and advent calendars from Germany will be on display today through Nov. 25, in the display cases in Pickler Memorial Library. The exhibit features artistic creations by Missouri-German and European-German craftsmen in a variety of materials ranging from dough to wood.

A SKATING PARTY for United Cerebral Palsy, sponsored by Delta Sigma Pi, will be held from 7 to 10 p.m. Nov. 20, at Leisure World. Cost is $2.50. All participants receive a free Ken's Pizza Cup, and drawings for door prizes will be held. A trophy will be awarded to the group with the highest percentage of members present.

RESIDENCE HALL ROOMS and apartments are available for the spring semester. For information, contact the Residence Life Office at 785-4133.

THE STRING ORCHESTRA will present its fall concert at 8 p.m., Nov. 21, in Baldwin Hall Auditorium. The program will include the premier of "Nations, Unite," a five-movement composition written by Tom Reed especially for the orchestra. Also featured is Vivaldi's "Autumn Concerto."

THE VETERANS' Secretary will be in the Veterans Office from 2 to 3 p.m. daily during the pre-registration period to assist those receiving VA educational benefits. Intent to Enroll and Current Course Schedule forms are available. These should be completed and returned immediately after pre-enrollment to avoid a break in benefits.

PHI THETA KAPPA, an honorary fraternity for students from two-year colleges, is seeking interested transfer students. If interested in starting an alumni chapter at NMSU, contact Lisa Falter at 665-6912.

RESIDENT ASSISTANT applications for positions during the spring semester are now available. Applications may be obtained from your hall director or from the Residence Life Office, 101 Administration/Humanities Building. Minimum requirements are a 2.5 GPA, 30 semester hours and one semester residence at NMSU.
