

Northeast Today

October 27, 1975

FACULTY MEMBERS with Thursday afternoon classes are reminded that Freshman Tests will be given Thursday, October 30, from 1:00 p.m. thru 5:00 p.m. All faculty members with first-time freshmen in their classes were mailed a list of students to be excused for the test. A list of rooms in Violette Hall and Science Hall which will be used for the test was published in the October 23 INDEX.

Anyone having questions about the test should contact the Dean of Instruction's Office or Dr. Robert Wright, Director of Counseling and Testing.

VICE PRESIDENT DALE SCHATZ will be the speaker at a general meeting of the local chapter of the American Association of University Professors Thursday at 3:30 p.m. in the Conference Room of the Student Union. The vice president will speak informally and then answer questions from the audience. A brief business meeting will follow his presentation. Coffee will be served.

MARC TASLITT, PIANIST, will present a recital at 8 p.m. tomorrow in Baldwin Hall Auditorium. Admission is free to University students, faculty and staff and elementary and secondary school students. General admission will be $1. The recital will include pieces by Bach, Schubert, Haydn, Liszt, Debussy and Prokofiev.

Taslitt will conduct a master class and workshop for piano teachers and students at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday. Admission is free. He is an assistant professor of music at Coe College, Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

PARENTS' DAY WILL BEGIN AT 9:30 a.m. SATURDAY with a reception in the Quiet Lounge of the Student Union. Marty Meyers, Director of Student Activities, extends an invitation to all University faculty and staff to help in welcoming the parents by attending the one hour reception.

Following the reception, several University administrators and the president of the Student Senate will address the parents. A buffet dinner, free to parents, will be served in the Georgian Room at 11:30.

The parents are invited to attend the Bulldog/Central Missouri State University football game and then attend open houses in the residence halls.

A WORKSHOP ON GRANT PROPOSAL WRITING may be offered next month on campus by Bill Fulkerson, associate executive director of the American Association of State Colleges and Universities and a Kirksville native. Dean Terry Smith said that Fulkerson will be in town sometime in November and is willing to conduct such a workshop. Terry said that Fulkerson has outstanding academic and administrative credentials and considerable experience in the "grantsmanship" process. Those interested in attending such a workshop should let Terry know by Nov. 4.

THE CAMPUS UNITED WAY campaign hopes to conclude around November 3, according to Jerry Vittetoe, campus chairman. Proceeds from the community's campaign goes toward operating expenses for 11 agencies in Adair County: the Salvation Army, the Retired Senior Volunteer Program, the Sheltered Workshop, the Girl Scouts, the Boy Scouts, the Kirksville Day Care Center, the Y.M.C.A., the Red Cross, the U.S.O., the Sojourners Public Library and the Eastern Missouri chapter of the Arthritis Foundation. Make your contribution today. If you have any questions ask Jerry (ext. 3396) or your division coordinators.

A VOCAL MUSIC RECITAL, featuring students Susan Lehman and Dan O'Donnell, is scheduled for 3 p.m. Sunday in the Student Union Activities Room. The recital is presented in partial fulfillment of the requirements for the Bachelor of Music Education degree with a concentration in vocal music.

EDWARD J. BOSTLEY AND ANNA NORBERG will present a faculty recital at 8 p.m. Nov. 5 in the Student Union Activities Room. The recital is open to the public free of charge. Both are instructors in music at the University. Edward will play the french horn and Anna the piano.

UPCOMING TELELECTURES in Pat Ellebracht's (Social Science) corporation finance class are: November 13, 8:30 a.m., L.L. Browning, Executive Vice President, Emerson Electric Company, St. Louis; November 13, 6 p.m., Lucien O. Hooper, Vice President of Thomson & McKinnon Auchincloss Kohlmeier, Inc., New York. Both lectures can be heard in 307 Laughlin Building.

SCALED MODELS OF MILITARY VEHICLES used by Americans and Germans in World War II are featured in the display case this week inside the front door of Nason Hall. Also included in the display are miniature soldiers in uniform. The collection is owned by Cpt. Ed Bardill of the Military Science Division.

FACULTY NOTES....Will L. Selser, Science Division, recently participated in committee work with the patrons committee of the National Association for Research in Science Teaching. The results of the committee efforts will be presented at the annual meeting in April in Los Angeles....Dale A. Jorgenson, Fine Arts, was a visiting representative of the National Association of Schools of Music October 9-10 at the University of Toledo. The University had made application for full membership in the association and the visitation was part of the self-study and accreditation procedure....Dennis Wiechman, Law Enforcement, was elected to the Board of Directors of the Midwestern Association of Criminal Justice Educators at a meeting Oct. 17 in St. Louis....Marlow Ediger, Education, had his manuscript "The Principal and Curriculum Improvement" accepted for publication in the October, 1975 issue of the Missouri Elementary School Principal. His manuscript "The Public School Curriculum: Competition or Cooperation" will appear in the November issue of School and Community.

FACULTY NOTES (continued)

Lonny Morrow, Special Programs, had an article entitled "Alternative Approach to the Delivery of School Psychological Services" published in the July, 1975 issue of Psychology in the Schools. The article was selected to be included in a new textbook for school psychologists entitled Accountability For School Psychologists: Selected Readings edited by Thomas N. Fairchild of the University of Idaho. . . . Max Cogan, Health and Physical Education, spoke on "New Dimensions in Educational Sciences" at a meeting of the college section of the Missouri Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation October 18 in Columbia. He spoke on "The Possible Role of Exercise in Adaptation to Psychological Stress" at the second annual meeting of the American Association for Advancement of Tension Control yesterday in Chicago.

NORTHEAST TODAY is published every Monday by the Public Relations Office, McKinney Center. Deadline for news items is noon Friday (ext. 7213.)