

Northeast Today

MONDAY, April 5, 1982

HAPPENINGS

MONDAY, April 5

3 p.m. Women's tennis
3:30 p.m. Hist. research speaker, 212 A/H
8 p.m. Mozart horn recital, Aud., BH

TUESDAY, April 6

9 a.m. Ag. contest, SUB, IE & Univ. Farm
1 p.m. Women's softball tourn., I-M Field
3 p.m. Women's tennis

WEDNESDAY, April 7

8 p.m. Visiting pianist recital, Aud., BH

THURSDAY, April 8

7:30 a.m. Easter Break begins

FRIDAY, April 9

2 p.m. Men's tennis tournament

SATURDAY, April 10

1 p.m. Men's baseball, doubleheader
2 p.m. Men's tennis tournament

THE WOMEN'S TENNIS TEAM will compete against Lincoln University at 3 p.m. today. They also play Tuesday against Western Illinois University at 3 p.m.

"ADVENTURES IN HISTORICAL RESEARCH" is the topic which Milton Perry, superintendent of Clay County historic sites, will discuss at 3:30 p.m. today in 212 Administration/Humanities Building in an open session of a Survey of Research class.

A MOZART HORN RECITAL will be performed at 8 p.m. today at Baldwin Hall Auditorium by Mark Scearce, senior, and Frederic Kirchberger, professor of music.

A MEN'S SLOWPITCH SOFTBALL TOURNAMENT for Juvenile Diabetes will be held all day April 17 and 18 at Pfeiffer Field. The deadline for entries is today and the fee is $50. The rain date for the tournament is May 1 and 2. For more information contact Cardinal Key member Sherry Dwyer, 665-0831.

THE VOCATIONAL AGRICULTURE CONTEST for northeast Missouri high schools will begin at 9 a.m. Tuesday at the Student Union Building, the Industrial Education Building and the University Farm.

THE WOMEN'S SOFTBALL TEAM will host a triangular softball tournament at 1 p.m. Tuesday, including teams from Northwest Missouri State University and Harris-Stowe College.

A RESUME TYPING SERVICE is being offered by Pi Omega Pi business education organization. The set up fee with ten original copies is $2.50, $3 for 20 original copies and three cents for each additional copy. Resumes may be turned in to Julie Meyers, vice president, 106 Violette Hall, 785-4370, on Tuesdays and Thursdays between noon and 1:30 p.m. in desired form and style. They will be returned a week later.

AN EASTER BAGEL SALE will be held from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. Wednesday in the Administration/Humanities Building. It is sponsored by a Principles of Management group.

STUDENT PAYCHECKS will be available from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Wednesday at the Cashier Window, Business Office, 105 Administration/Humanities Building.

LYCEUM USHER STAFF APPLICATIONS for the 1982-83 season are available to interested students and past ushers at the Student Activities Office, 204 Administration/Humanities Building and the Social Science Division Office, 214 A/H. They must be returned by 5 p.m. Wednesday; interviews will be conducted after Easter Break.

VISITING PIANIST, Kathy Edsill, will perform at 8 p.m. Wednesday in Baldwin Hall Auditorium.

STUDENT SENATE ELECTIONS will be held April 22. Anyone interested in running for an office must turn in a petition by 4 p.m. Thursday at the Student Senate Office, Student Union Building. Contact the Office for further information.

THE MEN'S TENNIS TEAM will host an Easter Tennis Tournament at 2 p.m. Friday and Saturday with teams from Western Illinois University, Northwest Missouri State University and Central Missouri State University.

THE MEN'S BASEBALL TEAM will play a doubleheader at 1 p.m. Saturday against Lincoln University.

THE NATIONAL COUNCIL FOR ACCREDITATION of Teacher Education recently voted to grant reaccreditation to the following NMSU professional programs submitted for review: the bachelor's and master's programs for the preparation of elementary, secondary, special education and K-12 teachers; the master's programs for the preparation of elementary and secondary principals; and the master's programs in counseling and reading. Initial accreditation was granted to the educational specialist programs for the preparation of elementary and secondary principals and school superintendents as well as the master's program in school psychology. NCATE's action provides accreditation until Sept. 1, 1989.

NORTHEAST NOTES

VETERANS whose ten year delimiting date has expired may now apply for an extension of their GI Bill due to public law 97-72. These extensions will be available only through Dec. 31, 1983. For more information contact the Veterans Office, 104 Administration/Humanities Building, 785-4230, the Veterans Counseling Office, 110 Blanton Hall, 785-4218, or the St. Louis Regional Office, 1-800-392-3761.

GRADUATION ANNOUNCEMENTS for students graduating in the spring may be picked up in the Dean of Instruction's Office, 203 Administration/Humanities Building. A student must show a graduation fee receipt before announcements will be issued.

THE SENIORS who received a senior survey should return the completed survey to the Student Activities Office, 204 Administration/Humanities Building.

APPLICATIONS for Student Ambassadors and Students To Assist Recruiting for the 1982-83 academic year are available in the Admissions Office, 205 Administration/Humanities Building.

SCIENCE FICTION WRITING CONTEST entries must be submitted by April 16 to Heinz Woelk, assistant professor of English, 325 Administration/Humanities Building or the Language and Literature Office, 310 A/H. Students may submit science fiction or fantasy stories; there are no specific length requirements. First, second and third prizes are $25, $15 and $10.

A FREE SUPERWASH will be held from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. April 17 (rain date April 24) in the Matco and K-Mart parking lots. The car wash is sponsored by service organization Alpha Sigma Gamma. Members will be sponsored according to the number of cars that are washed. All proceeds go to the Association for Retarded Citizens.

A $100 SCHOLARSHIP is being offered by the Association for Computing Machinery for any first-year student interested in computing. Guidelines and applications may be obtained from Wayne Bailey, assistant professor of mathematics, 207 Violette Hall. The deadline for application is April 15.

SCHOLARSHIP FUND APPLICATIONS for the William M. Reiss Foundation Scholarship are available in the Financial Aids Office, 100 Administration/Humanities Building. Recipients are limited to graduates of publicly supported high schools in Belleville, Ill. All required materials must be submitted before May 1.

THE NORTHEAST MISSOURI CREDIT UNION, the Credit Union for teachers and full-time employees of the school systems in the area, has moved its office to 4214 Laughlin Hall. The telephone number is the same: 785-4278.

WHAT COLOR IS YOUR PARACHUTE?, a job-seeking skills workshop, will be held from 3:30-4:30 p.m. April 19 in 228 Violette Hall. Students can sign up for the workshop at the Career Planning and Placement Center, first floor, Blanton Hall. Only 15 students can participate. This is the last workshop of the year.

"NORTHEAST TODAY" is a newsletter published by the Public Relations Office each Monday. To insure accuracy, articles of campus-wide interest should be turned in by 5 p.m. Wednesday on forms available in McKinney Center.

Robert Leonard, Bradley Johnson and Thomas McDonald, Business, attended the Case Research Association Spring Symposium and the 9th Annual Conference of the Southwestern Federation of Administrative Disciplines from March 15-21 in Dallas.

Tom Ritchie, Fine Arts, has recently sold the publishing rights for two of his choral pieces to Plymouth Music Publishers of Fort Lauderdale, Fla. The works are settings of "Black is the Colour of My True Love's Hair" and "Shall We Gather at the River?" They will be published as part of Plymouth's Galleria Press.

Garry Gordon and Susan Shoaff, Fine Arts, are taking a group of art students and art education majors to New York City April 1 through Friday for the National Art Education Conference.

James Tichenor, Social Science, recently attended the 14th annual meeting of the National Association of School Psychologists in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Tichenor is currently president of the Missouri Association of School Psychologists and was representing Missouri as well as NMSU's school psychology masters program.

Blanton/Nason Hall Council and Diane Muldoon, a junior living in Centennial Hall, are the February co-winners of the first National Residence Hall Honorary Recognition of the Month. Recognition of the Month is a program recognizing a person or group who has given outstanding contributions to the NMSU housing program. Forms to nominate a person or group for March are available in the Housing Office, 101 Administration/Humanities Building and should be returned to Anne Dougherty, assistant director of Centennial Hall, by Wednesday.

Nancy Hendrix, Special Programs, recently attended a workshop on American Sign Language in St. Louis, Mo.

Evaluation for Health Curriculum Design is the paper Charles Fast, Health Education, presented before city and county school directors at the spring convention of the Central District of the American Alliance for Health, Physical Education, Recreation and Dance on April 2 in South Dakota.

Ronald Knight, Mathematics, was notified that his paper "Unstable Weak Attractors" has been accepted for publication in the Proceedings of the American Mathematical Society. He was also notified that his paper, "Characterizations of Recurrent and Stable Transformation Groups," has been accepted for publication in the Bulletin of the Institute of Mathematics, Academia Sinica in the Republic of China.

Terry Taylor, director of admissions and varsity tennis coach, has been named to the NCAA Midwest Regional Selection Committee for determining NCAA national tennis qualifying teams.

Jim Barnes, Language and Literature, has been selected to have his biographical entry listed in the "Directory of American Scholars" (8th edition, 1982). He has a poem, "Memories of Oceanside," forthcoming in the spring issue of "New Letters," an international journal of art and literature headquartered in Kansas City. His new book of poetry, "The American Book of the Dead," was published this month by the University of Illinois Press.