

Northeast Today

MONDAY, Feb. 6, 1984

HAPPENINGS

MONDAY, Feb. 6

Blue Key Campus Bowl, Conference Room, SUB, through Friday

8 p.m. Lyceum presents the Kansas City Ballet, Aud., BH

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 8

5:30 & 7:30 p.m. Women's and Men's Basketball vs. Northwest Missouri State, Pershing Arena

FRIDAY, Feb. 10

7 & 9 p.m. SAB Movie, "Risky Business," Aud., BH

SATURDAY, Feb. 11

6:30 p.m. Women's Swimming vs. William Woods, Natatorium

MAY GRADUATES should complete the cap and gown order forms available in the Campus Bookstore. The forms must be returned by Feb. 20.

WINDFALL LITERARY MAGAZINE members will be selling literary Valentine cards and Windfall Magazine from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. every day this week in the Student Union Building. They will also accept any entries to the poetry, prose and cover contest. Deadline for entries is Feb. 15. For more information, contact Staria Griffin at 665-9274.

VALUE-ADDED HEARINGS will be held by Student Senate from 6:30-8:30 p.m. Tuesday and from 4-6 p.m. Wednesday, in the Conference Room of the Student Union Building. Tuesday, Lanny Morley, head of the Math Division, and other faculty members from the division, will speak. Dean Rosebery, head of the Science Division, and Ron Gaber, director of Residence Life, will speak Wednesday.

APPLICATIONS for the following scholarships, open to all business students, may be obtained in 182 Violette Hall: Edward D. Jones, Joseph Mitch Memorial, Delta Sigma Pi, Paul Owen Selby and Dean and Mrs. Earl Ludlow.

THE BALDWIN LECTURE is scheduled for 6:30 p.m. Feb. 23, in the Georgian Room of the Student Union Building. The speaker for the lecture will be Stan Koplik, executive director of the Board of Regents for the state of Kansas. The 1984 Service Recognition Ceremony, which will honor those who are retiring in 1984, as well as those who are celebrating their tenth and twenty-fifth anniversaries with the University, is scheduled in conjunction with the lecture.

GRANTS FOR TWO GERMAN STUDIES programs in the summer of 1984 are being offered by the German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD) in New York. "Deutschlandkundlicher Sommerkurs" is an eight-week course (in German) offered at a German university in July and August. Any student with at least junior status and a good working knowledge of German is encouraged to apply. The deadline for application is Feb. 29. "Germany Today" is a three-week information program (in English) conducted in cooperation with a German university. The program is open to university administrators, faculty and, in exceptional cases, advanced graduate students. Knowledge of German is not required. For applications or more information write the DAAD at 535 Fifth Ave., Suite 1107, New York, New York 10017 or call (212) 599-0464.

THE STUDENT RECREATION ASSOCIATION will hold a doughnut sale from 8:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday, in the Administration/Humanities Building.

ANYONE INTERESTED in working for KNEU, the campus radio station, should attend an organizational meeting at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, in the KNEU Office, on the third floor of Laughlin Building.

STUDENT SENATE is accepting applications for the positions of coordinator and secretary of the 1984 Homecoming Committee. Applicants must be a currently enrolled freshman, sophomore or junior. Applications are available in 204 Administration/Humanities Building or in the Student Senate Office in the Student Union Building. Deadline for applications is Feb. 17. For more information, contact Eric White at 665-5822.

ONE- AND TWO-YEAR CERTIFICATE PROGRAM students who plan to complete the requirements for their program by May 1984, and who would like to graduate must pick up an application to graduate at the Registrar's Office. Completed applications are due in the Registrar's Office by Feb. 10.

SEVERAL ON-CAMPUS INTERVIEWS will be conducted next week. Camp Soaring Hawk will have a representative on campus Feb. 14. On Feb. 15, representatives from Firestone Tire and Rubber Co. and the Peace Corps, will conduct interviews. On Feb. 16, Penn-Daniels Inc. and the Peace Corps will again conduct interviews. Interested students should sign up for an appointment at the Career Planning and Placement Center in McKinney Center.

THE ALPHA UPSILON CHAPTER of Alpha Delta Kappa is offering a scholarship to a female senior who is presently student teaching and has a minimum 2.50 GPA. Applications are available in the Financial Aids Office and must be submitted by February 20.

COLLEGE CREDIT FOR INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCES may be earned by students through the Voluntary Service Learning program of the International Christian Youth Exchange. The program provides year-long opportunities in 24 countries for full or part-time practical work in a wide range of social service fields, including programs for disabled persons, alternative energy, agricultural development, environmental education and literacy. ICYE scholarships are available, and many exchange students are also eligible for student financial assistance from government sources. For more information, call Connie Reid at 785-4509.

MONDAY

CONCERNED CITIZENS for a Bilateral Nuclear Weapons Freeze will hold an open meeting at 8 p.m. tonight, at Wesley House.

A "MR. MISSOURI CONTEST" will be held at 8 p.m. tonight, in Missouri Hall cafeteria. Residents of Missouri Hall will be competing for three entries in the Mr. University contest. Admission is 50 cents.

TUESDAY

LAMBDA ALPHA EPSILON will meet at 5:30 p.m. Tuesday, in 325 Pershing Building. A member of the Missouri Highway Patrol will be the guest speaker.

THE PRE-VETERINARY CLUB will meet at 8 p.m. Tuesday, in 212 Science Hall. Ricki Trosen, guest speaker, will speak on "Alternatives to the Veterinary Profession. All pre-veterinary majors are welcome.

"FORTY-SEVEN RONIN II," the third in a series of Japanese films, will be shown at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, in 106 Laughlin Hall. Admission is free.

WEDNESDAY

THE BOARD OF REGENTS will meet at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday, in the Conference Room in the Student Union Building.

THURSDAY

THE AMERICAN CHEMICAL SOCIETY Student Affiliates will meet at 4:30 p.m. Thursday, in 240 Science Hall. Guest speaker for the meeting will be Don Kurtz from Iowa State University. His topic will be "Biologically Related Iron and Sulfur Chemistry.

"COLOR ME BEAUTIFUL," a program on color selection in clothing, will be held at 7 p.m. Thursday, in Centennial Hall main lounge.

FRIDAY

ENTRY DEADLINE for an individual marksmanship competition to be held at 6 p.m. Feb. 20-21, at the Brewer Hall Annex Rifle Range is 5 p.m. Friday. Students may sign up at the Intramural Sports Recreation Office, 309 Pershing Building, and may practice at no charge from 6-9 p.m. Mondays and from 1-3 p.m. Fridays.

NORTHEAST NOTES

Lois Korslund, Home Economics, has been named to the long-range planning committee of the Missouri Home Economics Association.

Joyce Hearn, Home Economics, is a candidate for vice president of the Missouri Home Economics Association.

Pyung E. Han, Business, will present his paper "Personal Factors in the Process of Communication" to the Third Behavioral Science Conference at Northwest Missouri State University in March, 1984.

Donald Schmidt, Education, is co-author of the article, "Solving an Identity Crisis," which was published in the January issue of "Principal," the official magazine of the National Association of Elementary School Principals. The article deals with interdisciplinary teaching in the middle school.
