

Today

MONDAY, APRIL 14, 1986

VOL. 1 NO. 57

STUDENTS VIE FOR SENATE SEATS

Thirty-eight students petitioned for Student Senate openings for the 1986-87 academic year. Elections are set for 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Wednesday, in the Tangerine Room in the Student Union Building. Free ice cream will be served during elections. Following is a list of candidates. One amendment will also be on the ballot.

PRESIDENT

Bonnie Neuner
Pre-law/History; Linn, Mo.
"The last three years on Senate have been great; I'm ready to make the fourth even better."

Thomas P. Wehde
Business Administration; Old Monroe, Mo.
"Allow me to work for you."

VICE PRESIDENT

Joe Bantz
Math Education; Oklahoma City
"With one year of committee leadership behind me, I am prepared to guide all committees."

Lance Rogers
Business Administration; Moberly, Mo.
"I've enjoyed my involvement with Senate this year as treasurer and would appreciate another chance."

SECRETARY

Alice Pope
Psychology; Rich Fountain, Mo.
"I am presently a Student Senate councilwoman with experience in organization, leadership and communication skills."

Jennifer Serati
Criminal Justice; Webster Groves
"An active part of the student body, Secretary Serati is enthusiastic and definitely capable."

TREASURER

Deb Webb
Accounting; Emmetsburg, Iowa
"I have enjoyed my involvement in Senate, and I am looking forward to next year."

COUNCILPERSON-AT-LARGE

Dan Rebmann
Political Science; St. Louis
"I am proud to be representing the students now, and I'm hoping to continue."

Paul Holtrup
Accounting; Wentzville, Mo.
"Furthering my involvement in Student Senate will enable me to represent the student body effectively."

Kris Spence
Biology; Kahoka, Mo.
"Good representation is vital in expressing student opinion and in taking action on student concerns."

COUNCILWOMAN

Lurette Drumheller
Political Science; Tampa, Fla.
"Whatever your opinions may be, reelect Councilwoman Drumheller to continue voicing them for the students."

Laura Obermeyer
Political Science; Ballwin, Mo.
"With your support, we can make next fall an exciting and productive semester."

Sue Steinhauer
Math/Computer Science; Parnell, Mo.
"I'm involved in many campus activities. I would like to make Senate one of them."

Annette Graeler
Business Administration; Wentzville, Mo.
"As councilwoman I will strive to do all that I can for Senate."

Lori Bauman
Business Administration; Foristell, Mo.
"If elected councilwoman I will represent the student body to the best of my ability."

COUNCILMAN

Tim Bahr
Business Administration;
"As I have served on Senate for the past year, I feel I am qualified."

Jeff Drinkard
Environmental Science; St. Charles, Mo.
"I want you, to want me."

Robert Dickerson
Math/Computer Science; Troy, Mo.
"No one knows what he can do until he tries. Give me the opportunity."

Matthew Kuehl
Chemical Engineering;
Davenport, Iowa
"Goals! You can bank on them! Re-elect Kuehl for councilman."

Peter Holton
History Education; Peabody, Mass.
"Students' rights are very important. As councilman, I will uphold those rights."

SENIOR REPRESENTATIVE

Peggy Smith
Mass Communication;
Creve Coeur, Mo.
"Don't impress people with what you're going to do. Build a reputation on what you've done."

Jane Hampton
Accounting; New Boston, Ill.
"Seniors, it's your last year for input on campus. Vote Hampton so you are heard."

JUNIOR REPRESENTATIVE

Denise Rendina
Political Science; Keokuk, Iowa
"Holding this position, I will help incorporate the general student body's ideas into Student Senate."

Cassie Payne
Interpersonal Communication;
St. Charles, Mo.
"I have the experience to be the ears, eyes and voice of the junior class."

Dianne Smith
Accounting; Chillicothe, Mo.
"I would appreciate the opportunity to serve as your junior representative to the Student Senate."

Jeff Baxendale
Political Science; West Chicago, Ill.
"I would like to be able to serve the students of this University."

Stephen Torre
English; Chillicothe, Mo.
"I want to do something constructive for the students."

Timothy O'Brien
Business Administration; St. Louis
"I believe my experiences from previous extracurricular activities will make our Student Senate more progressive."

Todd Booher
Psychology; Joplin, Mo.
"Student Senate gives me the possibility to work for you."

SOPHOMORE REPRESENTATIVE

Beth Buczynski
English; Peoria, Ill.
"I have a lot of new ideas and want to work for you."

Theresa Bono
Political Science; Shelby, Mo.
"If elected representative, I hope to represent the students as well as I can."

Laura Bordewicke
Advertising Design; Blue Springs, Mo.
"Let's get some enthusiasm back in this school--I'd really appreciate your vote."

Tom Hackworth
Physical Education; Liberty, Mo.
"The sophomore for the sophomores, the student for the students."

Vic Bruhn
Political Science; Cameron, Mo.
"I urge everyone to vote and would appreciate your vote greatly."

Marilyn Murphy
Music Education; Knoxville, Iowa
"I'm anxious to become more involved in campus activities and meet new people through Senate."

Karen MacDonough
Business Administration;
Florissant, Mo.
"I will give 100 percent working with and for the students of NMSU."

Kathy MacDonough
Business Administration;
"I am willing to do my best to meet my fellow students'
needs."

Carolyn Kroeger
Business Administration;
Durham, Mo.
"I promise to uphold the standards of the Senate to best represent my class."

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

Article III, Section 3
The student representative to the Board of Governors shall be a non-voting member of the Student Senate.

THIS WEEK...

FALL OUT WEEK, sponsored by the World Peace Group, will be held today through Sunday. Carnations for peace will be sold today, in Ryle Hall and the Student Union Building. The films,
"Preventing Nuclear War" and
"The Atomic Cafe" will be shown at 7 p.m. Tuesday, in 208 Administration/Humanities Building. Other activities include a speaker, Senji Yamaguchi, who will speak at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, in the Tangerine Room in the Student Union Building, and a Walk-a-thon beginning at 12:30 p.m.
Sunday at Red Barn Park.

T.O.M.B., a student-run used book directory, will be collecting orders from 12:30 to 4:30 p.m. today through May 1
in the Student Union Building.
T.O.M.B. will publish this list
April 23, 27, 30 and May 4 and
7. T.O.M.B. is sponsored by the Society of Physics Students.

A FREE HOME-BUYING and financing Seminar will be presented by Community Federal in association with the Northeast Central Board of Realtors from 7 to 9 p.m. tonight, in the meeting room of Union Electric, 1220 North Baltimore. All faculty, staff and students who may be considering the purchase of a home or who just want more information on the current status of homeownership and home financing are welcome to attend.

THE MEDICAL TECHNOLOGY CLUB is sponsoring a blood drive from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tuesday through Thursday, on the third floor of the Student Union Building. The organization with the highest percentage of participants will win a free night's use of a VCR and movies provided by Wright's Sight and Sound and Ryder's.

THE 29TH ANNUAL Joseph Baldwin Lecture and Recognition Dinner is scheduled for 6:30 p.m. Tuesday, in the Georgian Room in the Student Union Building. John Godfrey, president of the University of King's College, Nova Scotia, will present the lecture. Retiring faculty and staff and those celebrating their 10- and 25-year anniversary will be honored at the banquet.

NURSING THEORIST Sister Callista Roy will speak at 7 p.m. Tuesday, in 172 Violette Hall. Sister Roy is research nurse in the department of Physiological Nursing and a Postdoctoral Fellow at the University of California. The Division of Nursing adopted the Roy Adaptation Model of Nursing theory in 1975. Students, alumni and the public are invited to meet Sister Roy from 10 a.m. to noon or from 1 to 3 p.m. Tuesday, in the Tangerine Room in the Student Union Building.

INSTRUCTIONS for playing hacky sack will be given at 7 p.m. Tuesday, in Centennial Hall. Anyone interested in learning to play is welcome.

THE RIVALS, a play by Richard Sheridan, will be performed by the University Players at 8 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday, in Baldwin Hall Little Theatre. Tickets are free for students and staff, but there is a 50 cent reservation fee for advance tickets available in the Student Activities Board Office in the Student Union Building.

A LECTURE will be given by Charles McClain, president of NMSU, at 7 p.m. Wednesday, in the Tangerine Room in the Student Union Building. The lecture is the last of the "Last Lecture Series," sponsored by Grim Hall, which features weekly speakers who address the audience as if it were the final lecture of his or her career.

A QUESTION/ANSWER SESSION on the Catholic faith will be held from 8 to 9:15 p.m. Wednesday, at the Newman Center. The session is being sponsored by the Newman Center peer ministry group.

A QUESTION/ANSWER FORUM will be held at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, in Centennial Hall. Terry Smith, Ron Gaber and Lori Haxton will be on hand to answer any questions about campus policies. Anyone with questions, complaints, concerns or ideas about how to improve NMSU is encouraged to participate.

A LECTURE/DEMONSTRATION on "Display Holography" will be presented by Tung Jeong, chairperson and A.B. Dick professor of physics at Lake Forest College, Ill., at 12:30 p.m. Friday, in 112 Science Hall. This talk will be slanted toward science students. Jeong will also give a presentation at 7:30 p.m. Friday, in 106 Laughlin Hall for the general public. Jeong is an internationally recognized authority in the field of holography and has presented more than 400 demonstrations around the world.

A RE-ENCOUNTER for those who have made a Teens Encounter Christ, Search or Christ Encounter will be held Friday and Saturday, at the Newman Center.

A VOLLEYBALL and basketball night, sponsored by the Baptist Student Union, will begin at 7 p.m. Friday, at the Hamilton Street Baptist Church. Students and faculty are invited to participate.

A 5K AND 10K RUN, sponsored by the Residence Hall Association and Pizza Hut, will begin at 8:30 a.m. Saturday, at the south Pizza Hut. All proceeds will go to United Cerebral Palsy. Entry forms may be picked up in Missouri Hall.

A SPINE-TINGLING movie festival, sponsored by the Student Activities Board, will take place at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, at Red Barn Park. Admission is free. The movies "Final Exam" and "Children of the Corn" will be shown.

AN EXCURSION to Six Flags in St. Louis, sponsored by the Student Activities Board, will take place Sunday. Rides will leave at 7 a.m. from the circle drive in front of the Administration/Humanities Building. Cost is $14 with and SAB sticker or $16 without.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

WINDFALL campus literary magazine is currently accepting submissions of poetry and fiction. All submissions must be typed and must include a self-addressed, stamped envelope. All submissions are due by 5 p.m. Tuesday, in the Windfall mailbox in the Student Union Building.

UNIVERSITY USHER applications are available in the Graduate Office, 203 Administration/Humanities Building. Deadline for applications is Friday.

JOB APPLICATIONS for summer Orientation Staff are available in the Admissions Office, 205 Administration/Humanities Building. A required information session will be held at 6 p.m. Thursday, in 210 Administration/Humanities Building. Application deadline is April 22. Jobs are available for both undergraduate and graduate students.

INDEX EDITOR applications are available in the Dean of Students Office, 204 Administration/Humanities Building and the Index Office, 315 Laughlin Hall. Applications are due by 5 p.m. today.

DOG DAYS '86, a University-wide spring celebration, will be held April 24 through 27. Festivities planned by various campus organizations will take place throughout the week.

THE 19TH ANNUAL Teacher Interview Day is scheduled for 9 a.m. to 1 p.m., April 21, in the Georgian Room in the Student Union Building. Representatives from more than 130 school districts from the tri-state area will interview interested students and alumni. No appointment is necessary. For information, call the Career Planning and Placement Office at 785-4237.

THE K-VILLE CYCLE will be performed from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. April 24, in the Activities Room of the Student Union Building. The cycle features continuous performances of "The Banns," "The Killing of Able," "Noah," "The Sacrifice of Isaac," "The Woman Taken in Adultery" and "The Passion Play." The plays will be performed in the tradition of Medieval cycle plays, presented in modern English. There is no admission charge and spectators may enter and leave at any time throughout the course of the performances.

A VIDEO DANCE, sponsored by the Student Activities Board, will be held from 8 p.m. to midnight, April 24, on the mall. In case of rain, the dance will be held in Kirk Gym.

A FACULTY/STAFF golf tournament will be held at 8:30 a.m., April 26, at La Plata golf course. Anyone interested should contact the Intramural Office by April 23.

THE DEAN OF INSTRUCTION has placed in the reference section of Pickler Memorial Library the book, "1986 Internships." This book lists 35,000 on-the-job training opportunities for all types of careers. It is divided into 23 career sections and includes a section on international internships.

A SOCIAL SCIENCE LECTURE, "World Civilization from the Point of View of the Author," will be given at 2:30 p.m., April 21, in Baldwin Hall Little Theatre. F. Roy Willis, professor of history at the University of California-Davis and author of the world civilization text used in SS 120 and 121, will present the lecture. Willis will also speak at the Phi Alpha Theta and Historical Society banquet at 7 p.m., April 21, in the Spanish Room of the Student Union Building. He will speak on "France's Islands: Observing the End of an Empire." Tickets to the banquet are available from the Student Activities Office, 204 Administration/Humanities Building or from any member of either organization.

AN ECHO DANCE, the first since 1971, will be held Friday in Kirk Gym. Echo King and Queen will be announced at the dance.

A DAY AT THE LAKE will be held at 12:30 p.m., April 27, at Thousand Hills State Park. The Student Activities Board is sponsoring the event.

"CHEAP TRICK," sponsored by the Student Activities Board, will perform at 8 p.m., April 25, in Baldwin Hall Auditorium. Tickets are $7 with an SAB sticker and $9 without.

DATELINE

MONDAY

Percussion studio recital,
8 p.m., Aud., BH

TUESDAY

Residence Hall renewal due
Deadline for summer financial aid applications
Senior Art Show, Anna McDonald, 2nd floor, BH
Testing Services, College Level Examination Program (CLEP), 8 a.m., 103 A/H
Men's and Women's Tennis vs. Northwest Mo., 2 p.m.

WEDNESDAY

Faculty piano recital,
Janice Saffir, 8 p.m.,
Aud., BH

THURSDAY

Testing Services, General Educational Test, 8 a.m., 103 A/H
Phi Theta Kappa open meeting, 6 p.m., Rm. 2
SJB
Flute choir and trumpet ensemble, 8 p.m., Aud. BH

FRIDAY

Pre-professional weekend
Testing Services, National League for Nursing, 8 a.m., KM
SAB Movie, "Cocoon," 7 &
9:15 p.m., Aud., BH

SATURDAY

Testing Services, Medical College Admissions Test and Real Estate Licensing Exam, 8 a.m.
Orchestra concert,
8 p.m., Aud., BH