STUDENT ACTIVITIES CARDS are for sale from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. all this week in the Student Union. The cost is $7.50 for the card, which is good for free admissions and discount on admissions to campus events throughout the 1977-78 academic year.

APPLICATIONS FOR PARKING STICKERS are available at Safety and Security. Students should have their driver's license and car license plate number with them when applying for a sticker. After completing the application, students may purchase parking stickers at the Business Office for $7. Faculty parking stickers are available at Safety and Security.

COUPON BOOKS are for sale from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. all this week in the Student Union. The coupon books have been compiled by the Industrial Arts Club, and sell for $2.50 each. They contain coupons from 17 different merchants in Kirksville.

THE FIRST ISSUE OF THE INDEX will be published Thursday, Sept. 1. The Index office is on the second floor of Adair House, which is across from the Violette Hall parking lot. The phone number is ext. 3398.

THE $5 ADD/DROP fee begins today.

A TOUR OF A NON-TILLAGE DEMONSTRATION PLOT will be held at 1:30 p.m. today at the Sublette Radar Station. The tour is sponsored by NMSU and the Chevron Chemical Co. Buffalo and Allis-Chalmers brands of no-till planters will be shown. The tour is free and open to the public.

"HAPPENINGS"

FRIDAY, Sept. 2

Last day to pick up financial aids
checks
Last day to add classes

'DR. ZHIVAGO' will be shown at 8 p.m. Tuesday in Baldwin Hall Auditorium. It will be the first of the "Classic Series" of movies to be presented each Tuesday evening of the semester by the Student Activities Board. Admission is free to holders of Student Activities Cards, and 50¢ to all others.

CAMPUS CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP will sponsor a concert at 7:30 tonight in the Activities Room of the Student Union. It will be a multi-media presentation featuring "Rising Hope," a group from Cincinnati. The concert is free and the public is invited to attend.

LAST YEAR'S STUDENTS who did not pick up their 1977 Echo may do so at the Echo or Index office. To pick up a yearbook, a student must have his social security number with him. Students who did not take full class loads both semesters last year must pay $3 per semester for the Echo.

CIRCLE K, a college service organization, will hold its first meeting at 6 p.m. Wednesday in Room 208 of Laughlin Building. Anyone interested in joining is invited to attend. Plans for this semester's projects and activities will be discussed.

THE LAST DAY TO PICK UP financial aids checks is Friday, Sept. 2. Checks can be picked up at the Business Office, 105 Administration/Humanities Building.

A RECEPTION FOR WALTER BALL, professor of art at Northern Illinois University, will be held at 7-8:30 tonight in the Art Gallery, 218 Baldwin Hall. An exhibition of his paintings and drawings will be in the gallery from now until Sept. 2. Ball will also give a slide talk at 10 a.m. tomorrow in the Little Theatre, Baldwin Hall.

AUDITIONS for the first production showcase of the University Players will be held today and tomorrow in the Little Theatre, Baldwin Hall. The auditions are open to any student on campus who has not previously appeared in any production at NMSU or other universities. Each audition includes a one-to-three minute recitation. All persons will be cast. On Wednesday, the University Players will meet at 5:30 p.m. in the Little Theatre, Baldwin Hall. For further information, contact Dr. J. G. Severns, ext. 3377.

A PZAZZ DISCO DANCE will be held at 8 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 1, on the Mall by the Student Union. The dance, sponsored by the Student Activities Board, is free for all students. In case of rain, it will be held in the Snack Bar.

A FINAL SCHEDULE OF SWIM HOURS has been released by the natatorium. Fall recreation swim hours for students, faculty, and staff will be 5 to 9:45 p.m. Monday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, and 10 a.m. to 1:45 p.m. Saturday. Family swim hours for faculty, students, and staff, and their spouses and children will be 5 to 9:45 p.m. Friday, and 10 a.m. to 1:45 p.m. Saturday. Children under 12 must be accompanied by an eligible parent in swimming attire. All swimmers must wear proper bathing suit attire. No cut-offs or gym shorts are allowed. A current validated ID card and a paid-fees receipt are necessary for admission to the pool.

ORAL INTERPRETATION CLUB will hold its first meeting at 6:30 p.m. Thursday in Room 6 of the Student Union Bldg.

THE CHILD DEVELOPMENT CENTER nursery school begins operation today. Hours for the fall semester are 7:45 to 11 a.m. Monday through Friday. The center provides children with a mid-morning snack as well as offering them a learning experience and the opportunity for interaction with other children. Fees are $125 per semester and a child must be at least 3 years old to attend. Parents do not have to be affiliated with the University. Anyone interested in having their child attend should contact Charlotte Wallinga, director, at ext. 2740 or the Home Economics Division at ext. 7108 for details.

THE WRITING LAB will be open from 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Monday through Friday during the fall semester. The lab is located in 306 Administration/Humanities Building. Kathy Loy, lab director, says the facilities may be used by any student who wishes to improve his writing ability. Students may be referred to the lab by a teacher or just come by, she says. If a teacher wants to refer a student, he should get a referral sheet from his division office or the Language and Literature office, and send it to the lab. No fee is charged for services such as diagnostic testing and writing analysis. This week will be devoted to testing and scheduling at the lab.

NMSU, 1867-1977, is the theme of the window display at the library. It depicts memorabilia of NMSU's centennial year in 1967. Dates for this display are Aug. 22-Sept. 2.

THE PREPARATORY MUSIC PROGRAM for persons of all ages now is enrolling students. Vocal, instrumental and piano lessons will be taught by instructors who have music degrees or are pursuing music degrees at the University. For further information, contact Susan See, director, ext. 3344.
