

Northeast Today

November 24, 1975

THE BULLDOG BASKETBALL SEASON BEGINS SATURDAY. Ken Gardner, Athletic Director, reminds faculty and staff that they may purchase reserved season tickets for $15 or single game reserve seat tickets for $2.

Faculty and staff can receive two free general admission tickets per game; additional tickets will be regular admission prices. Tickets can be obtained at the ticket booth or the Business Office from 8 a.m.-5 p.m.

OLD MAGAZINES? The Teaching Skills Center needs picture magazines (Life, Look, Better Homes & Gardens, Travel, etc.) for use in developing teaching aids. Please call ext. 7224 for pick-up.

A DISPLAY OF PROGRAMS AND PLAYBILLS is on display now through Dec. 1 in the foyer and lobby of the library. The display is being sponsored by the University's Drama Department.

FACULTY NOTES....William Hall and Lonny Morrow, Special Programs, attended a meeting of the Intrastate Planning Council of Missouri Nov. 13 in Jefferson City.Wynn Rutledge, Special Programs, attended the national convention of the American Speech and Hearing Association Nov. 21-24 in Washington, D.C.....
John H. Settlage, Science, recently spoke to the Keytesville Classroom Teachers Association on "Environmental Studies and Australian Education."
....Andrew Grossbardt, Language and Literature, has had two poems accepted for publication in Epoch, published at Cornell University, New York. He also has had a translation of a poem by Jules Supervielle accepted for publication by The Bitter Oleander, published in Syracuse....Dale A. Jorgenson, Fine Arts, is attending the annual meeting of the National Association of Schools of Music in San Diego. He is vice-chairman of Region 3 which includes several of the Midwest states and is a visitation examiner for the association....Sal Costa, Social Science, recently accompanied his students in abnormal psychology on a tour of the Fulton State Hospital. The tour familiarized them with state facilities and gave them an opportunity to interact with patients....William Kitts, Social Science, is attending the 55th annual convention of the National Council for the Social Studies through Nov. 29 in Atlanta, Georgia. He was appointed by the president to serve on the rural culturally different committee for a three-year term and is chairman of one of the subcommittees....Jim Barnes, Language and Literature, recently had three translations of poems by Dagmar Nick, a German poetess, accepted for publication by The International Poetry Review. Jim was a visiting poet and critic at the St. Louis Poetry Center November 16. Last weekend he served as visiting poet and consultant at the Poets Workshop at Central Missouri State University, Warrensburg. Over Thanksgiving vacation he will address a session of the annual meeting of the National Council of Teachers of English on "American Indian Poetry" in San Diego.

HAPPY THANKSGIVING!

NORTHEAST TODAY is published every Monday by the Public Relations Office. Deadline for news items is Friday noon.

CLOCKWORK ORANGE will be shown at 8 p.m. Dec. 4 in Baldwin Hall Auditorium. Admission will be $1 per person. The film is being sponsored by the Psychology Club.