Friday, Dec. 16	P5 MWF	P3 TTh	P4 TTh	P10 MWF	P1 MWF
	P2 MWF	P6 TTh	P7 MWF	P9 TTh	P8 TTh

All finals for Saturday and evening classes will be given at the last scheduled meeting of the class.

A SECOND READING GROUP will meet at 7:30 tonight in the Communication Skills Lab, 306 Administration/Humanities Building to discuss Robert Pirsig's Zen and the Art of Motorcycle Maintenance. For further information, call Dr. Shirley Morahan, assistant professor of English, at ext. 2149.

CALENDARS for 1978 will be sold by Campus Volunteers in the Student Union Building beginning Tuesday through Dec. 22.

UNICEF cards, calenders, and gift items are for sale by the Lutheran Student Association in the Student Union Building today. All students, faculty, and staff who ordered items should pick them up today or call Mary Jane Kohlenberg, faculty adviser, ext. 2578.

A SNACK COOK is needed for spring semester at the Child Development Center. The hours will be from 9-11 a.m. Monday through Friday. For further information call Charlotte Wallinga, instructor in child development and director of child/family studies, at ext. 2740 or ext. 7177.

THE BOARD OF REGENTS will hold its regular monthly meeting at 10 a.m. Tuesday in the Conference Room of the Student Union Building.

THE NEMO SINGERS will present a candlelight concert at 8 p.m. Tuesday in Baldwin Auditorium. The public is invited to attend at no charge. The NEMO Singers also will be featured along with their director, Clay Dawson, at 9:07 a.m. Tuesday on the Area Scene program of KIRX-AM.

STUDENTS who are presently on regular student or work-study payroll and who will not be on campus to pick up their checks in January should leave a self-addressed stamped envelope in the Business Office, 105 Administration/Humanities Building.

SIRLOIN STOCKADE representatives will be on campus Tuesday to interview December and May graduates for management trainee positions. All majors interested in the restaurant business should contact the Placement Office, First Floor of Blanton Hall, for interview appointments.

ALL RESIDENCE HALL FEES, returned checks and penalties, lab fees, and all other charges must be paid by the end of the semester. Students who owe money to the University will not receive their grades or transcripts, and will not be allowed to pre-enroll for next semester. Payments can be made at the cashier's window in the Business Office, 105 Administration/Humanities Building from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Traffic fees should be paid at Safety and Security and library fines should be paid at Pickler Memorial Library.

THE PLACEMENTS OFFICE asks that students, faculty, and staff members observe the red "Reserved for Placement Interviewers" signs in the lot just east of Blanton Hall. Because it was virtually impossible for placement visitors to find parking spaces, four spaces were assigned for them. When the signs are uncovered, only interviewers are to park in the spaces. When the signs are covered, they are available to anyone seeking to park in the lot. The Placements Office requests that these signs be observed especially now during the heavy employment season.

A JOB OPENING for an assistant hall director will be available beginning spring semester. Applicants must be female graduate students. Interested persons should contact Ron Gaber, housing director, immediately.

THE CHILD DEVELOPMENT CENTER nursery school begins operation Jan. 10. Hours for the spring semester are 8-11 a.m. Monday through Friday. The center provides children with a mid-morning snack as well as offering them a learning experience and the opportunity for interaction with other children. Fees are $125 per semester and a child must be at least 3 years old to attend. Parents do not have to be affiliated with the University. Any parent interested in having a child attend should contact Charlotte Wallinga, director, at ext. 2740, or the Home Economics Division at ext. 7108 for details.
