

Northeast Today

November 17, 1975

THE BOARD OF REGENTS will meet at 2 p.m. tomorrow in the Conference Room of the S.U.B. Everyone is welcome.

LT. GOV. WILLIAM C. PHELPS and three Republican legislators are scheduled to participate in a question and answer session tomorrow beginning at 7:15 p.m. in the Georgian Room of the S.U.B. Also attending will be Sen. Larry Marshall (Columbia), Rep. Russell Brockfeld (Warrenton) and Rep. Gail Novinger (Kirksville.) The session is being sponsored by the Student Senate. The University community is invited to attend.

THE MUSIC MAN, by Meredith Wilson, will be presented at 8 p.m. Wednesday through Friday in Baldwin Auditorium. More than 200 students will be involved as actors and actresses, singers, dancers and musicians.

University students, faculty and staff will be admitted free by presenting their I.D.s. General admission will be $2 for adults and $1 for students not attending Northeast. Tickets will be available in the main concourse of the Union from 1-4 p.m. today and tomorrow.

BACKPACKING THROUGH EAST AFRICA will be Bill Mitchell's (Military Science) topic tomorrow at 7 p.m. in 266 Violette Hall. His presentation will be the first of a five-part series consisting of color slides and lectures. Everyone's invited free of charge.

PROPOSAL WRITING FOR FACULTY AND INSTITUTIONAL DEVELOPMENT, a seminar to be offered Thursday by Bill Fulkerson, will be held at 3:30 p.m. in the Alumni Room of the S.U.B. Fulkerson is Associate Executive Director of the American Association of State Colleges and Universities.

THE ECHO STAFF is asking the help of the faculty in getting good pictures of classroom and other academic activities. Steve Bryant, Echo editor, asks that faculty call Deanna Apperson (2585) or ext. 3343 or 3398 if they have ideas.

'READ ON' is the theme of this week -- Child's Book Week. The University library is commemorating the week with a display of mobiles, posters, bulletin boards and book jackets throughout the library. The display emphasizes the availability of interesting reading of fact and fiction on the child's level, according to Martha Brockman of the library staff.

A REP OF SOUTHWESTERN BELL TELEPHONE, Jack A. Melton, will be on campus to review the University's telephone system and to discuss with various persons throughout the campus any problems they are having with it. Ray Klingensmith, Dean of Administration and General Counsel, said that following his visit, Melton will offer suggestions for improved service.

ROBERT O. ANDERSON, chairman of the board and leading stockholder of the Atlantic Richfield Oil Company, will be the telelecture speaker today at 3:30 p.m. in 307 Laughlin Building. The tele-lecture, open to the public, is part of Pat Ellebracht's corporation finance class.

FACULTY NOTES....Charles J. Elam, Extension and Placement Services, was elected chairman of the Region X of the National Association of Continuing Higher Education at a meeting in Salt Lake City. Region X comprises Iowa, Kansas, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, North Dakota and South Dakota....Eleven members of the Psychology Club and James Lyons and Robert Cowan, Social Science, attended the annual Missouri Psychological Association Convention Nov. 7-8 in St. Louis....Gary Sells, Science, attended a short course for college teachers entitled "Uses of Computer-based Information Resources in Science Teaching" Nov. 6-7 in Kansas City. It was sponsored by the National Science Foundation....Judy Rountree, Home Economics, attended a Mid-America Health Forum Oct. 31 in Kansas City sponsored by the Academy of Health Professions....Marlow Ediger, Education, was notified that his manuscript "Improving the Language Arts Curriculum" has been accepted for publication in Reading Improvement....Developing Skills for Human Interaction, a textbook by Linda and Dick Heun, Language and Literature, now is being used in colleges in Canada and Puerto Rico as well as numerous schools in the U.S. The book is an individualized instruction, competency-based approach to developing basic communication skills....Andy Skinta, Teaching Skills Center, recently addressed students at Knox County High School and assisted them in the production of multi-image presentations.

A MINICONFERENCE on services available through the Missouri State Council on the Arts is scheduled to begin at 10 a.m. Friday in the Tangerine Room of the S.U.B. Informal sessions will be conducted on a variety of topics. The conference is being sponsored by the Fine Arts Division in cooperation with staff of the Missouri Arts Council.

Registration will be from 10-10:15 a.m., the opening session at 10:15 a.m., a luncheon in the Alumni Room at 11:45 a.m. and special interest sessions beginning at 1:30 p.m. Reservations for the luncheon should be made with the Fine Arts Division, ext. 7196.