SECOND HALF BLOCK COURSES BEGIN TODAY.

THE SAINT LOUIS SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA will perform at 8 p.m. Wednesday in Baldwin Auditorium as part of the 1977-78 Lyceum Series. Special free tickets are available to students, faculty, and staff with a validated University ID. These tickets should be picked up from 9:30 a.m. through 2:30 p.m. tomorrow and Wednesday at a table in the Student Union Building. A limited number of general admission tickets are available at $2.50 each tomorrow and Wednesday in the University Business Office and one hour before the performance in Baldwin Hall ticket office. The orchestra's annual performance is supported by a grant from the Missouri Council for the Arts.

BLUE KEY STUDENT AND FACULTY DIRECTORY, a telephone and information guide, will go on sale today. The directory will be sold from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. every day this week in the Student Union Building.

AN OPEN HOUSE will be held at the Brewer Hall Rifle Range from 2-8:30 p.m. today. There will be free-fire, refreshments, and short classes on marksmanship and safety. All students, faculty, and staff are invited to attend. For more information, contact Staff Sergeant Morgan, instructor in military science, at ext. 2730.

ALL APPLICANTS FOR STUDENT TEACHING during the 1978-79 academic year should attend an enrollment meeting at 3:30 p.m. today in Baldwin Auditorium. Following a short general session, students will move to divisional groups for briefings by their future supervisors.

AUDITIONS FOR A TALENT SHOW to be sponsored by Third Floor North of Ryle Hall continue to be held from 7-9 every night through Wednesday in the Music Room of Ryle Hall. The Talent Show will be at 7 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 26, in Ryle Hall Cafeteria. Admission will be 25 cents.

A SLIDE SHOW of the Western States will be presented by Donna Markt, graduate student in biology, at 9 tonight in the Grim Hall Recreation Room. Donna toured the western states on a motorcycle and took a float trip down the Grand Canyon to obtain the slides. The program is sponsored by Grim Hall Council.

MRS. LANHAI PARK, the widow of the late Dr. No Yong Park, will be honored at a reception to be held from 2-4 p.m. tomorrow in the Alumni Room of the Student Union Building. Mrs. Park's husband died in October 1976. He had served as guest lecturer on Far Eastern affairs for NMSU for several years. He was also the author of several books and a well known lecturer throughout the United States called the "Oriental Mark Twain." Mrs. Mary J. Kohlenberg will be hostess for the reception. Friends, faculty, and staff are invited to attend.

ROOM AND BOARD FEES for the third month of this semester are due tomorrow in the Business Office, 105 Administration/Humanities Building.

"MUTINY ON THE BOUNTY" will be presented at 8 p.m. tomorrow in Baldwin Auditorium. The movie is sponsored by the Student Activities Board as a part of the "Classic Series" movies being presented each Tuesday evening of the semester. Admission is free to holders of student activities cards and 50 cents to all others.

PURPLE OMEN TRY-OUTS have been changed to 8-10 p.m. tomorrow in the Georgian Room of the Student Union Building. The Student Activities Board sponsors this event to give talented people a chance to perform. Interested persons should (continued in next column) contact Bruce Castle, chairman, at ext. 2915 or show up at the scheduled time. The Purple Omen will be held at 8 p.m. Friday.

CAMPUS VOLUNTEERS will meet at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday in the Tangerine Room of the Student Union Building. Everyone is invited to attend.

FAMILY PLANNING will be the subject of the second of a five-part series on "Marriage Preparation" to be presented at 7 p.m. Wednesday in the Music Room of Ryle Hall. The program is sponsored by Ryle Hall and all students, faculty, and staff are invited to attend.

THE EXHIBITION OF WEAVINGS called "Sky Grids and Other Concepts" by Arturo Sandoval continues to be on display in the Baldwin Hall Art Gallery through Oct. 25. Students, faculty, and staff are invited to stop by the gallery to view the exhibit from 12-5 p.m. daily.

SIGN-UP FOR JOB INTERVIEWS for the last two weeks in October can be done now in the Placement Office. Government agencies and companies interviewing are U.S. Navy Nurse Corps, today through Wednesday; Williams-Keepers-Oliver-Payne-Rackers & Co., Moberly, Tuesday; McGladrey, Hansen, Dunn & Co., Davenport, Ia., Thursday; Brown Shoe Company, Oct. 25; Metropolitan Life Insurance Co., Oct. 25; U.S. Government--Civil Service, Oct. 25; Federated Insurance Co., Oct. 26; and Missouri Department of Social Services, Oct. 26-27.

THE SECOND ANNUAL CEREBRAL PALSY ROCK-A-THON will be held this weekend. Speech Pathology Organization is sponsoring the event during which people will "rock around the clock" from 5 p.m. Friday to 5 p.m. Saturday in the window at Singer's, 115 S. Franklin. Two rocking chairs will be going all the time and pledges are being taken for each hour. A table will be in the Student Union Building Wednesday and Thursday for people to make pledges.

A PROGRAM ON DEATH AND DYING will be presented by Dr. Harold Eastman, professor of sociology, at 7 p.m. Thursday in the Blanton-Nason Recreation Room. Dr. Eastman will present a program concerning the feelings surrounding the aspects of death. Next semester a class on Death and Dying will be offered with Dr. Eastman teaching it. Becky Howard, resident assistant in Nason Hall, is sponsoring the event.

A MINI-WORKSHOP on "Students Adjusting to College" currently is sponsored by the Freshman Counseling Office and the Missouri Hall staff. "Riding the Grade Elevator; Helpful Hints on Improving Test Scores!" is the subject of this week's program to be held at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in the second floor south lounge of Missouri Hall. The program will include an evaluation of techniques which can help improve test results on various kinds of exams. Programs planned for the upcoming weeks include the college student and money, time budgeting, residence hall living, and enrollment procedures. All students are encouraged to attend.

PZAZZ'77 and PURPLE OMEN will be held this week as a part of the student campaign for the United Way Fund Drive. Pzazz '77 will be held at 8 p.m. Thursday in the Student Union Building. Purple Omen will be held at 8 p.m. Friday in the Georgian Room of the Student Union Building. Admission to both events is free but donations to the United Way will be accepted.

"AUDITING THE COMPUTER" will be the topic of the program to be presented at 7 p.m. Wednesday in 140 Violette Hall. Mr. Frank Davey of McGladrey, Hansen, and Dunn, a public accounting firm, will present the program as a part of the Accounting Club meeting. All students, faculty, and staff are invited to attend.
