BULLETIN BOARD

FINANCIAL AID APPLICATIONS for the 1981-82 academic year are now available in the Financial Aids Office, 100 Administration/Humanities Building. Students are encouraged to apply early for the next year to insure that aid checks will be ready by the first day of classes next fall.

THE LYCEUM SERIES presentation of the Kansas City Philharmonic Orchestra, slated for Thursday, has been canceled due to the Kansas City musicians strike. The Lyceum committee plans to replace the program at a later date.

BOOKS ARE ON SALE today and Tuesday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. in Room 3 of the Student Union Building by members of the NMSU Vets Club. Money will be distributed Thursday and Friday to students whose books are sold at the exchange.

AUDITIONS for students interested in appearing in the play, "Bedroom Farce," are from 3-5 p.m. and 7-9 p.m. today in the Little Theater, Baldwin Hall. The play, a comedy by Alan Ayckbough, calls for four women and four men. Scripts may be checked out at the Theater Office, 101 Baldwin Hall.

THE SPRING BREAK TRIP to Daytona Beach, Fla., sponsored by the Student Activities Board, still has eight spaces available. A mandatory meeting for students signed up to take the trip, and for those who wish to sign up, is scheduled for 9 p.m. today in the Alumni Room of the Student Union Building. The first payment of $63, or $53 for SAB cardholders, is due at the meeting. For more information contact travel committee members Cindy Moore at extension 2028 or Debbie Burdett at extension 2569.

RALSTON PURINA representatives will be on campus Tuesday to interview business administration and agriculture majors for positions in sales. Interested students may sign up for interview appointments in the Career Planning and Placement Center, first floor Blanton Hall.

APPLICANTS ARE NEEDED for positions as lifeguards, secretaries and maintenance personnel in the Natatorium. Lifeguards must have a current advanced lifesaving certification, and secretaries should possess advanced typing skills. Applications are available at the Natatorium, Pershing Building. Additional information may be obtained by contacting Donovan Conley, Natatorium director, at extension 7231.

WINDFALL, the campus literary magazine, will be on sale Monday through Friday in the Student Union Building. The winter issue costs 50 cents.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES BOARD CARDS for the spring semester are on sale from 9:30 to 3:30 p.m. in the SAB Office, Student Union Concourse. The card, available for $6.50, admits students to Friday night movies and Showcase presentations free. It also entitles students to discounts on concert tickets, excursions and spring break trips. Contact the SAB Office, extension 3420, for additional information.

BROADCAST TALENTS are needed to read commercials and news copy for beginning television labs. Interested students may contact Al Edyvean, assistant professor of mass communication, at extension 3383, or may leave their names and phone numbers in the Language and Literature Division Office, 310 Administration/Humanities Building.

MOVIE SERIES CARDS for the Alpha Psi Omega honorary drama fraternity spring movie program will be sold from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Friday through Jan. 27 in the Student Union Concourse. Cost of the card is $5 for NMSU students and faculty. The series includes "Kramer vs. Kramer," "The Shining," "Cheech and Chong's Next Movie," "My Bodyguard," and "Urban Cowboy."

ALPHA PHI OMEGA national service fraternity will hold an open meeting at 8 p.m. Tuesday in Room 5 of the Student Union Building. Any student interested in joining the organization is invited to attend. This will be the only open meeting this semester. Contact Vice President David Gregory at extension 2949 for more information.

PHI DELTA KAPPA honorary education organization will hold its spring breakfast and business meeting at 7:30 a.m. Thursday in the Spanish Room of the Student Union Building. Reservations may be made by contacting Ev Porter, assistant professor of English, extension 2161, by no later than Tuesday.
