December 4, 1989

Resident adviser (male and female) and peer adviser (male) positions are available for the spring semester. Information about the positions and applications are available in the Residential Living Office, A/H 204.

A display of memorabilia from the 1906 California earthquake can be viewed during general library hours in the south hall on the second floor of Pickler Memorial Library. Original pictures, newspapers and other items from 1906 will be on display through Dec. 15.

Test results will be posted by social security number on the bulletin board across from Testing Services, A/H 103, for the following tests: Freshman COMP, Freshman CAAP, Sophomore CAAP (Sept. 25-28 administrations only), UAP Senior Business test and local senior exams in Justice Systems, Industrial Science, Communication Disorders and Family Sciences.

The University Faculty Club end-of-term banquet and business meeting will be held at 6 p.m., Dec. 15, in the SUB Georgian Room. Cost is $9 per person. Reservations may be made until Dec. 8 by contacting Wayne Bailey at 785-4553, Miles Lovelace at 785-4448 or Chett Breed at 785-5981.

The American Association of State Colleges and Universities/Taiwan Scholarship Program is offering 15 scholarships. The scholarships, which are funded by the Taiwan Ministry of Education, offer students the chance to begin or continue Chinese language studies at the Mandarin Training Center in Taipei, Taiwan. The awards cover full tuition and miscellaneous fees and offer a monthly stipend of approximately $175 per month. Undergraduate applicants must demonstrate a serious desire to study the Chinese language and the capability of living independently in another culture. For more information, contact Julie Minn at 665-9610 or 665-5978.

Students interested in attending "Careers '90," a regional job fair in Chicago, should contact the Business Placement Center for details or call 785-4353.

The Farmers Home Administration will interview agriculture majors for summer employment, Dec. 5. Appointments may be made at Career Planning, McKinney Center.

WORLDTEACH, an international service program, is seeking college graduates and graduating seniors to spend a year teaching overseas. Students must make a one-year commitment and may choose the country in which they will serve. For more information, contact Career Planning, McKinney Center.

The Cloeisters, a branch museum of The Metropolitan Museum of Art, is seeking college students for a summer internship program in 1990. The program is from June 18 to Aug. 10. Each intern will receive an honorarium of $1,600. Applications are due by Feb. 9. For more information, contact Career Planning, McKinney Center.

INDS 231 The Modern Middle East, a one-hour seminar class offered by the Residential Colleges, has been added to the spring semester block II course offerings. The interdisciplinary course will look at art, literature, music, history and geography of Turkey, Greece, Lebanon, Jordan, Syria and Israel. The class will also focus on the conflicts between nations in these areas. To enroll, contact an assistant to a college professor of a residential college for a yellow card.

The new writing assessment test, the Sophomore Writing Experience, will be offered Dec. 5, 6, 7, 8 and 10. This test is available to all sophomores. Students should sign up in the Writing Center, A/H 303, and pick up required reading materials. Completion of the Sophomore Writing Experience satisfies the University writing assessment requirement. For more information, call the Writing Center at 785-4484.

The Student Nurse's Association will be selling blood pressure cuffs and stethoscopes through Dec. 13. Stethoscopes sell for $20 and blood pressure cuffs cost $22; the set is $40. Interested people should call 627-5704 or 665-7510.

Synthesis, the NMSU undergraduate research publication, is seeking papers for its third edition. Please submit all entries in duplicate to Joanne Marshall or Linda Seidel of the Language and Literature Division. Deadline for submissions is Dec. 20.

Program Focuses on Black Health

Black Issues in Higher Education presents The State of Black Health Care, a national teleconference examining the problems, identifying the sources and contemplating potential solutions for the decline of Black health in America. The teleconference will be held from noon to 2 p.m., Dec. 6 in Baldwin Hall Little Theater.

The teleconference is sponsored by Minority Services, the Division of Nursing and the Office of the Dean of Instruction. For more information, contact Dwayne Smith, director of Minority Services at 785-4140.
