

Northeast Today

MONDAY, Oct. 1

1979

HAPPENINGS

MONDAY, Oct. 1

11:30 am- Candy Apple Sale, MH
5:30 pm

TUESDAY, Oct. 2

9 am-3:30 pm Signup, Talent Extravaganza, Concourse, SUB

11:45 am "The Hound of Every Man," Mall, SUB

6:30-10 pm Greenhouse Theatre Tryouts, Geo. Rm., SUB

6:30 pm "The Bruce Craddock Show," KTVO-TV, Channel 3

7:30 & 9:30 pm "Tales From the Crypt," Aud., BH

WEDNESDAY, Oct. 3

8 am Bake Sale, N. Door, VH

THURSDAY, Oct. 4

9 am-3:30 pm Signup, Talent Extravaganza, Concourse, SUB

7-8:30 pm Voter Info. Session, Tang. Rm., SUB

FRIDAY, Oct. 5

No Classes District Teachers Mtg. Meet

7 & 9 pm "I Will, I Will... For Now," Aud., BH

CLASSES WILL NOT MEET FRIDAY due to the Northeast Missouri Teachers Association fall meeting. University offices will maintain regular hours. The meeting will begin with a general assembly at 9 a.m. in Baldwin Auditorium. Dr. Myron Lieberman, president of Educational Employment Services, will deliver the main address. In the afternoon, 23 departmental sessions will be held.

Meals for hall residents will be served in Missouri Hall Cafeteria during regular hours. Pickler Memorial Library and the Student Union Building also will maintain regular hours.

THE MISSOURI COLLEGE STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION MEETING will be from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday and 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Sunday in the Student Union Building. All of the state universities will be represented at the meeting to discuss the problems facing the universities, collectively and individually. Secretary of State James Kirkpatrick and Second District Rep. Harry Hill will be the featured speakers.

A CANDY APPLE SALE will be from 11:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. today at the Missouri Hall front entrance. Sigma Sigma Sigma social sorority is sponsoring the sale.

WORK-STUDY TIME CARDS from students on work-study payroll should be turned in to their respective division offices by 5 p.m. today. The time card must be signed by the student and his supervisor. Work-study pay checks will be available Wednesday, Oct. 10, at the cashier's window in Administration/Humanities Building.

SIGNUP FOR THE READING-STUDY SKILLS LAB, a four-week session of study skills classes, will be today through Thursday on the third floor of Pickler Memorial Library. The session starts Monday, Oct. 8.

SIGNUP FOR THE UNIQUE ENSEMBLE'S 2ND ANNUAL TALENT EXTRAVAGANZA will be from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Tuesday and Thursday in the concourse of the Student Union Building. The talent show is an informal activity that offers a variety of student talent. Students with any type of entertainment may sign up.

("Happenings" Col. Cont. Next Page)

SATURDAY, Oct. 6

- 8 am-6 pm MCSGA State Mtg., SUB
10 am-6 pm Red Barn Arts/Crafts
Fair, Kirksville Square

SUNDAY, Oct. 7

- 9 am-1 pm MCSGA State Mtg., SUB
11 am-5 pm Red Barn Arts/Crafts
Fair, Kirksville Square
5:30 pm Int'l. Club Mtg. &
Meal, Baptist Student Center, 110 W. Normal

"THE HOUND OF EVERY MAN," a contemporary comedy in the medieval style, will be performed by the Lamb's Players' Street Theatre. The San Diego drama troupe consisting of 10 members will perform at 11:45 a.m. Tuesday on the Mall of the Student Union Building. The event is sponsored by the United Campus Ministries. In case of rain, the performance will be in the Activities Room of the SUB.

Also, the public is invited to an informal gathering with the troupe members from 7-8:30 tonight at the Lutheran Student House, 1211 S. Florence, at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday in the Little Theatre in Baldwin Hall, or from 8-9:30 p.m. Tuesday at the Newman Center, 414 W. Dodson.

TRYOUTS FOR THE GREENHOUSE THEATRE will be from 6:30-10 p.m. Tuesday in the Georgian Room of the Student Union Building. The Student Activities Board sponsors the theater to give students a chance to perform before others. It is an informal activity that offers a variety of student talent. Any student with any type of entertainment may try out.

"TALES FROM THE CRYPT" will be shown at 7:30 and 9:30 p.m. Tuesday in Baldwin Auditorium. Tickets are $1.25 in advance and $1.50 at the door. Tickets will be on sale from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. today and Tuesday in the concourse of the Student Union Building. The movie is sponsored by Phi Kappa Theta social fraternity.

A BAKE SALE will be held Wednesday at the north door of Violette Hall. Cookies, doughnuts, coffee and hot chocolate will be available starting at 8 a.m. The sale is sponsored by Delta Sigma Pi business fraternity pledge class.

RESUMES FOR HOMECOMING QUEEN CANDIDATES are due by 4 p.m. Thursday in the Student Senate Office in the Student Union Building. Each organization may sponsor only one candidate.

A GENERAL ELECTION INFORMATION SESSION will be held from 7-8:30 p.m. Thursday in the Tangerine Room of the Student Union Building. One of the featured speakers will be a school board member or a member from the Junior High Ad-Hoc Committee. A slide show concerning the proposed Junior High bond issue will be presented. Also, a representative from the League of Women Voters will display the new voting machines and inform the public of the new precinct designations. The session, sponsored by the University Dames, is open to the public.

THE NEW ART GALLERY DISPLAY, "Contemporary Photographers VII," will start Friday in the Art Gallery, 218 Baldwin Hall. The Art Gallery is open from 12 noon to 5 p.m. weekdays.

"I WILL, I WILL...FOR NOW" will be shown at 7 and 9 p.m. Friday in Baldwin Auditorium. Admission for the movie, sponsored by the Student Activities Board, is $1 per University student, faculty or staff member. SAB card holders will be admitted free.

ANY STUDENT, FACULTY OR STAFF MEMBER who would like to see Keith Green, contemporary Christian music performer, in concert Friday at Des Moines, Iowa, should contact the Lutheran House at 665-6488. The cost has not yet been announced. A bus will be taken.

THE INTERNATIONAL CLUB will hold its first regular meeting and meal at 5:30 p.m. Sunday at the Baptist Student Center, 110 W. Normal. International Night will be discussed. All students, faculty and staff members are welcome. The dinner is 50 cents for members and $1 for others.

THE 6TH ANNUAL RED BARN ARTS AND CRAFTS FAIR, featuring the original works of about 100 artists, will be from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday and from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Sunday on the Kirksville square. Professionals, amateurs and students will display paintings, graphics, ceramics, photography, fiber arts, sculpture, jewelry and creative crafts.

An artist from Colorado will demonstrate the art of paper making. There also will be ceramic demonstrations. Musical groups will be on hand to entertain the viewers.

STUDENTS WHO WANT TO SEE POPE JOHN PAUL II can reserve seats on a chartered bus, sponsored by the Newman-Center, that will make the trip to Des Moines, Iowa, on Thursday. Students should contact organizer Mike Schwend at 665-5561 or the Rev. John Prenger at 665-4357 to reserve seats. Approximate cost for the trip is $5. The bus will leave at 6 a.m. from the Administration/Humanities Building parking lot. Students should bring a sack lunch.

EISENHOWER MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIPS are available to any student who has graduated from an accredited college or university who is a U.S. Citizen interested in attending graduate school on a full-time basis during the school year 1980-81. The awards, ranging from $1,000 to $3,000, may be used in any accredited graduate school in the world. The graduate scholars are selected on a competitive basis with an essay and with letters from business and academic sources vouching for the qualifications, character and potential of the individual. Deadline for applicants is Feb. 1, 1980. Interested students should contact the Graduate Office, 203 Administration/Humanities Building.

APPLICATIONS FOR WHO'S WHO Among Students In American Universities and Colleges are available from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the Student Activities Office, 204 Administration/Humanities Building. Qualifications are a minimum grade point average of 2.50 on a 4.0 scale, demonstrated leadership ability, and enough credit hours to graduate by the summer of 1980. Applications must be returned by Tuesday, Oct. 16, in order to qualify.

SIGNUP FOR JOB INTERVIEWS is in progress from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the Career Planning and Placement Center, first floor, Blanton Hall. Students majoring in business, math, computer science, accounting, drafting, agri-business, sales, marketing, and management may sign up. Companies interviewing in the third week in October are United Computing Systems, Inc., Tuesday, Oct. 16; Black and Veatch, Wednesday, Oct. 17; McGladrey Hendrickson and Co., Thursday, Oct. 18; and MFA, Inc., Thursday, Oct. 18.

ANY ORGANIZATION OR GROUP interested in raising money or helping with the United Cerebral Palsy Telethon should contact Andy Cenedella, coordinator for northern Missouri, at 665-6674, or Wanda Young, Student Council for Exceptional Children member, at ext. 2583. The telethon will be held Jan. 12 and 13, 1980. The Speech Pathologist Organization will also help with the telethon. About 75 percent of the money taken in at the telethon stays in the Kirksville area.

MISSOURI AND THE OZARK MOUNTAIN DAREDEVILS have been chosen to perform for the Homecoming concert at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 27, in Baldwin Auditorium. Tickets for the concert, sponsored by the Student Activities Board, are $4 for SAB card holders, $6 for students, faculty and staff members, and $8 for all others. Further information will be announced at a later date.

"HEAVEN CAN WAIT," sponsored by Alpha Psi Omega, national honorary drama fraternity, will be shown at 7 and 9:15 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 9, in Baldwin Auditorium. Admission is $1.50 for advance tickets and $2 at the door. Tickets will be available Monday and Tuesday, Oct. 8 and 9, in the concourse of the Student Union Building.

"HOOPER," starring Burt Reynolds and Sally Field, will be shown at 7 and 9 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 11, in Baldwin Auditorium. Advance tickets are $1.50 and $2 at the door. Tickets will be on sale from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tuesday through Thursday, Oct. 9-11, in the concourse of the Student Union Building. Tau Kappa Epsilon social fraternity is sponsoring the movie.

THE 6TH ANNUAL OCTOBERFEST DANCE sponsored by the Vets Club will be from 8 p.m. to 12 midnight Friday, Oct. 12, at Rieger Armory. Live music will be provided by a band to be announced next week. Advance tickets are $1.50 and $2 at the door. Tickets will be on sale from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. Tuesday through Friday, Oct. 9-12, in the concourse of the Student Union Building.

NORTHEAST NOTES

The NMSU art faculty members had an exhibit on display at the Columbia Art League Gallery at 1201 N. 10th St. in Columbia. Those participating from the Fine Arts Division were Helen Babbitt, weaving; Linda Emmerman, Robert Jones and William Unger, paintings; Mary Belle Martin and William Murray; watercolors; Ed McEndarfer, ceramics; and James Pauls, sculpture. Pauls also had an aluminum sculpture, "Crawl Forms" accepted for a showing in the Eight State Sculpture Exhibition at the J.B. Speed Art Museum in Louisville, Ky. The exhibit opened Sept. 10. McEndarfer also showed his work in stoneware in the art gallery of William Woods College, Fulton.

Peter Sireno and Joe Thomas, Business, have had a paper titled "Training Needs of Personnel in Small Business Manufacturing Facilities" accepted for presentation at the Southwestern Small Business Institute Association meeting March 19-20, 1980, in San Antonio, Texas. The paper also will be published in the proceedings of the conference.

Marlow Ediger, Education, has been appointed to serve on the National Council Social Studies Advisory Committee on Religion in the Schools.

Dorothy Zeiser, Home Economics, was elected counselor of the Missouri Home Economics Teachers Association at the annual business and in-service workshop in July in Columbia. The executive committee provides leadership for nearly 800 vocational home economics teachers in Missouri.

Rhonda Barfield, Fine Arts, had an article published in Clavier magazine, a periodical for pianists. The article, "Let's Play a Game," was in the September issue. It is available for reading in the periodical section on second floor of Pickler Memorial Library.

Albert J. Copley, Science, was the dinner speaker at the fall meeting of the Mid-Missouri Camera Club Sept. 12 in Columbia. His topic, "Techniques of Sound Synchronization for Multiple Slide Projectors," will be illustrated with two of his slide shows. The slide shows involve two projectors with the slides synchronized by a silent cue to a sound program being presented on a high fidelity sound system.

Eleanor Ellebracht and Joyce Welchance, Libraries and Museums, attended the Congressional Information Service and American Statistical Information workshop in Jefferson City on Sept. 12.

Jim Thomas, Language and Literature, presented two readings Sept. 29 and 30 as part of the Burlington Arts and Acts Festival in Burlington, Iowa. Thomas read and discussed his poetry. He also had two poems published in the summer and fall issue of "Shantith," which features native American writing. Another poem was accepted for publication in a forthcoming issue of "New Letters."

Jerry Mayhew and Fontaine Piper, Health, Physical Education and Recreation, were research technicians in the 2nd annual Olympic Development Distance Running Clinic held at the University of Illinois in August.

Jim Barnes, Language and Literature, editor of "The Chariton Review," had an interview and two poems included in "The Magic of Names: Three Native American Poets." The book was recently released by The Blue Cloud Quarterly Press, Marvin, S.D. Barnes also has work included in "Beliot Poetry Journal," "Poetry Now" and "New Letters."