First Lady to Speak at Ribbon Cutting Ceremony for Fine Arts Center

A ribbon cutting ceremony for the Ophelia Parrish Fine Arts Center renovation and addition project will take place at 3 p.m., Sept. 27, at the north side of the building. First Lady Lori Hauser Holden will be a special guest at the ceremony. A reception will be held in conjunction with the Visual Arts Faculty Art Show. Tours will be conducted.

The original Ophelia Parrish building, named after Ophelia A. Parrish who served as the head of library and professor of library economy, was officially opened on Sept. 12, 1923. An addition was added in 1939.

The building was used as a lab school and was home to Kirksville's Junior High School until Kirksville built a new junior high in the early 1980s. After the junior high moved out, the original building was used for classroom and office space, while the addition was used for storage.

In 1997 the Missouri Legislature approved the funding of the first phase of a two phase project for the renovation and addition of Ophelia Parrish that would allow all of the Fine Arts Division to finally be housed under one roof. The first phase included the renovation of the south wing while the second phase funding included the construction of the new addition as well as the renovation of the north wing.

Open Sessions with External Consultant for Presidential Search

Theodore J. Marchese, managing director of the Academic Search Consultation Service and External Consultant for the Truman State University Presidential Search Committee, will be on campus this week as part of the Presidential Search Committee meeting scheduled for 8 a.m., Sept. 28, in the Student Union Building Conference Room.

At its Aug. 21st meeting, the Board of Governors voted to retain the Academic Search Consultation Service to assist the Presidential Search Committee. Marchese serves as managing director of that firm, and a listing of Marchese's credentials can be found at the Presidential Search Web site located at http://www.truman.edu/about/presidential\_search.stm.

Marchese will be on campus on Thursday and Friday in order to meet with numerous members of the Truman State University community. As part of those meetings, open sessions for faculty and staff have been scheduled on Sept. 27.

The open session with University staff will be at 12:30 p.m., Sept. 27, in the Student Union Building Georgian Room. The open session with University faculty will be at 1:30 p.m., Sept. 27, in the Student Union Building Georgian Room. In addition, an open session for various student representatives will be held at 9 a.m., Sept. 27, in Violette Hall 1408. Any student interested in attending should contact the office of the Dean of Student Affairs at 785.4111.

Truman Hosts "Show Me" Invitational Tournament

Truman will be the host to students from more than 20 colleges and universities at the "Show Me" Invitational Forensics Tournament Sept. 27-29.

The three-day event is commonly called a "swing" or "double-up" tournament, in which two separate tournaments are hosted on the same campus during the same weekend.

Competitors will be able to enter one or both of two individual speaking events tournaments or a separate tournament in Lincoln-Douglas or Parliamentary Debate.

The first half of the weekend, "The Buck Stops Here Invitational," will be hosted by members of Truman's chapter of Pi Kappa Delta, the national speech honorary fraternity. The second half of the swing, "The Bulldog Alumni and Parents Tournament," will be co-hosted by parents, program alumni and current students of the forensics program.

As of Sept. 17, 24 different institutions had signaled their plan to attend. States that will be represented at the tournament are Arkansas, California, Illinois, Georgia, Kansas, Michigan, Missouri, Nebraska, Pennsylvania and South Dakota.

The entire tournament is open to the public. People wishing to watch debates or individual speaking contests can report to the tournament headquarters table from 11 a.m. until 9 p.m., Sept. 27, in the Student Union Building Georgian Room or from 8 a.m. until 7 p.m., Sept. 28-29, in the Violette Hall foyer. For more information, contact Kevin Minch at 785.5677 or visit <http://forensics.truman.edu/tournament.html>

Campus United Way Drive is Under Way

The newly erected United Way sign adjacent to the Truman Bell Tower reminds the campus community of Truman State University's $48,000 goal for the 2003 Adair County United Way Campaign. Donna J. Bailey and Doug

United Way campus fund drive co-chairs Donna J. Bailey and Doug Daubert are leading the way to reach Truman's goal.

Daubert, co-chairs of the Truman faculty/staff drive, have 80 dedicated volunteer group leaders ready to solicit support for the 15 United Way agencies which help keep Adair County families healthy and children safe and successful. A colleague will be contacting faculty and staff soon.

Each $104 contribution gives the Truman donor a chance to win $2,000 for a "Your Way-Get Away" vacation trip to be used anytime during the next year.

The theme for the 2003 United Way Campaign is "Choose to Care." The goal is to help show that Truman State University does just that for the community.

Nursing Students to Discuss Philippines Trip

Students, faculty, alumni and anyone interested are invited to attend the annual Transcultural Nursing Experience in the Philippines Presentation at 6 p.m., Oct. 1, in the Student Union Building Georgian Room. Snacks will be provided, followed by an oral presentation, as well as personal accounts and thoughts about the experience.

This past summer seven nursing students participated in the sixth annual Truman State University Transcultural Nursing Experience in the Philippines. Students who traveled to the Philippines include Tracy Downs, Katie Prinster, Kelsey Simpson, Sarah Harrison, Ruth Szkubiel, Susan Shelley and Ardith Finke, a nursing student from the Sinclair School of Nursing at University of Missouri. This is the first year the program was offered to a student outside of the Truman Nursing program. Mariquit Hadwiger, assistant professor of nursing, and Steven Hadwiger, associate professor of nursing, accompanied the group.

During the trip the group spent a week in the city of Manila where their experience started in labor and delivery and then branched out to other areas of the hospital.

The next week and a half the group traveled to Iloilo City where their experiences ranged from hospital to home visits with Filipino families. The final three days were spent relaxing and having fun on the beaches of Boracay.

Notables

Tiffany Lucas, senior biology major from Springfield, Ill., received a fully paid trip after being awarded first place at the district Beta Beta Beta conference for excellence in research. At the national conference in Texas, she received the first place Frank G. Brooks Award for Excellence in Student Research. Lucas' research adviser was Laura Fielden, assistant professor of biology. The Beta Beta Beta adviser is Scott Burt, assistant professor of biology.

Suzanne L. Pieper, assessment specialist, had her article "Assessment and Measurement: Exactly Right for Student Learning" published in the July/August 2002 issue of Assessment Update: Progress, Trends, and Practices in Higher Education. The article was written in collaboration with Keston H. Fulcher, A. Katherine Morrow and Amy D. Thelk, doctoral students at James Madison University in Harrisonburg, Va.

Parker to Serve as Executive-in-Residence

James J. Parker will serve as this year's Raymond Bentele/Mallinckrodt Executive-in-Residence for the Business and Accountancy Division.

He will give a campuswide lecture "Leadership" at 3 p.m., Oct. 3, in Violette Hall 1000.

Parker is vice president of Caterpillar, Inc. with administrative responsibility for its power systems marketing division. He is responsible for market development, strategic planning, worldwide sales and marketing and administration for Caterpillar's engine business.

He holds a bachelor's degree from Bradley University and completed a Stanford University executive program. Parker joined Caterpillar in 1969 and spent several years as a research technician. He held several senior-level pricing positions within Caterpillar engine division and corporate offices in the 1970s. He held the position of pricing manager for Caterpillar Far East Ltd. from 1984-1986. Parker served in a variety of engine and power system marketing positions with a particular emphasis on marine and industrial strategic planning between 1986 and 1992.

In 1993 he was promoted to manager of marketing support for engine power systems in Caterpillar Asia Pte. Ltd. He served as general manager of the truck engine division in the company's engine products division from 1995-1998 and from 1998-2001 he held the position of director of the Electrical Power Generation Group. He was elected vice president in October 2001.

The Executive-in-Residence program was established in 1993 to recognize the significant contributions that Raymond Bentele, an alumnus of Truman, made as president and CEO of Mallinckrodt Inc. For more information, call 785.4268.

Are you interested in seeking an internship?

Know of a great internship opportunity in your office or elsewhere that you would like to publicize?

If so, the University Career Center wants to help!

The University Career Center now posts all internship positions received and asks all employers to post their internship positions on eRecruiting, an online resume, employer, job and internship database. This gives students the ability to search for internships at their convenience from any computer with Internet access. Likewise, any internship provider can post and change positions.

ERecruiting is the only online database through which internships are posted; however, the Career Center also maintains a file of employer internship brochures and a number of current internship directories including, the "National Directory of Internships in the Arts," "The Big Green Internship Book" (environmental) and the "Sports Internship Book."

If you wish to access eRecruiting, call the Career Center at 785.4353 to set up a password-protected account.
