REGISTRATION PACKETS are available for students to pick up from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. today, tomorrow, and Wednesday in the main hall outside the Registrar's Office, 104 Administration/Humanities Building. Spring Schedules were distributed with last week's Index. Lost packets may not be replaced until regular registration on Jan. 9, 1978. Pre-registration is scheduled for Nov. 29, Nov. 30, and Dec. 1.

PRE-REGISTRATION FOR THE BLOODMOBILE will be from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. all this week in the Student Union Building. Persons are encouraged to pre-register because it speeds up the processing time during the Bloodmobile visit. The Bloodmobile will be in the Activities Room of the Student Union Building Nov. 14-16. The Blue Key and Cardinal Key clubs are sponsoring this visit.

A SENIOR ART EXHIBIT featuring drawings and graphics by Bill Wehrman, senior art major, will be on display all this week in the Third Floor Lounge of Baldwin Hall. All students, faculty, and staff are encouraged to stop by and view the show.

STRESS, DEPRESSION, AND SUICIDE will be discussed by Dr. Fred Shaffer, assistant professor of psychology, and Dr. Jim Bailey, assistant professor of counseling and guidance, at 8:30 tonight in the Main Lounge of Centennial Hall. The program will be aimed at how these conflicts affect college students and how NMSU is able to help students handle these problems. The public is invited to attend at no charge. Eileen Sheridan, resident assistant in Centennial Hall, is sponsoring the program.

A SPECIAL ELECTION for the position of Councilwoman #2 on Student Senate will be held Friday. Petitions are available now in the Student Senate office in the Student Union Building. They are due back by noon tomorrow. For more information, call Phyllis Booker, election chairman, ext. 2041.

COURT SERVICES will be the program at the Lambda Alpha Epsilon, the campus chapter of the American Criminal Justice Association, meeting at 5:30 p.m. tomorrow in 333 Pershing Building. Dave Edgar, director of court services for southeast Iowa, will be the guest speaker. The public is invited to attend the program. For further information, call Robyn Topp, publicity chairman, at ext. 3613.

MASS COMMUNICATION MAJORS and prospective majors will have a pre-advisement session for next semester's classes at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow in 324 Administration/Humanities Building.

CREATE-A-GIFT WORKSHOP will take place at 7 p.m. tomorrow in the Recreation Room of Grim Hall. Mrs. Ruth Myers, director of Grim Hall, is sponsoring the event. The workshop will show persons how to make inexpensive Christmas gifts. The public is invited to attend. No admission will be charged.

LAWRENCE OF ARABIA will be the "Classic Series" movie at 8 p.m. tomorrow in 106 Laughlin Building. The movie will be free to holders of student activities cards and 50 cents to all others. Student Activities Board is sponsoring the event.

BICYCLE STORAGE for the winter is available in Grim Hall. Storage will take place from 9-10:30 a.m. and 3:30-5:30 p.m. Wednesday and Thursday. Grim Hall Council is sponsoring the storage, which will cost 50 cents.

BLUE KEY DIRECTORIES will be sold from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. all this week in the Student Union Building.

BIG BROTHER/SISTER group will meet at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday in 208 Laughlin Building. All Big Brothers and Sisters are urged to attend. Any student interested in becoming a Big Brother or Sister is invited to join the group.

A FILM ON INTERVIEWS will be shown at the Accounting Club meeting at 7 p.m. Wednesday in 140 Violette Hall. All students, faculty, and staff are invited to attend. For further information, call Debbie Boedeker, president, at ext. 2523.

EMERGENCIES IN THE MAKING (describing conditions which can develop into dangerous situations for persons and their cars) will be one of the films shown by the Auto Club of Missouri at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in Brewer Hall Lounge. The public is invited to attend at no charge. Brewer Hall is sponsoring the event.

DIVORCE will be the subject of the program held at 8 p.m. Wednesday in the Music Room of Ryle Hall. Dr. Jim Bailey, assistant professor of counseling and guidance, will be the speaker. Beth Yaeger, resident assistant in Ryle Hall, is sponsoring the program, which is open to all students, faculty, and staff at no charge.

THE ROTC DIVISION is offering a new course at no charge to students. The course is designed to enable students who cannot enroll in the basic Military Science program because of schedule conflicts to earn equivalent credit for it. This "equivalent credit" is designed to keep the student's options open to go on in the Advanced ROTC Program and to earn an officer's commission in the U.S. Army. The course is not offered for academic credit.

THE SQ3R STUDY TECHNIQUE, a proven method that can be learned quickly and put into use immediately, will be explained in an informal session at 3:30 p.m. tomorrow in the Tangerine Room of the Student Union Building. All students are invited to attend at no charge. For further information, contact the Freshman Counseling Office.
