"GREEK WEEK" STARTS TODAY...A parade for king and queen candidates begins at 5:30 tonight at Campbell Apartments and will circle campus on Florence,Normal, Franklin, and Patterson streets. A free movie, "The Life and Times of Judge Roy Bean," will begin at 8:30 tonight in the Kirk Building.

Tomorrow, a "Greek Sing" will begin at 7:30 p.m. in Pershing Arena, followed by the crowning of the 1977 Greek King and Queen. Ron Orman, director of Greek housing at Southeast Missouri State University, will be the guest speaker. Friday night, the Greek organizations are promoting the Megan McDonough concert at 8 p.m. in Baldwin Auditorium.

Saturday at 8 a.m. the Greeks will help out at the Special Olympics in Pershing Arena. The Greek Olympics will follow at 3 p.m., at Thousand Hills State Park.

ROTC DAY IN MISSOURI...Tomorrow has been designated as ROTC Day in Missouri. The University's ROTC cadets have scheduled a flag retreat ceremony to commemorate this occasion at 5 p.m. tomorrow at the flag pole on the north end of the quadrangle. Everyone's invited to attend the ceremony.

FROM THE PRESIDENT'S OFFICE...Missouri Interview Day is scheduled for Monday, April 18. The Placements Office predicts that approximately 100 school districts will be represented. We have a marvelous opportunity to assist our students in securing meaningful employment by our involvement in the activities planned for the interviewers. I hope to see many of you at the Interview Day.

Interviews will be held in the Pershing Arena. For more information check with the Placements Bureau.

MEGAN MCDONOUGH, singer and songwriter, will perform on campus Friday at 8 p.m. in Baldwin Auditorium. The concert is open to the public and is being sponsored by the Student Activities Board. Tickets are available from 10:30 a.m.- 3:30 p.m. in the SUB at $1.50 per person. University students with an Activities Card will be admitted free.

RECITALS THIS WEEK...Stephen Elsaesser will present a graduate student violin recital at 8 tonight. Frederic
