

Northeast Today

Thursday, December 8, 1977

"HAPPENINGS"

TODAY, December 8

Children's Christmas--2-4 pm, Alum.
Party Rm., SUB
Reading Group --4:30 pm, 306 AH
ACE --6 pm, 120 VH
UNITY --7 pm, Rm. 3,
SUB
NEMO Singers --7 pm, Edina
Shrine Classic --7 & 9 pm,
Arena, PB
Women's Basketball --7.30 pm, Fulton
Interpreters' --8 pm, Lit.
Theatre Theatre, BH
Last Pre-Payment Day

FRIDAY, December 9

Williams Reception --2:30-4:30 pm,
137 & 138 IE
Swimming & Diving --7 pm, Cape
Team Girardeau
Symphonic Concert --8 pm, Aud.,
Band BH

SATURDAY, December 10

Education Club --6 pm, 909 E.
Normal

SUNDAY, December 11

NEMO Singers --3 pm, Aud., BH

THE WOMEN'S BASKETBALL TEAM will play William Woods College at 7:30 tonight in Fulton. Saturday they will host Central Methodist at 2 P.M. in Pershing Arena.

ALL RESIDENCE HALL FEES, returned checks and penalties, lab fees, and all other charges must be paid by the end of the semester. Students who owe money to the University will not receive their grades or transcripts, and will not be allowed to pre-enroll for next semester. Payments can be made at the cashier's window in the Business Office, 105 Administration/Humanities Building from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Traffic fees should be paid at Safety and Security and library fines should be paid at Pickler Memorial Library.

A CHILDREN'S CHRISTMAS PARTY for children of students, faculty and staff will be from 2-4 p.m. today in the Alumni Room of the Student Union Building. Santa Claus will make a visit to the party. Lots of goodies will be served. The event is sponsored by the Student Activities Office.

THE READING GROUP will meet at 4:30 p.m. today in the Communication Skills Lab, 306 Administration/Humanities Building, to discuss Robert Pirsig's Zen and the Art of Motorcycle Maintenance. Books that the group will read in the future are Pilgrim at Tinker's Creek, Even Cowgirls Get the Blues, One Hundred Years of Solitude, and The Turbot. For further information, call Dr. Shirley Morahan, assistant professor of English, at ext. 2149.

THE ASSOCIATION FOR CHILDHOOD EDUCATION is having a Christmas party and meeting at 6 tonight in 120 Violette Hall. The group will be making Christmas stockings for children in the hospital. Members are reminded to bring candy and money to the meeting.

A SPECIAL MEETING of UNITY, an NMSU service organization, will be at 7 tonight in Room 3 of the Student Union Building. Election of officers will be held. All organizations are urged to send a representative.

THE NEMO SINGERS will present the first of three candlelight concerts at 7 tonight at St Joseph's Catholic Church in Edina. The second will be at 3 p.m. Sunday in Baldwin Auditorium. The final concert will be at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Dec. 13, also in Baldwin Auditorium. The NEMO Singers will be featured along with their director, Clay Dawson, at 9.07 a.m. Tuesday, Dec. 13, on the Area Scene program of KIRX-AM. The public is invited to attend all of the performances at no charge.

THE NMSU SHRINE CLASSIC continues with two games tonight. Central Missouri State University of Warrensburg will meet Dubuque (Iowa) University at 7 and NMSU will play Indiana University/Purdue University of Indianapolis at 9. Proceeds from the games will be donated to Shrine hospitals.

INTERPRETERS' THEATRE will present "Christmas is..." at 8 tonight in the Little Theatre of Baldwin Hall. The program will include prose, poetry, and music. The public is invited to attend at no charge.

TODAY IS THE LAST PRE-PAYMENT DAY. Students who pre-registered and did not get permission to delay payment are reminded that they should pay their fees in the Business Office, 105 Administration/Humanities Building, today.

A FAREWELL RECEPTION for Mrs. Bernice Williams, division secretary for Practical Arts, will be from 2:30-4:30 p.m. Friday in Rooms 137 and 138 of the Industrial Education Building. All students, faculty, and staff are invited to attend.

THE WOMEN'S SWIMMING AND DIVING TEAM will travel to Cape Girardeau for a meet with Southeast Missouri State University at 7 p.m. Friday.

THE SYMPHONIC CONCERT BAND will present "Sound of Christmas" at 8 p.m. Friday in Baldwin Auditorium. The public is invited to attend at no charge.

GRADUATE STUDENTS are reminded that comprehensive test results are due in the Dean of Graduate Studies Office, 203 Administration/Humanities Building, Friday.

THE EDUCATION CLUB will hold a Christmas Party at 6 p.m. Saturday at 909 E. Normal. All members are invited to attend and bring a guest. Students should sign up to bring a covered dish in the Education Office. For further information, contact Kathy Iffrig, president, at ext. 2687.

A JOB OPENING for an assistant hall director will be available beginning spring semester. Applicants must be female graduate students. Interested persons should contact Ron Gaber, housing director, immediately.

TO REACH THE STUDENT ACTIVITIES OFFICE, callers may dial ext. 7162, Dean of Students Office, when ext. 7203, Student Activities Office line, is busy.

A SNACK COOK is needed for spring semester at the Child Development Center. The hours will be from 9-11 a.m. Monday through Friday. For further information, call Charlotte Wallinga, instructor in child development and director of child/family studies, at ext. 2740 or ext. 7177.

A 60-MINUTE TAPE of a speech by the Rev. Jesse Jackson is available on loan from Phi Delta Kappa education honorary. Jackson spoke at the national convention of PDK this fall in New York. He discussed his views and solutions to educational problems. The tape can be checked out from Vonnie Nichols, PDK secretary-treasurer, in the Student Activities Office. The tape is of special interest to educational classes and organizations.