Walesa to Speak to Truman Community

Lech Walesa, former president of Poland, will begin his visit to Truman State University as the next guest of the 2001-2002 Distinguished Visiting Scholar Program with a public lecture titled

"Democracy: The Never-ending Battle" at 7:30, Nov. 1, in Baldwin Auditorium.

Walesa burst into the world spotlight in 1980 by delivering a speech at an employee strike that christened Solidarity. For his heroic efforts in negotiating with the Polish government for the cause of Solidarity, Walesa was named "Man of the Year" by Time, The Financial Times, The London Observer and several other European publications.

After this, however, relations between Solidarity and the government became progressively worse. The activities of all unions were suspended and thousands of Solidarity members were arrested, including Walesa. He was released in the fall of 1982 and continued leading Solidarity as an underground organization.

Celebrated internationally as an icon for freedom, Walesa was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize in 1983. Solidarity was finally invited to join with the Communist Party to form a coalition government in 1988. Eventually, Solidarity took over and in 1990 Walesa became the first democratically elected Polish president.

Ultimately, Walesa made Poland a model for economic and political reform for the rest of Europe. He now heads the Lech Walesa Institute, which aims to advance the ideals of democracy and free market reform throughout Eastern Europe and the rest of the world.

Walesa's visit will continue with a public book signing at 9:30 a.m., Nov. 2, in the Truman Bookstore and a student seminar titled "The Impact of an Expanded NATO on Global Security" at 10:30 a.m., also on Nov. 2, in Violette Hall 1000.

Ailey II Dancers to Grace Lyceum Stage

Ailey II will perform for the Truman State University community as part of the 2001-2002 Kohlberg Lyceum Series at 7:30 p.m., Nov. 5, in Baldwin Auditorium.

Ailey II began in 1974 as the Alvin Ailey Repertory Ensemble when Ailey initiated a workshop composed of the most promising scholarship students from his school. The original members of the Company were hand-picked by Ailey from among that group. Under the direction of Sylvia Waters, artistic director since the Company's inception, Ailey II invigorates the American dance scene by offering unique opportunities in all areas of dance.

The group's emphasis on a balance of repertoire, technique and performance is intended to help exceptionally talented individuals make the leap from studio to the stage. Ailey II is a highly trained troupe that merges the spirit and energy of the country's best young talent with the passion and creative vision of today's most outstanding emerging choreographers.

Free tickets are available to all students, faculty and staff at the SAB Office and the Center for Student Involvement.

United Way Drive is in Final Week

Truman has met 83 percent of its $47,500 United Way campus fund drive goal. During the final week of the drive, group leaders and co-chairs will work to collect pledges and finalize paperwork.

The student committee is finishing up the All Campus Raffle, a $1 donation for one chance to win and a $3 donation for four chances to win. Area businesses donated more than $1,900 in prizes to the student committee's effort. Raffle winners will be posted on campus bulletin boards and the campus United Way Web site at <http://www2.truman.edu/mgio/unityedway/raffle.htm>

The original purpose of the United Way was to serve multiple agencies with one fund drive, instead of each agency running its own drive.

The United Way is trying to meet the needs of residents of the total community.

It is possible to designate a donation for one agency or all agencies on the United Way pledge card.

There are 15 agencies that receive partial funding under the umbrella of the Adair County United Way: Adair County YMCA, Adair County 4-H Council, American Red Cross/Adair County Chapter, Boy Scouts of America/Great Rivers Council, Central Missouri Food Bank, Civil Air Patrol, Community Opportunities/Sheltered Workshop, Girl Scouts of America Becky Thatcher Area, Hospice 2000, Kirksville Day Care Center, Mark Twain area Counseling Center/ Kirksville Branch, NEMO Senior Citizens Services, Inc./Nutrition Program, RSVP/Retired Senior Volunteer Program, Salvation Army and Victim Support Services Inc.
