THE BLOODMOBILE will be on campus from 12 noon to 5:45 p.m. Tuesday; 1 to 6:45 p.m. Wednesday; and 11 a.m. to 4:45 p.m. Thursday. It will be located in the Activities Room of the Student Union Building. Pre-registered donors should come at their appointed times. Persons who did not pre-register are welcome. All students, faculty, and staff are encouraged to donate blood. Blue Key and Cardinal Key are sponsoring the Bloodmobile visit.

STUDENT MSTA will meet at 6:30 tonight in 251 Violette Hall. Reports on the State Convention in St. Louis will be given and the program for the next meeting will be discussed. For more information, call Dr. John Ross, faculty advisor, at ext. 3322.

CAREER PLANNING will be the subject of a program at 7 tonight in the Recreation Room of Grim Hall. Dr. Jack Reiske, professor of education, will present the program. The public is invited to attend at no charge. The program is sponsored by Deb Lagemann, resident assistant in Grim Hall.

THE MASS COMMUNICATION CLUB will hold its monthly meeting at 12:30 p.m. tomorrow in Rooms 2 and 3 of the Student Union Building. University photographer Paul Wohlfield will present the program. Dues should be paid to Les Dunseith, treasurer, at this meeting. Any student interested in mass communication is invited to join. For further information, call Diane Walker, president, at ext. 3619.

SEMINARY DAY will be from 1-4 p.m. tomorrow in the Alumni Room of the Student Union Building. Representatives from 12 seminaries in Missouri, Iowa, Illinois, Kentucky, Indiana, Minnesota, Ohio, and Texas will be on campus to discuss theological education. Other seminaries that do not have representatives present will have displays and catalogs available. The public is invited to attend at no charge. The United Campus Ministry at NMSU is sponsoring the event. For more information, call Rev. Roger N. Jespersion, campus minister, at 665-5402.

CAMPUS GOLD, Girl Scout affiliate at NMSU, will meet at 5:30 p.m. tomorrow in Room 6 of the Student Union Building. The group will be delivering fruit baskets to the shut-ins in Kirksville during this meeting. Any student interested in joining the group is invited to attend. For more information, call Donna Tanzey, president, at ext. 7710.

THE HISTORICAL SOCIETY, founded at NMSU in 1906, will have an organizational meeting for this year at 7 p.m. tomorrow in Room 6 of the Student Union Building. The original purpose of the Society was to provide an organization for history majors in which they could discuss matters of historical interest. The Historical Society is now open to all students whether history major or not, who have an interest in history.

EASY LIVING, "a day in the life of Joe College as he effectively deals with the problems of hall living," will be the program presented by the Missouri Hall staff at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the Missouri Hall Cafeteria. The public is invited to attend at no charge.

FREE ENTERPRISE INSTITUTE will be discussed at 9:07 a.m. Tuesday on KIRX-AM Area Scene. FEI is a new student organization sponsored by the Business Division.

FOR WHOM THE BELL TOLLS will be the "Classic Series" movie at 8 p.m. tomorrow in 106 Laughlin Building. The movie is free to holders of student activities cards and 50 cents to all others. Student Activities Board is sponsoring the movie.

SELF-AWARENESS will be the theme of two programs in Ryle Hall this week. "Yoga and Relaxation" will be presented at 9 p.m. Tuesday in the Music Room of Ryle Hall. Students will be shown how to unwind and ease themselves through stressful situations, as well as a different approach to physical conditioning. Participants should wear flexible clothing like shorts, sweatsuits, or leotards. The second program will be "Behavior Modification" presented at 8 p.m. Wednesday in the Music Room. Dr. James Tichenor, assistant professor of psychology, will discuss behavior modification as it applies to college students. Study habits, weight control, and smoking are among the topics to be considered. Both programs are being sponsored by Becky Hildenbrand, resident assistant in Ryle Hall.

A SOCIAL SCIENCE FAIR, sponsored by the Social Science Division, will be held from 2-4 p.m. Wednesday in the Tangerine Room of the Student Union Building. Displays and tables concerning social science will be set up for students to view. Faculty members will be present to answer any questions. Refreshments will be served. All students are invited to attend.

EDUCATION CLUB will meet at 3:45 p.m. Wednesday in 253 Violette Hall. All elementary education majors and instructors are welcome. For more information, call Kathy Iffrig, president, at ext. 2687.

ADVISEMENT Night for elementary education majors will be from 6-8 p.m. Wednesday in 266 Violette Hall. Students are asked to bring their registration packets. Advisors will be available to assist students in course selection for the spring semester.

PSYCHOLOGY CLUB will meet at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in the Alumni Room of the Student Union Building. The speaker will be Doris Cundiff, local group leader for Recovery, INC., the association of nervous people and former mental patients. Her topic will be "Self-directed Group Psychotherapy."

THE MARRIAGE OF FIGARO will be presented at 8 p.m. Wednesday and Friday in Baldwin Auditorium. Admission is free to NMSU students, $1 for other students, and $2 for non-students. The musical is sponsored by the Division of Language and Literature, the Division of Fine Arts and University Players.

PICKLER MEMORIAL LIBRARY is observing Children's Book Week this week. Posters by Virgil Miller, art student, and books that have been made by students in 'Literature for Children' classes are on display in the lobby.

ALL STUDENTS with a major in the Division of Business are reminded to make appointments with their faculty advisors for completion of spring semester programs. Nov. 17, 18, 21, 22, and 28 have been designated by the business faculty as spring semester consultation days.

A LISTING OF MENU SUGGESTIONS and their prices has been mailed to all campus offices. Anyone who did not receive a copy and would like one should call the Student Union Food Service Office at ext. 7148.

A PEP BUS is forming for the NMSU football game against the Miners to be played at 1:30 p.m. Saturday in Rolla. Tickets for the bus will be sold in the Student Union Building all this week. The bus will leave Saturday morning. For further information, call Vonnie Nichols, director of student activities, at ext. 7203.

A UNIVERSITY VAN is going to Columbia for the Stephens College production of Shakespeare's "King Lear." Seat price is $3, unless a reduced group price can be secured. The van will leave from the Administration/Humanities

Building at 4:15 p.m. Thursday and will return after the 7:30 p.m. performance. For further information, call Connie Sutherland, associate professor of English, at ext. 2076, or the Language and Literature Division Office secretary at ext. 7157.

KEY CHAINS will be on sale from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. today through Wednesday in the Student Union Building. The prices are 50 cents and $1 for the Bulldog key chains. Phi Beta Lambda business organization is selling the key chains.

RADIO AND TELEVISION PRESENTATIONS will be made by James Buckner, instructor in trumpet, and Don Hamilton, student in Fine Arts Division. They will be on today's Town and Country Forum on KTVO-TV at 12:15 p.m. They also will be guests at 9:07 a.m. Thursday on KIRX-AM Area Scene program. They will be discussing the Midwest Trumpet Guild Workshop and NEMO Singers Pancake Day both on Saturday. The performance of "The Marriage of Figaro" also will be described.

USING WOOD AS FUEL will be discussed by Bill Clatt, a forester, at 7:30 tonight in the Student Union Building. He will also talk about land use and misuse. American Association of University Women is sponsoring the program. All students, faculty, and staff are invited to attend at no charge.

ALPHA PHI OMEGA will hold a dedication ceremony at 1:30 p.m. tomorrow on the quadrangle. A tree will be dedicated to their alumni. The guest speaker will be Roger Sherwood, national director of APO. Several University officials will be present. The public is invited to attend.

ALL FACULTY, STAFF, AND STUDENTS are encouraged to share any news they have for the campus through "Northeast Today." To insure accuracy, we ask the news to be written out and sent to the Public Relations Office, McKinney Center. The absolute deadline for news is 10:30 a.m. the regular working day before the Monday and Thursday publication dates. To guarantee publication on the right date, items should be sent a few days earlier if possible.
