

Northeast Today

April 5, 1976

A RECEPTION HONORING JAMES KIRKPATRICK, Missouri Secretary of State, is scheduled for 2:30-4 p.m. April 14 in the Conference Room of the Student Union. Everyone is welcome.

Kirkpatrick will be on campus to meet with political science classes.

THE UNIVERSITY CHORUS will present "A Survey of the American Musical" at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the First Christian Church. Chris Ahern, graduate assistant in vocal music, will be the conductor with Clay Dawson as narrator and Cheyr1 Walker and Gail Schoonover, accompanists.

The program will include selections from "The King and I," "The Sound of Music," "Ben Franklin In Paris," and "Funny Girl."

LOOKING AHEAD ... April 16, Good Friday, is an official University Holiday. All campus offices will be closed and classes will not be held.

SEVEN AGRICULTURE SCHOLARSHIPS will be awarded during the annual Agriculture Department Scholarship Awards Assembly today at 11:30 in the Student Union. Four of the tuition scholarships will be awarded to incoming freshmen; the others to currently enrolled agriculture students.

Three of the scholarships were made available as a result of grain sales from the Agriculture Demonstration Project located at the Old Air Base north of Kirksville. The others are being given by Bob Rogers and Roy Burchett representing Pioneer Seed Company, Ruby Green Seed Company and Dr. and Mrs. David Travis. One scholarship is being made available as a result of funds received by the Agriculture Department from the district vocational ag teachers in recognition of the annual Vocational-Agriculture Contest.

THE ANNUAL ACCOUNTING CLUB BANQUET, scheduled for Wednesday, will feature Dan Morawitz, B.S. '63, as speaker. Morawitz is a partner in the accounting firm of Touche, Ross and Company, St. Louis.

A reception will be held in the Georgian Room from 5:30-6 p.m. with a dinner following. Tickets at $4 per person are available in the Business Division office.

"CHARACTERISTICS OF SUCCESSFUL COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES," will be the topic of this year's Baldwin Lecture April 13. Dr. Robert Koenker, Dean of the Graduate School and Professor of Psychology at Ball State University, will be the speaker.

The annual lecture and Founder's Day Banquet will begin at 6:30 in the Student Union. Tickets at $3.95 may be purchased through the division heads and in the Alumni Office, McKinney Center. Reservations should be made by April 6.

SATURDAY IS "DR. K DAY" at the University. Registration is scheduled for 1:30-6:30 p.m. in the Student Union. There will be campus tours for returning alumni from 2:30-4:30 p.m. followed by a reception at 5:30 p.m. in the Quiet Lounge. A banquet is planned for 6:30 p.m. followed by a dance at 9 p.m.

Reservations for the dinner and dance will be accepted through Wednesday afternoon. Call Jim Edwards, ext. 3396.

Dr. "K" (Charles E. Kauzlarich) will retire from the University on June 30, 1976 after 36 years of service. He was named head of the Business Division in 1954.

JAZZ ENSEMBLE LP ... The award-winning NMSU Jazz Ensemble has produced a professionally recorded LP album on sale to faculty and students at $5 per album. If interested, contact Roger Cody at ext. 3316.

SALUTE TO '76, sponsored by the Missouri Hall Dormitory Council, begins tonight with a fireworks display at 9 p.m. in Stokes Stadium. Walter H. Ryle, president emeritus, will speak on "Development of NMSU" at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow in Missouri Hall Cafeteria. David March, Social Science, will speak on "Missouri Involvement in the Civil War" at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in the cafeteria. At 7:30 Thursday, a movie entitled "1776" will be shown in the cafeteria. Admission is 75¢. The week's program will conclude with a picnic Saturday for the residence hall.

A QUILTMaking WORKSHOP, to include demonstrations of spinning and dying, is scheduled for 9 a.m.-3 p.m. Saturday in the Activities Room of the Student Union. There will be a $1.50 registration fee which includes lunch. Reservations must be made by noon Friday with Trudy McRae, ext. 3358.

The workshop is being held in conjunction with the "Quilts from Nebraska Collections" on exhibit through April 29 in the University Gallery. The gallery will be open from 1-4 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

THE HARLEM GLOBETROTTERS will appear in the Pershing Arena at 7 p.m. Sunday. Tickets are on sale in the Student Union, Raack's Sporting Goods, Rider Drugs, Gibson's Discount Store and Mart Drug. Admission is $4 for adults and $3 for children 12 and under. The University Senate is sponsoring the event.
(continued)

Calling themselves "The World's Greatest Family Entertainment," the Trotters will be pitted against the California Chiefs Sunday.

The Trotters have recently returned from an undefeated, 49-game tour of Australia. Their last setback was five years ago at Martin, Tenn. In their first 49 seasons, they rolled up 12,002 victories against only 323 losses.

THE FIRST IOWA/ILLINOIS INTERVIEW DAY is scheduled for Thursday in Blanton Hall. Unscheduled interviews will begin at 10:30 a.m. in the Placements Center, not the Student Union. The second Iowa/Illinois Day is scheduled for April 14.

THE N.E. MO. INDUSTRIAL EDUCATION Awards Program Saturday will bring approximately 450 junior and senior high students to the campus. The projects will be judged in the Pershing Arena from 9 a.m.-noon. The public is invited to view the projects from 12:45-1:30 p.m. Robert Stephens from the Practical Arts Division is coordinator of the program.

FACULTY NOTES ... Max Cogan, Health, Physical Education, and Recreation, conducted seven workshops at Burlington High School March 19 during the school's Special Interest Day. He was assisted by University students Sue Alexander and Peter Danielson in fencing and Jeff Doolittle in tennis. On March 26 he conducted two workshops in fencing and tennis at Mt. Pleasant with the assistance of Debbie Price, a University student....Jim Barnes, Language and Literature, has a poem, "Four Things Choctaw," appearing in the April 3 issue of The Nation. He has had four poems -- all on or about John Berryman-- taken for publication by the magazine John Berryman Studies.Jim Lyons, Social Science, spoke on "The Brain and Behavior" March 30 at the Kirksville Upper Elementary School....Leone Cox, Nursing, and Dick and Linda Heun, Language and Literature,, prepared a paper entitled "Communication in Nursing Education" for the Forum on Teaching Beyond the Basic Course at the Central States Speech Association Convention last weekend in Chicago....Andrew Grossbardt, Language and Literature, has a poem entitled "No one has done that before" in the current issue of Poetry Northwest published in Seattle, Wash. He also has three poems appearing in the current issue of Slackwater Review which is published in Lewiston, Idaho and two poems in the current issue of EPOCH which is published at Cornell University in Ithaca, N.Y. He has been notified that a book of his poems entitled The Traveler will be published late this summer by Confluence Press.Kathleen Dawson and Dale Everett, Fine Arts, were guest artists recently at the Hannibal Fine Arts Festival....Tom Duden, Fine Arts, will be the instrumental clinician at the I-70 Conference annual spring clinic April 9 at St. Paul's College in Concordia.

FREE PEOPLE, FREE LIBRARY is the theme of a display in the library this week, "National Library Week." The display has a historical note and includes several best selling books and items about Benjamin Franklin and Thomas Paine.