MINI-COMMENCEMENT for certificate program graduates will be held at 8 p.m. Friday in Baldwin Auditorium. Guest speaker will be Dr. Frank Heagerty, professor emeritus of education at the University of Missouri-Columbia.

A SPRING CONFERENCE of the Science Teachers of Missouri (STOM) will be held Friday through Sunday on campus. Numerous events have been planned to facilitate learning through activities such as camping, bird watching and nature walks. At 9 a.m. Saturday a business meeting for STOM will be led by President Kenneth Fast of the Kirkwood Public Schools in the Georgian Room of the Student Union Building. A banquet is scheduled for 6:15 p.m. Saturday also in the Georgian Room of the Student Union Building. Approximately 225 STOM members will participate in the weekend's activities.

THE FINAL EXAMINATIONS begin at 7:30 a.m. Monday, May 8. They will conclude at 9 p.m. Thursday, May 11. A complete final schedule is listed in the Spring Schedule of Classes available in the Public Relations Office, McKinney Center.

SPRING CONCERT TICKETS are on sale from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. today and Friday in the Student Union Building. The concert, scheduled for 7 and 10 p.m. Saturday in Baldwin Auditorium, will feature rock singer Bob Welch, formerly with Fleetwood Mac, with another singing group Dudek, Finnegan and Krueger who have been on tour with him in Canada. Welch's record album "French Kiss" has sold almost a million copies in the United States and is platinum in Canada. Ticket prices are $1.50 with a Student Activities Card, $3.50 with an NMSU ID, $5.50 for non-students and $5.50 at the door. The concert is sponsored by the Student Activities Board.
