NORTHEAST NOTES

The March 1980 winner of the H.E.L.P. Award is Jim Lykins, officer of safety and security. He was chosen because of his willingness to help students with car problems in a patient and friendly manner. Students may nominate any employee who is not a member of the faculty or administration for the honor. Nominations are due on the third Sunday of the month. The Student Senate sponsors the new award. For more information about the H.E.L.P. Award, contact Carl Mueller, committee chairman, at ext. 7797.

Robert Martin, Education, recently presented two works at the national conference of the American Society of University Composers in Memphis, Tenn. A short play entitled "Playing on Time: The Social Function of Music and Time" and a solo clarinet composition with mime, "Ten Thousand Things Moving," were presented. Rob Lininger, Special Education, choreographed and performed the mime. Laura Waters, Fine Arts senior, was the solo clarinetist.

The NMSU Upsilon Phi chapter of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia was recently informed that it ranked number one of 257 national chapters in money spent on furthering music in America. Upsilon Phi ranked number two in membership, with first going to the University of California in Los Angeles. Musical events sponsored by the NMSU chapter include a composition clinic, a men's honor choir, a jazz festival, guest artists and soloists and scholarships. The chapter also plans to start a high school marching band festival next fall.

Jim Thomas, Language and Literature, has been notified by the editor of Illinois Quarterly that his poem "Smitty's Bar, La Plata, MO" has been accepted for publication. Thomas' poem "Night Swimmers" will be published in The Archer at a later date. Thomas read a selection of his poems at the Missouri Philological Association meeting on March 22.
