FRIDAY IS A UNIVERSITY HOLIDAY...all business offices will be closed and classes will not be held. University offices will re-open Monday and classes will resume Wednesday.

VAN B. PHILLIPS, retired vice president and general manager of the marketing division of the Eastman Kodak Company, will speak on "Affirmative Action Programs" at 7:30 tonight in the Centennial Hall dining room. He will speak with several Business Division classes and be honored at a reception from 3-5 p.m. today in the Conference Room of the SUB. Everyone's invited to welcome Phillips to the campus during the reception.

DR. SEYMOUR SMITH, president emeritus of Stephens College, will address Kay Blair's "Women in American Culture" class from 7-10 p.m. April 6 in 230 Viollette Hall. Smith's presentation is open to the public and free of charge. The presentation is being sponsored by the Missouri Committee for the Humanities and the International Women's Decade Speakers' Bureau.

THE FACULTY BRASS QUINTET will present a recital of brass chamber music at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the Activities Room of the SUB. The concert will feature a premier performance of "Brass Quintet No. 3" by composer Thom Ritter George. The concert is open to the public free of charge.

DAVID DOCTORIAN, Missouri State Senator, will be the guest speaker at the monthly meeting of the Pershing Society at 7 tonight in the Conference Room of the SUB. The meeting is open to the public. A question-and-answer session will follow Doctorian's speech.

BANK AMERICARD is now being accepted at the University Business Office, according to Royce Cook. MasterCard is also accepted.

IT'S NOT TOO LATE to pre-register for summer classes. Students may pick up summer course cards today through Wednesday. Fees need not be paid at pre-registration but anytime before June 6.
