

TRUMAN

A Weekly Publication of Truman State University

T O D A Y

Vol. 1 No. 14

October 28, 1996

Smiles for Athletic Hall of Fame to Induct Eight

United Way

You can get your photo taken with Spike, too.

With the campus United Way campaign drawing to a close, Delta Sigma Pi will be raising money for the United Way Nov. 30-31.

For a donation, students, staff, faculty and their families will be able to have their picture taken with Spike or Simone, the University mascots.

Spike and Simone will be available in the SUB from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. All proceeds will go to the United Way.

See related stories, p. 2.

Truman State University's Athletic Hall of Fame will welcome eight new members on Nov. 2 at the University's Athletic Hall of Fame banquet.

The 1996 inductees also will be recognized at halftime during the Bulldog football game vs. Missouri Southern on Nov. 2. Game time is 1 p.m. at Stokes Stadium. Following the game there will be a reception in the SUB Quiet Lounge at 6 p.m. The banquet and induction ceremony will follow in the Georgian Room at 7 p.m.

Reservations for the banquet can be made with the Athletic Office, Pershing Building 213, at 785-4235. Tickets for the banquet are $12.

A list of this year's inductees follows:

TRISHA KONGABLE BROWN ('86, '87) a softball pitcher for the Bulldogs, was a two-time all MIAA first-team selection, a 1986 NCAA Division II All-America second team pick and a two-time academic All-American. In 1986, she was named the MIAA conference MVP. Brown owns 10 school records that still stand.

THOMAS E. HAYES ('84) was a unanimous all-MIAA football first-team choice and was named the conference MVP three times. He received the Associated Press Little All-American honorable recognition twice. He was named to the first all-league team for three consecutive years, the only player from the MIAA to earn that distinction. Hayes quarterbacked two MIAA championship teams and was chosen to the CoSIDA Academic All-American second team.

LINLEY J. LIPPER ('84) captured All-America track honors in the 1974 NCAA Division II outdoor meet and ran on three conference track championship teams. As a cross country runner, he was the MIAA champion in 1972. He coached high school cross country for four years.

CARLOS W. NORTON ('84) received the Division III and ITC All-America tennis awards for singles and doubles at the 1983 Division II tournament. In 1984, he was nationally ranked in NCAA Division II tennis and won the conference singles title three times. As a Bulldogs coach in 1985, Norton was named MIAA Coach of the Year.

GLENDE G. PICKERING ('55) lettered four years in football and track. As a starting end on Bulldog football teams that won four MIAA championships, he compiled a cumulative record of 27-5-1 from 1951-54, earning all-conference honors in 1954. After graduation he coached and played on an undefeated Marine base championship team. Pickering directed high school football for 12 years, amassing a cumulative record of 50-30-3.

DONALD E. SPARKS ('56, '59) was a linebacker on a three-time Bulldog conference championship football team. He lettered four times and became the first associate director of the Missouri State High School Activities Association. Sparks is the director of the National Federation of High School Activities Association and of the National Federation of State High School Associations. He is also a member of the Greater St. Louis Athletic Hall of Fame.

ROY L. TEWELL ('59) played on the Bulldog basketball team four seasons, earning first and second-team all-MIAA accolades, and served as team captain twice during his career. He received the MIAA Sportsmanship Award in 1959 and was the 'Dogs MVP.

RONALD P. WERLING ('68) won three individual titles at the conference meets and collected All-America laurels at the NCAA Cross-Country Championships. He is one of two Bulldog cross country runners to have earned All-America honors three times. In the 1966 and 1967 NCAA meets, Werling received All-America track recognition. He is now the athletic director at Indianola (Iowa) High School.

The active involvement of hundreds of people makes the United Way of Adair County one of the largest volunteer efforts in the community. Following are three of the 16 agencies that the United Way supports.

NEMO SENIOR CITIZENS SERVICES, INC.

This group provides social, recreational and life sustaining services enabling handicapped and senior citizens to maintain their independence and remain in their homes. It provides more than 60,000 meals per year for elderly and handicapped residents in a congregate meal setting or by delivery to homebound residents.

RETIRED SENIOR VOLUNTEER PROGRAM

RSVP's mission is to increase awareness among older citizens, so that retirement can mean the beginning of a new and exciting period in their lives. RSVP encourages seniors to bring a lifetime of talent, experience and skills to community projects and organizations through volunteer and community service.

SALVATION ARMY

The motivation of this organization is love of God and a practical concern for the needs of humanity. It provides clothing, medicine, food, emergency shelter, counseling services, youth activities, adult fellowship and character building programs.

Students Prepare for United Way Drive

Students are making a strong contribution to the 1997 United Way campaign. That contribution begins with guidance from the fund drive's student committee.

These eight students have committed themselves to getting the word out on campus and letting other students know the importance of their United Way donations.

The money is raised primarily through the generosity of individuals and student organizations. To recognize outstanding contributors, there are United Way Silver and Gold Awards. These awards go to organizations who donate $1 or more per member.

The biggest donor to the student fund drive is Sodexho, the campus food service. Each year, Sodexho sponsors a Food Fast, one evening when students with a meal plan give up supper. The food service then donates a portion of the value of every meal skipped that night. The 1996 Food Fast will be Oct. 30. Students can sign up with their student advisor for the fast.

"The student goal is $4,950. I'm confident we will meet it," said Carl Duffield, student leader. "To me, it makes sense to contribute to the place where students spend 9 months out of the year and to build ties between the University and the community."

Members of the 1997 United Way student committee include (l-r) Lisa Karp, Gretchen Krueger, Andy Gensler, Angie Green, Emily Vogel, Candra Gill and Carl Duffield. Not pictured, Liz Kolwick.

University Hosts Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder Teleconference

The Office of Faculty Development will host a national interactive satellite teleconference focused on Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder Oct. 31, 1-3 p.m. in the SUB Activities Room.

The conference, "ADHD ... Yes, No, Maybe," is presented by the Learning Disabilities Center at the University of Georgia and the Behavioral Institute of Atlanta.

The program content is designed for a wide range of people who work with and act as advocates for adults and adolescents with ADHD.

Most individuals with ADHD do not outgrow the disorder as they reach adulthood, thus some college students experience learning difficulties as a result of the disorder. This interactive teleconference will focus on the important aspects of a good assessment.

Research related to assessment issues will be discussed, as well as such legal issues as assessment, eligibility and documentation. Viewers will be able to phone in questions and comments.

The teleconference will also address the following discussion questions: "What are the criteria for diagnosing ADHD?" "Is it ever too late to diagnose and treat ADHD?" and "What instruments and procedures are available to diagnose ADHD in adolescents and adults?"

Most individuals with ADHD do not outgrow the disorder as they reach adulthood, thus some college students experience learning difficulties as a result of the disorder.

The Office of Faculty Development is sponsoring the teleconference along with Rural Advocates for Independent Living (RAIL), Truman Services for Individuals with Disabilities, Truman Counseling Center and Children & Adults with Attention Deficit Disorder (CHADD).

Truman faculty, staff, students as well as members of the community are invited to participate in the conference at no charge. To ensure that there are enough conference materials and refreshments, RSVP with the Office of Faculty Development at 785-4391.

Chinese-American Featured in Minority Art Show

“By the Table” created by Chinese-American Yu Ji is one of many pieces of artwork featured in this year’s Minority Art Exhibit hosted by the Division of Fine Arts. Ji, the featured artist, says that “the themes of his work are generally taken from his observations of social situations in contemporary urban settings.” Ji’s work will be displayed in the University Art Gallery until Nov. 22.

Notables

Jim Barnes, writer in residence, has translations of three poems by Dagmar Nick, a contemporary Munich poet, scheduled for publication in Rattle, a national literary magazine situated in Los Angeles.

Russell G. Baughman, professor of chemistry, has earned inclusion in Who's Who in the Midwest 1996-97.

Marijke Bruening, assistant professor of political science, and John Ishiyama, associate professor of political science, presented their paper “Messages and Audiences: The Rhetoric of Flemish Nationalist Parties, 1991-1995” at the International Studies Association-Midwest annual meeting, Oct. 18-20 in St. Louis. Bruening was also chair and discussant for the panel on “Issues Confronting Third World States in International Politics.” Ishiyama was chair and discussant for the panel “Post-Communist Democratic Transition.” He also recently presented his paper, “From a Sow’s Ear: Red-Brown Political Cooperation in Post-Communist Politics,” at the meeting of the Central Slavic Association Oct. 3-5 in Columbia.

Stephen Pollard, associate professor of philosophy, was notified that the book he co-authored with Norman Martin has been published by Kluwer Academic Publishers. The title of Pollard’s book is Closure Spaces and Logic.

Andrea Roberts, senior nursing major, was recently honored with the Alpha Sigma Alpha Elizabeth Bird Small Award. This is the highest honor the National Council of Alpha Sigma Alpha sorority can bestow on a member.

Sigma Sigma Sigma, Mu Chapter, won the 1995-96 National Rush Award for an outstanding rush program. This award is given to one chapter in the nation annually by the Sigma Sigma Sigma national headquarters.

Laura Tamakoshi, associate professor of anthropology, has been named visual media editor for Pacific Studies, a multidisciplinary journal devoted to the study of the peoples of the Pacific Islands. Tamakoshi’s position is new and she is charged with developing and overseeing the quarterly review of films, videos, websites and other visual media used in teaching and portraying the arts, economics, history, geography, politics and international relations of the Pacific Islands.

Black History Portrayed in Archives Exhibit

Students, faculty, staff and residents of the Kirksville community will be able to take a walk through African-American history Nov. 4-8.

Multicultural Affairs and Missouri Lottery are sponsoring a black archives exhibit, “The History of African Americans in Missouri: 1719-Present” in Ryle Hall main lounge Nov. 4-8.

The traveling exhibit personifies the roles of African-Americans and their plight to dispel negative images. Through the positive examples, the exhibit inspires and motivates.

It is a pictorial history of human effort, a story of the African-American struggles and triumphs in the state of Missouri.

This program also offers interesting insight on the accomplishments of many African-American Missouri residents. There are pictures, artifacts, articles, documents and other historical references available for study and examination.

The Archival presentations include diaries and personal documents, oral histories, newspapers, written local histories, business records and records from churches, clubs and societies.

Notes

The Truman Theatre Department will present the musical "The Fantasticks" Oct. 31 and Nov 1-2, at 8 p.m. in Baldwin Hall Studio. Reserve Tickets are $1, and admission is free at the door.

Proposals for summer 1997 undergraduate research stipends are being accepted. Up to 15 stipends of $1,500 will be awarded. Interested students need to work with a faculty mentor in developing a brief research proposal. Proposals will be submitted to the division head of the faculty mentor's division by Nov. 6. Further information is available in division offices.

Omicron Delta Kappa applications are available in the CAOC and the Student Affairs Office. Applications are due by 5 p.m. on Nov. 1 in the Student Affairs Office. Students must be of junior standing by next semester to apply and must be in the top 35 percent of their class.

There will be an information session for the 1997 Japan Exchange and Teaching (JET) Program in the SUB Tangerine Room on Nov. 1, 2-4 p.m. The speaker will be Cassy Allen, JET Program Coordinator. For more information, call 785-4240.

On Oct. 28, Monday Nights in Ryle will feature "Issue Forum 1996: Meet the Local Candidates" at 7:30 p.m. in Ryle Hall main lounge. Candidates for state representative, sheriff and county assessor will speak, and a question-and-answer session will follow.

McNair Post-Baccalaureate Achievement Program applications are available (for sophomores only) in the Center for Multicultural Affairs, Adair Building.

Phi Kappa Phi will meet Oct. 27, 2 p.m. in the SUB Alumni Room. Outstanding sophomore scholars will be represented, and two scholarships for juniors will be presented. Bob Mielke will give a talk on his book in progress, Tickling the Dragon's Tail: American Nuclear Culture. Refreshments will be served.

The Faculty Development Committee will host the Wednesday Lunch series on Oct. 30, 12:30 p.m. in the SUB Spanish Room. The topic will be "The Effect of Student Motivation on Senior Testing."

Oct. 30 will be the annual United Way Student Food Fast. For every student in the residence halls and colleges who gives up their dinner, Sodexho will contribute to the United Way. (See story p.2).

The Women's Studies Committee is inviting faculty, staff, students and members of the Kirksville community to submit papers or abstracts for a conference on women and politics. All submissions are to be turned in to Linda Seidel by Jan. 31, 1997. For more information, call 785-4491.

Submissions for Windfall are to be turned in to the CAOC office by Nov. 6. The submissions must be a clean, typed copy with the writer's name and phone number attached to a self-addressed stamped envelope.

Sigma Delta Pi will have a Day of the Dead Celebration on Oct. 30 at 7:30 p.m. in Baldwin Hall 351. The celebration will be a hands-on experience of the Hispanic holiday, and traditional refreshments will be provided.

The Brewer Hall staff is hosting a "Fireside Chat with President Magruder" on Nov. 4 at 6:30 p.m. in Brewer main lounge. This is a chance for students to have personal contact with President Magruder in an informal setting. All students are welcome.

There will be an Election Party in Missouri Hall first floor north lounge Nov. 5 at 6 p.m. Refreshments will be served, and news reports will be broadcast to keep track of returns throughout the evening.

The University Career Center and Truman faculty will present a general information graduate school panel on Oct. 29 at 3:30 p.m. in the UCC. Topics to be discussed include: researching institutions, the application process, recommendations, financial aid and graduate admissions tests.

The Psychology Club is hosting a presentation on Oct. 29, 8:30 p.m. in Ophelia Parrish 214. Jamie Osborn and Brian Yochim will present the topic, titled "Interships: How to Get Them and Our Experiences With Them-Mentally Retarded Persons and Behavior Problems."

Alpha Phi Omega and Alpha Sigma Gamma will host a blood drive Nov. 12-14, 11a.m.-4 p.m. in the SUB Activities Room. Sign-ups will be Nov 5-7 in the SUB, McClain Hall and outside the cafeterias in residential halls and colleges.

ON CAMPUS

28 MONDAY
7:30 p.m. --"Issue Forum 1996: Meet the Local Candidates," Ryle Hall main lounge; See Notes.

29 TUESDAY
3:30 p.m. --General graduate school panel, University Career Center; See Notes.

30 WEDNESDAY
7 p.m. --Bulldog volleyball vs. CMSU, Pershing Gym.

8 p.m. --Wind Symphony concert, Baldwin Auditorium

31 THURSDAY
Last Day to drop full-semester courses

6 p.m. --Trick or Treating in residence halls, beginning in Ryle Hall main lounge

8 p.m. --"The Fantasticks" musical hosted by Truman Theatre Department, Baldwin Hall Studio; also Nov. 1-2.

1 FRIDAY
2 p.m. --Information session for 1997 Japan Exchange Teaching program, SUB Tangerine Room

2 SATURDAY
President's Distinguished Scholar Day

Athletic Hall of Fame; see story, p. 1.

1 p.m. --Bulldog Football vs. Missouri Southern, Hall of Fame Game, football field

4 MONDAY
6:30 p.m. --Fireside Chat with President Magruder, Brewer Hall main lounge; See Notes.