THE UNIVERSITY PLAYERS will hold their first meeting of the semester at 6 p.m. Wednesday in the Little Theatre, Baldwin Hall. The University Players is a campus organization for those interested in theatre or play production. New members are welcome to attend.

A GENERAL FACULTY MEETING will be held at 4 p.m. Wednesday in 106 Laughlin Building.

FACULTY AND STAFF MEMBERS are entitled to two reserve or general admission tickets per football game. The tickets must be obtained during the week preceding a game at the Athletic Office, 212 Pershing Building, Monday through Thursday or at the Student Union Building from 3 to 5 p.m. Thursday and Friday. Identification must be presented to receive the tickets. Extra tickets cost $2 each. ID cards will not be acceptable for admission at the stadium on game dates.

THE MISSOURI COMMITTEE FOR THE HUMANITIES will meet at 3:15 p.m. today in the Alumni Room of the Student Union Building. The purpose of the meeting will be to discuss how to obtain funds from MCH, which awards grants for programs that provide the public with knowledge from the social sciences.

REPRESENTATIVES OF ALL CAMPUS ORGANIZATIONS will meet with the Index staff today at 4 p.m. in the Index office, 315 Laughlin Building.

BEGINNING TODAY, Safety and Security will provide motorist assists only in emergencies and for students going home after 3 p.m. Fridays through 7 a.m. Mondays.

ID pictures may be taken Mondays through Fridays from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Safety and Security building, located north of Centennial Hall.

Safety and Security officers will begin issuing tickets today for parking violations, failure to register vehicles and other violations. Parking stickers for all students, faculty or staff may be obtained at Safety and Security. The cost to students is $7 for 12 months. Any student, faculty, or staff member who operates a car on campus must register his or her car with Safety and Security to obtain a sticker.

MEMBERS OF THE FELLOWSHIP OF CHRISTIAN ATHLETES will meet at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday at the Bulldog Kennels, Stokes Stadium. Anyone interested in becoming a member may attend. Non-athletes as well as athletes are welcome. Call Ben Gorecki, club president, at 665-1316 for more information.

CHARLES GIOVANNINI of the Giovannini Insurance Agency, representing the American United Life Insurance Co., will be available for consultation from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tuesday in the Alumni Room of the Student Union Building. Those having questions regarding tax-sheltered annuities are welcome. Refreshments will be served throughout the day. Giovannini will be the first of several speakers approved by the University to present programs on annuities for the benefit of the faculty and staff.

AN OPEN MEETING of the NMSU chapter of Alpha Phi Omega, the largest national service fraternity, is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in Room 5 of the Student Union Building. Interested persons are welcome to attend. For more information call Bob Renken, club president, at 665-2517, or Steve Wolf, membership chairman, at ext. 2254.

A TOUR OF SCIENCE HALL and its facilities will be included in the first meeting of the National Science Teachers student chapter and Young Engineers and Scientists Club held at 7 p.m. Wednesday in 212 Science Hall. Other topics of discussion will be the second annual Science Hall picnic; trips to Kansas City, Mo., and Atlanta; and election of officers. Everyone is welcome at the meeting.

THE CHILD DEVELOPMENT CENTER needs one student to plan and prepare snacks Monday through Friday from 9-11 a.m. This student will also gain experience in purchasing groceries. If interested contact Charlotte Wallinga, director, at ext. 2740.

LAW ENFORCEMENT AND CORRECTIONS MAJORS who are sophomores, juniors or seniors, and have taken at least one course in Law Enforcement may apply for Law Enforcement Education Program (LEEP) pre-service funds. The funds, which provide for reimbursement of tuition, are available to students that are not now employed in some criminal justice agency and did not receive LEEP funds last spring or summer. To apply, students should sign up for an appointment in the Law Enforcement and Corrections Office, 334 Pershing Building. LEEP funding is also available to in-service returning and transfer students, and is the same as last year.

ANOTHER SECTION OF DISCO DANCE has been added to the fall schedule of classes. The course will meet Period Four on Mondays and Wednesdays. Course cards may be obtained at the Health, Physical Education and Recreation Office, 212 Pershing Building.

THE FIRST HOME FOOTBALL GAME of the 1978-79 season is Saturday. The Bulldogs will challenge the University of Central Arkansas at 1:30 p.m. in Stokes Stadium.

CLASSES WILL BE DISMISSED Monday, Sept. 4, Labor Day. They will resume as usual at 7:30 a.m. Tuesday, Sept. 5.

LAST DAY TO REGISTER and/or add classes is Friday.

NORTHEAST NOTES

Carol Poindexter, a senior from Tina, and Louanne Streiff, a junior from Chillicothe, were recently awarded the Amy M. Swisher Scholarship given by the Alpha Sigma Alpha national social sorority. The scholarship was awarded on the basis of high scholastic achievement and sorority participation.

Charlotte Revelle, Home Economics, and three student delegates from NMSU recently attended the biennial meeting of Kappa Omicron Phi, national home economics honor society, in Nashville, Tennessee. Revelle was a discussion leader at the sponsors' meeting. The student delegates were Kathy DeVore, senior from Seymour, Iowa, who served as a discussion leader; Cindy Crawford, senior from Unionville, who was an official voting delegate for all business meetings; and Beverly Bibb, junior from Louisiana. The meeting focused on "The Challenge of Leadership."

The second edition of Contemporary Business by Boone and Kurtz contains supplemental materials authored by Gene C. Wunder, business. The text will be published by the Dryden Press in late 1978.
