

Northeast Today

August 30, 1976

EVENING CLASSES BEGIN TONIGHT for the fall semester. Approximately 100 courses are being offered in the various divisions. Registration may be completed at the first class meeting. For a Saturday and Evening Class schedule check in the Publications Office.

PARKING TICKETS will be issued beginning today, according to Cpt. Perry Eichor, head of Safety and Security. Faculty and staff are reminded to park only in those areas designated red. '76-'77 parking stickers are being issued in the Safety and Security Office during regular office hours.

TRAVELING? Faculty and staff are reminded that the University has an office for travel assistance located in the Kirk Building. G. H. Jamison, former faculty member of the Mathematics Division, can help you make your agenda, your hotel reservations and secure your tickets. And, if you are planning a trip to Chicago, he can often save you money on your lodging. Stop by his office just north of Data Processing.

A SEMINAR ON TAX SHELTERED ANNUITIES is scheduled for 4-5 p.m. and 7-8 p.m. Sept. 8 in Room 5 of the Student Union. Jim Harding (CLU) of the General American Life Insurance Company will conduct the session. Refreshments will be served.

THE NMSU JAZZ ENSEMBLE has been selected to perform at the annual convention of the Missouri Music Educators Association in January in Jefferson City. Only one college or university jazz group is selected each year on the basis of a tape audition. The University's ensemble performed at the convention three years ago.

THE COMMITTEE STUDYING THE PHILOSOPHY AND OBJECTIVES OF GENERAL EDUCATION would like any members of the University community who wish to present their views about general education in writing to do so by Sept. 17.

Guidelines to help structure responses were sent to every faculty and staff member in early June, but if you need another contact Jack Dvorak, 208 Nason Hall. Please send responses to the same address. Opportunities to visit with members of the committee will be made available in late September and early October.

THE MARINE CORPS Officer Selection office from Kansas City will be on campus tomorrow through Thursday from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the main concourse of the Student Union. Representatives will have information on the Platoon Leadership Class, a commissioning program for the Corps.
