

Northeast Today

Thursday, October 27, 1977

"HAPPENINGS"

TODAY, October 27

- Paulding Program --1 pm, Armory
Cheerleading Clinic--4 pm, Kirk Gym
K-dette Clinic --5:30-6:30 pm
Kirk Gym
Circle K --6 pm, Tang. Rm.
SUB
Grades Mini-Workshop -7:30 pm, 2nd Fl.
S. Lounge, MH
Suppan Recital --8 pm, Aud., BH

FRIDAY, October 28

- Senate election --8 am to 4 pm, SUB
Rifle free fire --1-5 pm, Basement
Brew. Hall
Coroner's Program --2 pm, Act. Rm.
SUB
Men's Cross Country --4 pm, Country
Club
All-Night Movies --8 pm, Kirk Gym
Field Hockey Tourn. --Liberty begins

SATURDAY, October 29

- Women's Cross --11 am, Country
Club
Orienteering Meet --1 pm, 1,000 Hills
Park
Football Game --1:30 pm
Cape Girardeau
Disco Dance --8-11 pm, Kirk Gym

SUNDAY, October 30

- Clean-Up Day --2 pm, 1,000 Hills
Park
Halloween Dance --8:30-11 pm, Cafe.,
CH

THE SUMMA LIST, posted in the Student Union Building, may not include the names of all students eligible to be listed. If you are a currently enrolled full-time undergraduate, have completed 60 hours, have a 3.90 or better cumulative GPA, and are not on the list, contact the Dean of Students Office by October 28.

ALL FRESHMAN STUDENTS who have been interviewed by their Freshman Counselor and have decided to declare a specific major should report immediately to the division of which their major is a part and arrange for an appointment with their new advisor. The division can assign the advisors when notified. A student must meet with his new advisor before planning his classes for the spring semester.

ALL-NIGHT MOVIES will be shown tomorrow night in Kirk Gym. (The place listed on the posters was incorrect.) The movies will include "Family Plot," "Legend of Hell House," and "Murder by Death." The movies will begin at 8 p.m. Admission is free to holders of student activities cards and $1.50 to all others. Student Activities Board is sponsoring the event.

DR. JAMES E. PAULDING, associate professor of humanities and allied arts, has been awarded a $2525 grant to study the ramifications of recent land sales in Northeast Missouri to out-of-state groups such as the Mennonites and foreign investors. Two programs are planned in connection with the grant. The first program will be at 1 p.m. today in the Kirksville Armory. The second program will be at 1 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 10, at the Knox County High School, Edina. The programs will be entitled "Rural Northeast Missouri: Our New Residents." The grant is from the Missouri Committee for the Humanities, Inc., the state-based arm of the National Endowment for the Humanities. The public is invited to attend the programs. No admission will be charged.

TRYOUTS FOR WRESTLING CHEERLEADERS will be held at 4:30 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 1. Students interested in trying out should attend the clinics to be held at 4 p.m. today, tomorrow, and Monday, Oct. 31, in Kirk Gym. To be eligible to try out, students must have a 2.0 GPA and must attend two clinics. For further information, call Vonnie Nichols, director of Student Activities, at ext. 7203.

K-DETTES, the NMSU dance team, will hold tryouts at 5 p.m. Monday, Oct. 31, in Kirk Gym. The final clinic to prepare for the tryouts will be from 5:30-6:30 tonight in Kirk Gym. For further information, call Connie Larson, K-dette member, at ext. 2550.

A DISTRICT REPRESENTATIVE OF CIRCLE K will speak at 6 p.m. tonight in the Tangerine Room of the Student Union Building. He is Al Williams, governor of the Missouri-Arkansas District of Circle K International. Gov. Williams is a junior pre-veterinarian student at the University of Missouri-Columbia. He will discuss the values and purposes of Circle K including leadership and service. Also on the program will be musical selections by the NEMO Madrigal Singers. Refreshments will be served. All NMSU students, faculty, and staff are invited to attend. For more information contact Pat Peters, treasurer, at 665-1376.

THE MINI-WORKSHOP entitled "Riding the Grade Elevator: Helpful Hints in Improving Test Scores" has been rescheduled for tonight. It was originally planned for Thursday, Oct. 20. The mini-workshop will be at 7:30 p.m. in the Second Floor South Lounge of Missouri Hall. It is sponsored by the Missouri Hall Staff and the Freshman Counseling Office. All students are encouraged to attend the free program.

AN ALL-BEETHOVEN RECITAL will be performed by pianist Leonora Suppan of Quincy at 8 tonight in Baldwin Auditorium. She will play in honor of the 150th anniversary of the composer's death. The Austrian-born pianist is a member of the Quincy College music faculty. The public is invited to attend at no charge. The Division of Fine Arts is sponsoring the recital.

THE U.S. SAVINGS BOND CAMPAIGN is now underway. The U.S. Treasury Department is providing eight $25 U.S. Savings Bonds to be given away to eight NMSU employees who enroll in the Savings Bond Plan or who increase their present savings during the campaign. Be sure to get your name in the hat. For further information, contact drive co-chairmen Royce Cook at ext. 7142 or Dr. Richard Keith at ext. 3406 or ext. 3456.

A SPECIAL ELECTION to fill the position of councilperson-at-large on the Student Senate will be from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. tomorrow in the Student Union Building. Candidates are Rod Belzer, Kristi Knowles, and Wayne Long. All students are eligible to vote.

DR. DAVID M. PAUL, Her Majesty's Coroner for the city of London, will speak on "The Medical Investigation of Death" at 2 p.m. tomorrow in the Activities Room of the Student Union Building. The program is sponsored by the Law Enforcement and Corrections Program at NMSU. The public is invited to attend the program. No admission will be charged.

WOLF AND COMPANY will have a representative on campus Tuesday, Nov. 1, to interview accounting majors for positions in their Des Moines and Waterloo offices. Interested students should sign up now in the Placements Office, First Floor Blanton Hall.

THE UPJOHN COMPANY, a pharmaceutical firm, will be represented on campus Wednesday, Nov. 9, to interview science or business administration majors for sales positions. The sign-up folder will be posted tomorrow in the Placements Office, First Floor Blanton Hall.

THE MEN'S CROSS-COUNTRY TEAM will host Central Missouri State University of Warrensburg at 4 p.m. tomorrow at the Kirksville Country Club.

THE WOMEN'S FIELD HOCKEY TEAM will travel to Liberty Friday and Saturday to participate in the Missouri Athletic Intercollegiate Association for Women (MAIAW) State Tournament.

THE WOMEN'S CROSS-COUNTRY TEAM will participate in the MAIAW Championships at 11 a.m. Saturday at the Kirksville Country Club.

THE BULLDOGS will travel to Cape Girardeau Saturday to play the Indians of Southeast Missouri State University. The game will begin at 1:30 p.m. at Houck Field. Reservations for a pep bus to the game will be taken from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. today in the Student Union Building. Cost is $5.15 per person. The pep bus is sponsored by the NMSU cheerleaders.

AN ORIENTEERING MEET will begin at 1 p.m. Saturday at Thousand Hills State Park. Orienteering involves cross-country running following a map. A $1 per person entry fee is charged to cover the cost of food and drink provided to the contestants. All students and faculty that would like to participate should pick up an entry form from Capt. Edward Bardill, sponsor of Spartans Club, that is sponsoring the meet. Contestants may get a team together or be assigned to one Saturday. For more information, contact Capt. Bardill, at ext. 7191, or Alta Freels, president, at ext. 3501.

THE PEOPLE RELATIONS GROUP at NMSU is sponsoring a Disco Dance from 8-11 p.m. Saturday in Kirk Gym. Admission is 50 cents. All students, faculty, and staff are invited to attend.

A CLEAN-UP DAY sponsored by the National Science Teachers Association Student Chapter and the Young Engineers and Scientists Club will begin at 2 p.m. Sunday at Thousand Hills State Park. All students, faculty, and staff interested in helping with the clean-up should meet at the Science Hall Tunnel at 2 p.m. Sunday. Transportation will be provided.

A HALLOWEEN DANCE will be held from 8:30-11 p.m. Sunday in the Centennial Hall Cafeteria. The dance is sponsored by Centennial Sisters and is open to all students. Admission will be 50 cents for Centennial Hall residents with IDs and 75 cents for all others. Students may wear costumes but it is not mandatory. A prize will be given for the best costume. Donuts and apple cider will be sold for 10 cents each.

OLD AND NEW Circle K members are invited to help with a UNICEF drive from 6 p.m. until finished on Monday, Oct. 31. Members will collect on campus and throughout the community. The goal is $100. A Halloween party will be held afterward for all who assisted. For more information, call Terri Steffes, program chairman, at 665-6986.

THE ANNUAL ART FACULTY EXHIBITION will open with a reception from 7 to 8:30 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 1, in the University Art Gallery, 218 Baldwin Hall. The show will continue through Nov. 16. Artists and their works are Helen Babbitt, associate professor of art, weavings; William Unger, professor of art, paintings; Trudy McRae, instructor of art and gallery director, paintings; Mary Belle Martin, associate professor of art, watercolors; William Murray, assistant professor of art, watercolors; Ed McEndarfer, assistant professor of art, ceramics; James Pauls, assistant professor of art, sculptures; and Kenneth Preston, instructor of art, print and drawing media.

DONATIONS OF BOOKS are needed for the annual Phi Alpha Theta Bookfair to be held next spring. Phi Alpha Theta is a national honor society in History. The books should be in good condition and may be on any subject. Persons having books to donate should call Dr. Robert Schnucker, advisor, at ext. 3312, or John Shorey, president, at 665-6283.

FALL SEMESTER FRESHMEN are required to participate in the Freshman Testing Program on Thursday, Nov. 3. Testing will begin promptly at 1:30 p.m. Students who enrolled in classes for the first time at NMSU this semester or during the last summer session of this past summer are required to take the tests. The testing schedule will appear in today's Index. Students required to take the test are to be excused from scheduled classes and other activities during the testing period. The freshman tests are referred to on page 42 of the 1977-79 General Bulletin under "Required Tests." The test results will be used by academic advisors and others to measure present levels of achievement and later to measure progress toward educational goals to NMSU.

GRADUATE STUDENTS with any problems or situations they wish considered by the Student Senate should contact their representatives Debbie Shrout at 665-9986 or ext. 3317 or Mariam Coleman at 665-8471.

THE NATIONAL THEATRE OF THE DEAF, a company of deaf actors known worldwide, will present "The Three Musketeers" at 8 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 6, at the American Theatre, 416 N. 9th St., St. Louis; and at 8 p.m. Monday, Nov. 7, at the St. Louis Community College at Florissant Valley, Campus Theatre, 3400 Pershall Rd., Florissant. Tickets are $3 and may be purchased at the door. For more information and coordination of car pools, call Nancy Hendrix, at ext. 7252, or contact Jim Higgs (by note) at 242 Missouri Hall.

FACULTY NOTES...Ron Gaber, director of housing, was elected to a two-year term as secretary-treasurer of the Upper Midwest Region of the Association of College and University Housing Officers at the annual meeting held Oct. 19-21 at Sioux Falls, South Dakota...Vonnie Nichols, director of student activities, represented NMSU as the Phi Delta Kappa voting delegate to the National Convention held Oct. 20-22 in New York...Fran McKinney, international student advisor, and Lee Myers, registrar, served on a panel discussing "The Admission of Foreign Students," at the Regional International Student Advisors Meeting held Oct. 13-14 in Minneapolis...NMSU dancers under the direction of Regina Lindhorst, Health, Physical Education, and Recreation, will perform in a dance concert Saturday at the Missouri Association for Health, Physical Education, and Recreation Fall Convention in Columbia...Jane E. Byrd, Language and Literature, was recently in Costa Rica doing research and preparing teaching units for the Foreign Language Spanish Program...Marlow Ediger, Education, has had manuscripts accepted for publication recently in the California Science Teachers Journal and the Wisconsin Principles Journal...Carol Keller, Index editor, Bill Crouse, Echo editor; and Terry VanderHeyden, advisor of student publications, will represent NMSU at the Associated Collegiate Press convention in New Orleans held today through Sunday in New Orleans...Debra Wiss, Judy Russell, Susan La Faver, and Pat Gipple, senior home economics majors, presented a symposium on the metric system, food labelling, energy conservation, and fashions, to the Atalpa II Federated Club in La Plata recently.

Rose Shanight, Home Economics, discussed opportunities for careers in home economics at the same meeting...Kathryn Blair, Social Science, read a paper "Toward Informed, Aware Assertion" for the annual meeting of the Missouri Philosophic Association held Saturday, Oct. 22, in Kansas City.

ALL FACULTY, STAFF, AND STUDENTS are encouraged to share any news they have for the campus through "Northeast Today." To insure accuracy, we ask the news to be written out and sent to the Public Relations Office, McKinney Center, by 10:30 a.m. the regular working day before the Monday and Thursday publication dates.