

Northeast Today

MONDAY, April 18, 1983

HAPPENINGS

TODAY, April 18

- 8:30 a.m. Teacher Interview Day, SUB
7 p.m. Program on Birds, 212 SH
"For All You Do, This Blood's For You"
program, main lounge, Dobson Hall
Band concert, Aud., BH

TUESDAY, April 19

- 1 p.m. Men's baseball vs. Culver Stockton, double header
6 p.m. Program on stereos, main lounge, Ryle Hall
8 p.m. Univ. Symphony Orchestra concert, Aud. BH

WEDNESDAY, April 20

- 8 a.m. Student Senate elections, third floor, SUB
7 p.m. Historical Society mtg., Tang. Rm., SUB
8 p.m. "The Spirit of the Beehive," Aud., BH

THURSDAY, April 21

- 4:30, 7, 9:30 p.m. "An Officer and a Gentleman," Aud., BH
8 p.m. Bye-Bye-Birdie thru Sat., main lounge, Ryle Hall
Mo. History Conference convocation, 106 LB

FRIDAY, April 22

- 4 p.m. Graduation clearance blanks due, 104 A/H
6:45 & 9:30 p.m. "Firefox," Aud., BH

SATURDAY, April 23

- Mo. History State Contest
9 a.m. Car wash, Food Barn parking lot
10 a.m. Osteopathic Run, Thompson Center
1 p.m. First Annual Academic Relays, 228 VH

SUNDAY, April 24

- 1 p.m. MD Run, Stokes Stadium
3 p.m. Univ. Chorus Concert, Aud., BH
8 p.m. "NMSU Live," Geo. Rm., SUB

BLOOD SERVICES OFFERED BY THE RED CROSS will be discussed by Terry Smith, dean of students, at 7 p.m. today in the main lounge of Dobson Hall. The event is sponsored by Darryl Nitsch, resident assistant of Dobson Hall.

"TURNS OF TERNS or Navigations in the Travels of Birds," will be the topic of discussion by Dr. Peter Goldman, associate professor of science, at 7 p.m. today in 212 Science Hall. The discussion is sponsored by the Chariton Valley Audubon Society.

A PROGRAM ON STEREOS will be presented by Wright's Sight and Sound at 6 p.m. Tuesday in the Ryle Hall main lounge. The program is sponsored by Rosalyn Pearson, resident assistant in Ryle Hall.

SUMMER ORIENTATION STAFF APPLICATIONS for the Freshman Counseling summer orientation program are due Tuesday in 102 Administration/Humanities Building. Approximately 18-20 part-time students are needed for the program. For more information contact Elsie Gaber, freshman counselor, at 785-4136.

A SPRING CONCERT will be presented by the NMSU Symphony Orchestra at 8 p.m. Tuesday in Baldwin Auditorium. The orchestra, under the direction of William E. Fitzsimmons, will perform the Romeo and Juliet Suite by Serge Prokofiev, Symphony No. 2 by Howard Hanson and an original symphonic poem by senior J. Mark Scearce. The concert is free.

STUDENT SENATE ELECTIONS will be held from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Wednesday on the third floor of the Student Union Building. Seniors and graduate students can also vote.

BEN BELLUS, Communication Consultant from Oskaloosa, Iowa, will speak on public relations, organizational leadership and other communication skills at 5 p.m. Wednesday in 306 Administration/Humanities Building. The event is sponsored by the Interpersonal Communication Club.

JAPANESE SUMMER PROGRAM APPLICATION material must be submitted to Loring Ivanick, assistant professor of German, in 310 Administration/Humanities Building by Wednesday. Anyone failing to do so cannot be considered for this year's program.

STATE SURPLUS PROPERTY will be available for inspection from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Thursday and Friday at Ophelia Parish. Included are wooden desks, library tables, bunk beds, chairs and miscellaneous office machines, microcomputers and many others. Items will be sold by sealed bids to the highest bidder, and bid forms will be available at the Ophelia Parrish Building or at the Business Office. For more information contact the Business Office, 785-4154, or Purchasing at 785-4159.

"AN OFFICER AND A GENTLEMAN" will be shown at 4:30, 7, and 9:30 p.m. Thursday in Baldwin Auditorium. Admission is $1 for the 4:30 p.m. show, $1.50 in advance for the 7 and 9:30 p.m. shows and $2 at the door. All tickets for the 4:30 p.m. show will be sold at the door. Tickets may be purchased in advance today through Thursday in the Student Union Concourse. Ten free passes will be given away by KNEJ radio.

THE MISSOURI HISTORY DAY CONTEST and the 25th Annual Missouri Conference on History will be held on campus this weekend. The conference opens with a special convocation at 8 p.m. Thursday in 106 Laughlin Building featuring Charles Mullett, professor emeritus at the University of Missouri-Columbia. The conference will feature many guest speakers, including Myron Marty, deputy director of education, National Endowment for the Humanities and John Ward, president, American Council of Learned Societies. Information can be obtained on the third floor of the Student Union Building during the conference or from Dr. Robert Schnucker, conference director, at 785-4665. Students, faculty and staff may attend any of the sessions. Viewing of the entries in the state History Day competition is also open to the public from 8:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday in Kirk Gym and the SUB. An awards ceremony will be held at 4 p.m. in Baldwin Auditorium. For more information, contact Jerry Stremel, state director, at 785-4641.

SUMMER RECREATION DIRECTOR APPLICATIONS for both summer sessions are available in the Student Activities Office, 204 Administration/Humanities Building. This is a paid position. Deadline for applications is Thursday, April 21.

SPRING GRADUATES should note that all graduation clearance blanks are due by 4 p.m. Friday in the Registrar's Office, 104 Administration/Humanities Building.

"FIREFOX," will be the Student Activities Board Friday night movie. It will be shown at 6:45 and 9:30 p.m. in Baldwin Auditorium. Admission is $1.50 or free with an SAB card.

THE NMSU SHOWGIRLS are sponsoring a car wash from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday in the Food Barn parking lot. Money raised will go toward new uniforms.

THE FIRST ANNUAL ACADEMIC RELAYS will be held at 1 p.m. Saturday in 228 Violette Hall. The event involves verbal quizzes using questions from various academic areas. Residence hall students are asked to form teams composed of students representing each academic major. There will be a small entry fee to cover the cost of awards. For further information, contact David Haden at 785-5247 or Dobson Hall desk at 785-5142. The event is sponsored by Dobson Hall Senate.

"THE TIMES OF THEIR LIVES," an Abbott and Costello movie will be shown at 2 p.m. Saturday in the Little Theatre of Baldwin Hall. Admission is 50 cents. The movie is sponsored by the Historical Society.

AN MD RUN sponsored by Cardinal Key service sorority will be held at 1 p.m. Sunday at Stokes Stadium. Interested persons may sign up at the table located in the Student Union Concourse. There is an entry fee of $10 which goes as a donation toward MD. Those entering the run receive a free t-shirt.

"NMSU LIVE" will be held at 8 p.m. Sunday in the Georgian Room of the Student Union Building.

JUICE NEWTON TICKETS are on sale in the Student Activities Board Office in the SUB. The cost is $8 with an NMSU ID, or $6 with an SAB card. Juice Newton and her band will perform at 8 p.m. Wednesday, April 27, in Baldwin Auditorium.

STUDENTS-HELPING-STUDENTS APPLICATIONS for the 1983 Summer Orientation Program are available in the Freshman Counseling Office, 102 Administration/Humanities Building. SHS leaders are student volunteers who actively participate with incoming freshmen during one or more orientation days. The 1983 Summer Orientation Program begins on June 10 and continues through July 8. Approximately 200 volunteers will be needed.

LIBRARY DISPLAY REQUESTS are now being taken by Pickler Memorial Library for the fall semester. Faculty members are encouraged to display individual collections, hobbies or class projects of students. Unique collections and exhibits are especially welcome. To schedule a display, contact Eleanor Ellebracht, librarian, at 785-4528.

ONE- AND TWO-YEAR CERTIFICATE PROGRAM graduates who have not picked up their announcements in the Dean of Instruction's Office, 203 Administration/Humanities Building, are requested to do so this week. Also, one- and two-year certificate graduates must attend the rehearsal and discussion of commencement activities at 3:30 p.m. Thursday, April 28, in Baldwin Hall Auditorium.

A RETIREMENT RECEPTION in honor of Harry S. Baldwin, manager of the Campus Bookstore, will be held from 1-3 p.m. April 25 in the Alumni Room of the Student Union Building. The public is invited to attend the reception.

NORTHEAST NOTES

A PROGRAM ON SELF BREAST EXAMINATION and the pap test will be given by Jeanne Davenport, senior nursing student, at 6:30 p.m. April 25 in Brewer Hall lounge.

JOB INTERVIEW SIGN-UP FOLDERS are posted in the Career Planning and Placements Center, McKinney Center. On April 25, Production Credit Association will interview agriculture and business majors for the position of assistant vice president. On April 26, Deluxe Check Printers, Midwest, will interview for the positions of customer service representative and sales trainee. On April 27, Scott and Fetzer Company, Ottumwa, Iowa, will interview for a sales position. On April 28, the Missouri Department of Agriculture will interview accounting, business and agriculture majors for three grain auditor positions. On April 29, Mary Kay Products will interview men and women for full-time or part-time employment selling skin care products.

THE POLITICAL SCIENCE BANQUET and Sixth Annual Pi Sigma Alpha Initiation Ceremony will take place at 7 p.m. April 26 in the Spanish Room of the Student Union Building. Guest speaker for the evening will be State Senator David Doctorian. Tickets are $6.35 and must be purchased by this Tuesday from assistant professors of history Dr. Jim Przybylski, Dr. Candy Young or Dr. Stuart Vorkink.

THE 1983 ANNUAL ARMY ROTC AWARDS CEREMONY will be held at 6:30 p.m. April 26 in the Alumni Room of the Student Union Building. Selected military science students are recognized for their participation, demonstrated abilities and citizenship in military science courses by a number of local and national patriotic organizations. Dr. James Lyons, head of the Social Science Division, will be the guest speaker.

A WASHINGTON TRAVEL WORKSHOP will be held from May 22-June 5. Places which will be visited are: Chicago, Niagara Falls, Boston, New York and Washington, D.C. Cost of the workshop is $340-500. Also, a Far West Travel Workshop will be held June 19-July 3. Places visited for this workshop include Abilene, Salt Lake City, Reno, San Francisco, Canada and Yellowstone Park. Cost of this workshop is $360-500. Seats are still available for both workshops for credit or audit. For more information contact Larry Stephens, assistant professor of history, at 785-4655.

A ROAST IN HONOR OF DR. JOHN BIGGERSTAFF, director of the Student Health Clinic, will be held at 7 p.m. May 13 at the Shrine Club. Reservations can be made through the Student Health Clinic before April 29. A limited number of reservations are available.

Jill Greathouse, junior, was awarded the Missouri Home Economics Association Scholarship for the 1983-84 school year at the MHEA annual meeting held in St. Louis last month. The $300 scholarship is awarded to a student who has completed the junior year with a major in home economics and has maintained a B average or above.

Dr. Gary Sells, Science, attended a workshop on optometry on April 9 at the University of St. Louis School of Optometry. This is a new school with the first class to graduate in 1984. Ted Lymer, NMSU graduate, is attending and is president of the freshman class. The workshop was sponsored by a grant from the Department of Health and Human Services, Division of Health Manpower.

Max Bell, James Dimit, Gary Sells and Tom Welton, Biology Department, attended the Plant Biochemistry and Physiology Second Annual Symposium at the University of Missouri-Columbia on April 6-8. This meeting featured the presentation of plant research from major laboratories in the U.S. and Canada.

Lynne Priesack, junior French major, was elected Missouri state president for the Student National Education Association for the 1983-84 school year. The elections took place in Jefferson City at the SNEA State Representative Assembly.

Janiene Ashby, sophomore, has been selected as the Outstanding Member of the Graphic Arts and Photography Club for 1983.

Jim Thomas, Language and Literature, has been notified that his poem, "Dues," will appear in a future edition of Gryphon and Black Willow magazines. Thomas recently had three of his poems, "Great Jays," "In Exile Triumphant," and "Escape" published in The Temple, a magazine by Phi Kappa Theta.

Dr. Ronald Knight, Mathematics received notice that his paper "A characterization of recurrent motions" has been accepted for publication in the Bulletin of the Australian Mathematical Society.

Ernest Cowles and Regina Saucier, Criminal Justice, recently attended the Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences annual meeting in San Antonio, Texas. They were accompanied by seniors Tim Moriarity and Keith Konigsmark who represented NMSU at the annual Alpha Phi Sigma honorary criminal justice fraternity meeting which was held in conjunction with the Academy meeting. Dr. Cowles presented two papers at the Academy meeting entitled "The 'Value Added' Concept in Criminal Justice Education" and "Finding the Other Side of the Wall: A Perspective on Prisonization".

A panel titled New Directions in Teaching Composition was presented to the Missouri Philological Association on March 25 by NMSU Composition I faculty members. Papers were presented by Sally McQuaid on Writing As Process: A Paradigm Shift; Daryl Shaffer on Provoking the Process: Prewriting Strategies; Brenda Pruner on Intervening in the Writing Process: Conference Centered Classroom; Jodi Helton on The Rewriting Process: Peer Editing Techniques; and Dr. Shirley Morahan on "Process Writing": Computer Assisted Instruction in the Writing Classroom.

Four NMSU students received honorable mention in the 10th annual Datsun Student Advertising Contest. Joni Williams/Bob Jones adviser, created an ad for the Datsun King Cab, Terri Bassett/Bob Jones adviser, created an ad for the Stanza/Sedan. Young-Woo Park and Brenda Clark/Jim Pokrywczynski adviser, created an ad for the Stanza also. This is the second year NMSU has participated and the second year honorable mention honors have been received. Jones and Pokrywczynski brought students together from commercial art and advertising courses to work on entries for this contest.

Dr. Russell Rasmussen, Animal Health Technology, was recently elected president-elect of the American Association of Sheep and Goat Practitioners, a specialty group of the American Veterinary Medical Association.

Jim Barnes, Language and Literature, has had three poems entitled "The New World Dictionary Poet," "Rules for Editing a Poetry Magazine," and "South Willamette Valley Bars" accepted for publication in the June Winewood Journal, a Colorado magazine.

Dr. Hugh Moore, Language and Literature, Jill Morrison, graduate assistant in the Education Division, Tammy Hagemeyer, senior Spanish major and two other college students from Missouri represented the state at the National Representative Assembly for the Student National Education Association in Des Moines, Iowa, March 24-27.

Jim Barnes, Language and Literature, has a translation of a German poem, "Dog Days," by Rainer Brambach in the spring issue of Memphis State Review. Barnes also will be giving a reading of his recent poetry at 7:30 p.m. April 20 at Stephens College in Columbia, Mo.

Marlow Ediger, Education, received notification that his manuscript "The Influence of the Student Teacher on Pupil Progress" has been accepted for publication in the Himalayan Journal of Educational Research.