

NORTHEAST

Today

Northeast Missouri State University

Vol. 4, No. 13

April 11, 1988

The Residence Life Office is now taking applications for about 85 summer and fall student jobs. Summer positions available include resident advisors, facilities repair crew, office/clerical, paint crew, housekeeping, hall desk staff and night host/hostess. Positions for fall include facilities repair crew, Resident Safety Patrol, housekeeping and weekend cleaner. Applications are available in the Residence Life Office, A/H 101 and the Residence Life Facilities Office, Ryle Hall 114. Application deadline is April 15.

An exhibit of lingerie, foundations and accessories from the NMSU Collection of Historic Textiles and Related Arts, dating from the past 100 years, will be displayed by the Division of Family Sciences, April 17 through April 22, in the Home Management House at 202 E. Patterson. The exhibit is titled "Without Foundations, There Can Be No Fashion" (Christian Dior 1905-1957 Lingerie in Vogue). Exhibit hours are Sunday, 3-5 p.m.; Monday, 6-8 p.m.; Monday/Wednesday/Friday, 1:30-3 p.m.; and Tuesday/Thursday, 1-2:30 p.m. For more information, contact the Division of Family Sciences at 785-4472.

The Peer Advisor selection process has been reopened. Applications may be picked up at the Residence Life Office, A/H 101 and are due April 18. For more information, contact Carol Farrell, Blanton-Nason hall director, at 785-4710.

Student Senate elections will be held from 9 a.m.-4 p.m. April 19 and 20 in the SUB.

An American Red Cross blood drive will be held 11 a.m.-4:30 p.m. April 19 and 20 in the SUB. The drive is sponsored by ROTC.

The NMSU Bowler of the Year Scratch Pool Tourney semifinals and finals will be held at 6 p.m. on April 19 in the SUB Games Room. Entry fee is $5. For more information, contact Rita at 785-4117 or Joe at 785-4264.

University Usher applications are now available. Qualifications include a pleasant personality and the ability to handle crowd situations effectively. Ushers will receive assured seating at all Lyceum programs and invitations to most of the receptions held for performers. Applications are available in the Student Activities Office, A/H 204, or the Graduate Office, A/H 203. Application deadline is April 22.

A rummage sale will be sponsored by Kappa Omicron Phi, honorary family sciences society, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. April 30 at the Child Development Center. All proceeds will be donated to the society's project.

Safety and Security has applications available for the following student positions: honor guard (20-30 hours per week, minimum wage), custodian (10 hours per week, institutional/workstudy wage) and vehicle maintenance (20 hours per week, institutional/workstudy wage). For more information, contact Safety and Security.

The Writing Center is now accepting applications for Fall 1988 tutors. Interested students may call 785-4484 or stop in the Writing Center, A/H 303, for more information.

A Mud Volleyball tournament, sponsored by SAB, will take place April 23 and 24 behind Stokes Stadium. Cost is $20 per team or $15 if four or more team members have SAB stickers. Sign up in the SAB office, SUB.

A retirement party and dinner in honor of Lee Myers, registrar, will be held at 6:30 p.m., April 26, at the El Kadir Shrine Club on South Hwy. 63. Cost is $11 per person. For reservations, send payment to Chris Cochrane, Registrar's Office, A/H 104, by April 19. A scrapbook is being compiled to give to Myers at the dinner; those wishing to place a message in the book should send it in the form of a letter to Cochrane.

The authors- and illustrators-in-residence for the Fifth Annual Children's Literature Festival to be held on Friday include: Arnold Adoff, Jose Aruego, Robert J. Burch, Jamie Gilson, Lee Hadley and Ann Irwin (who jointly publish Hadley Irwin), Willio Davis Roberts and Theodore Taylor.

The Association for the Study of Higher Education announces a call for proposals for presentations at the 1988 national meeting. Consideration will be given to proposals on any aspect of higher education. The Association encourages the participation of young professionals and advanced graduate students as well as established scholars. Proposals may be in the form of research papers or symposiums or special topics. Deadline is May 10. For more information, contact the Public Relations Office, A/H 202.

The Institute for Humane Studies will award a first prize of $2,500, a second prize of $1,500 and five runners-up of $500 each to outstanding college-age journalists and writers. Applicants must submit three to five clippings of material written since Jan. 1, 1987. The work should be about the value of free markets and individual liberty. Application deadline is June 15. For more information, write Morley Prize Secretary, Institute for Humane Studies, George Mason University, 4400 University Drive, Fairfax, Va. 22030.

Art Exposed: A Week in the Arts

11 MONDAY

- Art Exposed Theme Exhibition, Baldwin Hall second and third floor, through April 15.
- 9 a.m.-3 p.m.—Information table (door prizes and button sales), A/H lobby; also April 12.
- 11:30 a.m.-1:30 p.m.—Art films (Surrealist films: Un Chien Andalou, Anaemic Cinema, the original King Kong, Ob Dem Watermelons) SUB Activities Room; also April 12.

12 TUESDAY

- 7 p.m.—Visiting artists panel dis-

ussion: "Supporting Yourself as an Artist," "Art Outside New York," featuring St. Louis artists: Gary Passanise, Kate Rosenbloom and Kenneth Anderson; SUB 2 and 3. A reception will follow.

13 WEDNESDAY

- Visiting artist presentations, Baldwin Hall 318:
- 10:30 a.m.—Kate Rosenbloom
- 12:30 p.m.—Kenneth Anderson
- 2:30 p.m.—Gary Passanise
- 4:30 p.m.—Issues in Teaching

Symposium, "What is the place of aesthetic sensibility in the liberal arts?" Baldwin Hall 318

14 THURSDAY

- 8:30-10:30 a.m.—Improvisational Theatre Workshop, Baldwin Hall 177
- 8:30 a.m.-3:30 p.m.—Art sale, sponsored by Art Club, Baldwin Hall first floor; also April 15.

15 FRIDAY

- 3 p.m.—Art week door prize winners announced, Baldwin Hall first floor

COMMUNICATION WEEK

11 MONDAY

- 9:30 a.m.—"Corporate Marketing," presented by Terrie Magruder, assistant vice president for Center Bank in St. Louis, A/H 305
- 10:30 a.m.—"Television Coverage in the Heartland," roundtable discussion by reporters, producers and other staff members of KTVO Channel 3, SUB Alumni Room
- 11:30 a.m.—"The Wacky World of Weather," presented by KTVO Meteorologist Chris Gentry, SUB Alumni Room
- 3:30 p.m.—"Social Conscience Project Photography," presented by Jim Crnkovich, a photojournalist based in St. Paul, Minn., A/H 305

12 TUESDAY

- 9:30 a.m.—"Personal Best Display," Jim Crnkovich will show works he considers his best, Ophelia Parrish 113.
- 1:30 p.m.—"Challenges in Editing," presented by Maryanne Dell, copy editor for the Orange County Register, Santa Ana, Calif., Baldwin Hall 285
- 8 p.m.—"Holidays in Hell," presented by P.J. O'Rourke, international affairs editor for Rolling Stone magazine, Baldwin Hall Auditorium

13 WEDNESDAY

- 11:30 a.m.—"Photographic Portfolios," evaluation of student and faculty work by Jim Crnkovich, SUB Tangierine Room
- 1:30 p.m.—"Modern Newspaper Design," presented by Maryanne Delle, copy editor for the Orange County Register, Ophelia Parrish 113. —Field trip to Walt Disney's hometown, Marceline, Mo. Jim Crnkovich will take a group to shoot a photo project in Walt Disney's boyhood home. Sign up with Bob Mielke, A/H 309.

14 THURSDAY

- 9:30 a.m.—"Media Forum," roundtable discussion of today's journalism. Maryanne Dell, Barney McCoy of KCTV-5 and Virginia Lee of KIRX/KRXL will participate.
- Noon—"Outstanding Alumna Luncheon," honoring Chris McGinn, a New York-based actress, SUB Spanish Room. Sign up with Les Dunseith, A/H 319.
- 1:30 p.m.—"Television Journalism," presented by Barney McCoy, reporter and weekend anchor for KCTV-5 in Kansas City, Baldwin Hall 285
- 2:30 p.m.—"Communication Skills for Counseling," presented by Patrick Hyde, director of research and development at Laughlin Pavilion, Baldwin Hall 285

- 3:30 p.m.—"Outstanding Alumna in Communication," Little Theater. Chris McGinn a 1978 NMSU graduate will talk about her work as an actress based in New York City. McGinn has an occasional role on "All My Children" and last year was involved with "Camille," a Broadway show featuring Kathleen Turner.
- 7 p.m.—"Men Freeing Men," presented by Francis Baumli, a faculty member at the University of Missouri-Columbia; Baldwin Hall 285. Baumli edited a book used in NMSU's male/female communication seminar. —"The World of a Professional Cartoonist," presented by Wayne Stayskal, editorial cartoonist for the Tampa (Fla.) Tribune; Missouri Hall cafeteria.

15 FRIDAY

- Children's Literature Festival, SUB.
- 11:30 a.m.—"The Personnel Profession," presented by NMSU graduate Sherrie White Welner, personnel specialist at Citicorp Mortgage, SUB Conference Room
- 1:30 p.m.—"Corporate Communication," presented by Melinda Moss, vice president for corporate communication at United Missouri Bank Shares in Kansas City, Ophelia Parrish 113

INTERVIEWS ON CAMPUS

The following interview sessions will take place in the Career Planning and Placement Center, McKinney Center. Interviews are by appointment only; sign up in the CPPC.

April 11 State of Missouri, Office of Administration, Division of Personnel—three one-hour group sessions will be conducted to explain how to apply for any state position. Sessions will be offered at 10:30 a.m., 1:30 p.m. and 2:30 p.m. Call to reserve a seat.

April 14 State of Missouri, Department of Revenue, Field Audit Bureau—sales tax auditor position

These additional interview sessions will be available at the Business Placement Office, Violette Hall 112. Sign-up folders are now available; students should bring a resume upon registration.

April 12 Rent A Center—management trainee positions, Kansas City area

April 13 Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Missouri—programmer analyst positions, St. Louis office

April 14 Teleconnect—various positions, Cedar Rapids, Iowa. No sign up is necessary; a resume is strongly recommended.

8 and 9:30 a.m.—Representatives will present programs on telemarketing, SUB 4.

11 a.m.—Noon—Representatives will meet with interested students and collect resumes, SUB 4.

April 15 University of Missouri-Columbia—police officer positions

April 20 Pizza Hut—manager trainee positions

Orscheln Industries—human resources position in Moberly, Mo.

April 21 National Safety Associates—full- and part-time sales representative and sales management positions throughout the Midwest; also summer jobs.

Greek Week

11 MONDAY

• 5:30 p.m.—Torch walk and balloon ascension

• 7 p.m.—Pool tournament, SUB Game Room. Registration costs $10. Entry forms are available at the Student Activities Office, A/H 204; Brewer Hall; Leisure World; and Books and Things. All proceeds will go to Transitional Care.

12 TUESDAY

• 7:30 p.m.—Coronation and skit competition

13 WEDNESDAY

• Greek Letter Day

• 4:30 p.m.—5K run, Thompson Campus Center. Registration is $5; participants may register at 4 p.m. before the race at the Center or in advance by either calling the Greek Life Office at 785-7205 or mailing entry forms to the Greek Life Office, Brewer Hall. All proceeds will go to Transitional Care.

14 THURSDAY

• 7 p.m.—Raft races

• 9:30 p.m.—Movie night, "Animal House," Baldwin Auditorium

15 FRIDAY

• Greek Week T-Shirt Day

• 4-6 p.m.—Friday Afternoon Club at Leisure World, pool tournament finals

16 SATURDAY

• 1 p.m.—Greek Olympics

17 SUNDAY

• 6 p.m.—Greek banquet

"Tom Jones" Added to Lyceum Series

The Nebraska Theatre Caravan will perform the play Tom Jones, based on Henry Fielding's 18th century novel, at 8 p.m., Sunday, April 24, in Baldwin Auditorium. The troupe will present the stage version adapted by David Rogers, a New York playwright and TV writer.

The performance has been added to the spring Lyceum Series schedule. Free tickets for students, faculty and staff will be available beginning April 19 in the SAB Office, SUB.

Members of the Nebraska Theatre Caravan stage a scene from "Tom Jones". The Caravan will present the play April 24 in Baldwin Auditorium.

This Week

11 MONDAY

- Composer-in-Residence, Donald Erb, sponsored by Phi Mu Alpha, Baldwin Hall; through April 13.
- 8 a.m.—General Educational Development Test (GED), A/H 103; also April 15.
- 9 a.m.-3:30 p.m.—Bake sale, sponsored by the French Club, Violette Hall. French and American pastries and candy will be sold.
- 2:30 p.m.—Industrial Science and Communication Disorders senior tests, Barnett Hall

12 TUESDAY

- Senior ceramics exhibition, Scott Meredith, Baldwin Hall second floor; through April 14.
- 8:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m.—College Level Examination Program (CLEP), A/H 103; also April 13.
- 1 p.m.—Women's Softball vs. Central Missouri State University
- 2 p.m.—Men's Baseball vs. Indian Hills Community College
- 2:30 p.m.—ACT/COMP Objective test (senior and make-up) Barnett Hall
- —Women's Softball vs. University of Missouri-St. Louis
- 6:30 p.m.—"Student and Faculty Responsibilities in the Educational Process," presented by Carl Warren, Arthur Andersen & Company alumni professor of accounting, SUB Activities Room. The program is part of the Issues in Business Forum sponsored by the Division of Business and Accountancy. —Katie Steele, candidate for state representative, will speak at Young Democrats meeting, A/H 302. Afterward, interested members will carpool to the Adair County Democratic caucus. The meeting is open to all interested.
- 7 p.m.—Poetry reading by Ben Bannani, associate professor of English, Blanton Hall main lounge

13 WEDNESDAY

- Intramural-recreational sports deadline, tug-o-war (open and AST); sign up in Pershing Building 309 or call 785-4467 for more information.
- Residence hall room renewal for students keeping same room. A $25 prepayment must be made at the cashier's window.
- 2 p.m.—Men's and Women's Tennis vs. Central Methodist College
- 3:30 p.m.—Homecoming organizational meeting, Violette Hall 111. All interested are invited.

- 4:30 p.m.—Issues in Teaching Symposium, "What is the place of aesthetic sensibility in the liberal arts?" Baldwin Hall 318
- 7 p.m.—Concert by Donald Erb, composer-in-residence, sponsored by Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, Baldwin Auditorium

14 THURSDAY

- Residence hall room renewal for students changing rooms or halls. A $25 prepayment must be made at the cashier's window.
- 11 a.m. and 3:30 p.m.—Arnold Adoff, author of 30 poetry books for children, a distinguished visiting professor at Queens College, City University of New York and recipient of the NCTE Award for Excellence in poetry for children, will present "Voices of the Coordinated, the Integrated and the Fixated: Contemporary Poems Read and Discussed by the Poet." Adoff will read poems concerning sports, racial matters and food. The presentation is sponsored by the Division of Language and Literature.
- 2:30 p.m.—Family Sciences and Justice Systems senior tests, Barnett Hall
- 3 p.m.—John Manns Painting Exhibition reception, Baldwin Hall Art Gallery; exhibit runs through May 6.
- 5:30 p.m.—1988 Activities Fair informational meeting, Violette Hall 121. All organizations participating in the Fair should send a representative. Those unable to attend should return the bottom of the information letter to the Cardinal Key mailbox, SUB. Additional letters are available in the Student Activities Office, A/H 204.
- 6:30 p.m.—Organizational meeting open to students interested in tutoring area upper elementary, junior high and high school students, Violette Hall 111
- 7 p.m.—Informal computer program, Eric Pogue, Violette Hall 185. For more information or to reserve a seat, call John Kerr at 785-4723.

- 8 p.m.—"A Christian Legislator's Viewpoint on Abortion, Infanticide and Euthanasia," presentation by Sen. David Doctorian, SUB Conference Room. The lecture is sponsored by Students for Life and will be followed by a reception.
- 8 p.m.—Midnight—Skating party sponsored by Alpha Phi Alpha, Kappa Alpha Psi and Omega Psi Phi, Leisure World Skating Rink. Cost is $3.50. All proceeds will be donated to the United Negro College Fund. Rides will be provided to the rink from Centennial Hall from 8-10 p.m.

15 FRIDAY

- Last day to drop second-half block courses with code
- Summer financial aid application deadline
- 9 a.m.-9 p.m.—Fifth Annual Children's Literature Festival, SUB. About 1,200 upper elementary students will meet in small groups with eight authors and illustrators (see Notes). A reception will take place at 3:15 p.m. in the SUB Conference Room, and a dinner will follow at 6:30 p.m. in the SUB Alumni Room. The festival will conclude with a speech by Robert J. Burch following the dinner. All NMSU faculty and students are invited to participate in all festival activities.
- 11 a.m.-3 p.m.—Lock Up for Cystic Fibrosis, SUB Mall; sponsored by Delta Sigma Pi professional business fraternity. Bail raised will fund research to find a cure for cystic fibrosis.
- 7 and 9-15 p.m.—SAB movie, "Hello Again," Baldwin Auditorium. Admission is $1.50 or free with an SAB sticker.
- 10 p.m.-2 a.m.—Superlative Dance, sponsored by Delta Sigma Theta sorority, Kirk Memorial. Cost is $1 or 50 cents with a flyer.

16 SATURDAY

- 8 a.m.—Real Estate Licensing Exam (RELE), location to be announced
- 8:15 a.m.—ACT Assessment National Test, Violette Hall
- Noon—SAB "Rough-it" Weekend, Aker's Ferry-Jason's campground; through April 17. The canoeing and camping trip costs $27.50 or $25 with an SAB sticker.
- 1 p.m.—Men's Baseball vs. Northwest Missouri State University

17 SUNDAY

- World's of Fun trip, sponsored by SAB, time to be announced. Cost is $15 or $13 with an SAB sticker.
- 3 p.m.—Senior piano recital, Cindi Cleeton, Baldwin Auditorium
- 7:30 p.m.—Centennial Hall "Lip Sync" Concert, Kirk Gym. Admission is free. The concert is sponsored by Centennial Hall Government (LIVE-AID). Everyone is welcome. For more information, contact Laurie McLaughlin, Centennial Hall director.