THE THREEPENNY OPERA will be performed Wednesday through Friday at 8 p.m. in Baldwin Auditorium. Beginning today, tickets will be available in the concourse of the SUB from 10:30 a.m.-1:30 p.m. Admission is free for students, faculty, and staff with an I.D. Tickets will be available at the door.

The production is a musical by Bert Brecht and Kurt Weill and is a joint effort of the University Players and the music department.

LOOKING FOR RAs ... Applications are still available to students interested in becoming RAs (Resident Assistants) for the '77-'78 school year. Applicants must have at least sophomore standing by the beginning of their employment. Applications are available from the residence hall directors. Any questions? Contact Ron Gaber, housing director, at ext. 7168, or Jim Switzer, Centennial Hall director, ext. 3400.

A BAKE SALE will be held tonight from 7:30-9 in Missouri, Dobson, Centennial, Ryle, and Blanton Residence Halls. The proceeds of the sale will be used to sponsor children from the Diagnostic Clinic in the Special Olympics at Joplin in March, according to Barbara Twellmann, president of Campus Volunteers.

BUY A CARNATION FOR YOUR SWEETHEART today from 10:30 a.m.-2:30 p.m. in the SUB. Proceeds will be used to send a handicapped child to the Special Olympics. The sale is being sponsored by the Student Council for Exceptional Children.

HIS FIRST BOOK ... Sal Costa, instructor in psychology, is the author of A Journal of Case Studies in Human Behavior and Deviancy published in January. The book is on sale now in the campus bookstore and in several St. Louis department stores. (continued on back)
