

Northeast Today

October 25, 1976

HOMECOMING IS COMING ... It all starts Thursday at 8 p.m. with the queen coronation in Baldwin Hall Auditorium. The Alumni Banquet is set for 7 p.m. Friday in the Georgian Room. Reservations must be made with the Alumni Office (ext. 7211) by tomorrow. Tickets are $4 each.

Saturday looks like this: homecoming parade beginning at 9 a.m., reunions and luncheons for the 25-and 50-year classes, an open alumni buffet at 11 a.m. in the Georgian Room (no reservations required), pre-game activities at 1 p.m. in Stokes Stadium, the game against Southeast Missouri State at 2 p.m., an alumni reception immediately after the game at the Holiday Inn, and a concert by Harry Chapin at 8 p.m. in Pershing Arena. Advance tickets for the concert are available this week in the Student Union at $3 for faculty and administrative staff, students and alumni, and $5 for non-students. All tickets at the door will be $5.

THE SAINT LOUIS SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA will perform on campus Wednesday beginning at 8 p.m. in Baldwin Auditorium. Admission is free with a validated University I.D. General admission tickets at $2 will be available today through Wednesday in the Business Office or one hour before the performance at the ticket window.

The performance is being supported by a grant from the Missouri Council for the Arts.

AS I LISTENED to the beautiful music presented by the University Symphony Orchestra, I wondered why more of our students weren't in attendance. Could it be that we have too narrowly defined the educational experiences of our students?

Congratulations to Dr. William Fitzsimmons and all the members of the Symphony for a wonderful evening of enjoyable discovery.

Charles J. McClain

FACULTY CONCERNS is the subject of an American Association of University Professors meeting at 3:30 p.m. today in meeting room 5 of the Student Union. All interested persons are invited, including members of the Missouri State Teachers Association and all faculty.

KATHY KEARNEY, University secretary for 25 years, will be honored with an appreciation reception Wednesday from 2-3 p.m. in the Alumni Room of the Student Union. Kathy, who is retiring, is currently a secretary in the Counseling and Testing Office.

KEARNEY (continued)

Since joining the University staff on August 1, 1951, she has worked on the secretarial staff of the Admissions Office, was secretary to the Dean of Women and to Walter Ryle.

Everyone's invited to wish her well.

THE NORTHEAST MISSOURI CREDIT UNION approved an annual dividend payment of 6.5% for the 1976 fiscal year at its annual meeting held earlier this month on campus. In other business, the union elected the following officers for a three-year term: Will Selser, executive board; Tom Ritchie, credit committee; and Gene Wunder, supervisory committee. Also Lawrence Phelps was elected president, Orin Mock, vice president, Elizabeth Schuetz, secretary, Gary Sells, treasurer, and Will Selser, public relations.

The credit committee is composed of Pete Nicoletti, Leon Devlin, and Tom Ritchie with Ray Klinginsmith, Mrs. Dale Jorgenson, and Gene Wunder on the supervisory committee.

Persons interested in credit union savings or in securing loans for debt consolidation, autos, appliances, or other reasons, may contact Pete Nicoletti or Nancy Meyers at 204 Baldwin Hall, ext. 7223.

APPLICANTS FOR THE DANFORTH FELLOWSHIP must meet a Nov. 15 deadline. Persons who know top students who are interested in college teaching should have them contact Mike Davis, 103 Laughlin Hall, ext. 3418 for more information and application forms.

THE CAMPUS UNITED WAY DRIVE has reached $4,200 to date, adding advance pledges and pledge cards turned in the last two weeks, says Ed Carpenter, drive chairman. The University's goal is $10,000 ... so keep those pledge cards coming! You can turn your card in to your division secretary or directly to the Language and Literature Division.

THE FIRST JAZZ CONCERT of the season is scheduled for 7 p.m. tomorrow in Baldwin Auditorium. The University's three jazz bands -- the Stage Band, Jazz Lab Band, and Jazz Ensemble -- will be featured.

The concert is free and open to the public.

A CONCERT OF MUSIC FOR CELLO AND PIANO will be presented by Robert Luke, cellist, and Janice Saffir, pianist, Sunday at 4 p.m. at the Quincy Art Center. The program will consist of works by Bach, Chopin, Hindemith and Boccherini.

Both are members of the University Fine Arts faculty.

THE SECOND ANNUAL OCTUBAFEST will be held Thursday at 8 p.m. in the Activities Room of the Student Union. A drawing will be held to award door prizes. Everyone's invited.