From the president's mailbox

November 25, 1981

Dear President McClain:

Harry Kujath, a colleague in our office, served as a member of the NCATE evaluation team that just concluded an on-site visit to your campus.

I was pleased for the glowing report that Harry gave me concerning the professionalism exhibited by your administration and staff. Harry was impressed, and so were other members of the team. You and your staff are to be commended for the very positive image that the out-of-state members of that NCATE team now have of teacher education in Missouri.

Harry brought home a copy of your Institutional Report. I have looked this Institutional Report over and can say that this is an exemplary report. The report is beautifully done—the best I have seen. I have always said that the Institutional Report is the first impression an evaluation team has of the institution that will be evaluated, and I am sure that in this case it was a good impression.

If you have no objections, I would like to use this Institutional Report as a kind of model when I am asked to show what an exemplary Institutional Report should look like.

I just wanted to take the time to share these thoughts with you. It is a pleasure to work with you and your capable staff.

Sincerely,

R. V. Wilson, Director
Teacher Education and Certification
Dept. of Elementary and Secondary Education
Jefferson City, MO 65102
