

Northeast Today

November 1, 1976

THE STATE COORDINATING BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION will meet on campus Sunday night and Monday, Nov. 7 and 8. The public is invited to attend.

The first session will begin at 1:30 p.m. Sunday in the Activities Room with a hearing on the Missouri Student Grants Program. The master planning committee will meet at 4:30 p.m. in the Alumni Room and the Academic and Student Affairs Committee will meet in the Tangerine Room, also at 4:30.

All faculty and staff are invited to attend a reception for the CBHE at 6 p.m. Sunday in the Quiet Lounge of the Student Union. The Operations Committee will meet at 8:30 p.m. in the Tangerine Room.

The Monday meeting will begin at 8:30 a.m. in the Activities Room.

WAYNE NEWMAN, Director of Financial Aids, was awarded the U.S. Office of Education-Region VII Award as the 1976 Outstanding Financial Aid Administrator at the annual meeting of the Midwest Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators Oct. 19 in Cincinnati, Ohio. He received the award in appreciation for distinguished service to students, the University, the regional office and the student financial aid profession.

THE FACULTY AND STUDENTS of the Language and Literature Division congratulate Brenda Whitebread, an English education major, on being elected 1976 Homecoming Queen.

Ed Carpenter

TRY YOUR SKILL AT THE ART OF PRECISION SHOOTING during the Black Jack Rifle and Pistol Club open house Wednesday beginning at 1 p.m. at the rifle range in the basement of Brewer Hall. The program will begin with a precision marksmanship and intercollegiate rifle competition briefing every 15 minutes. Each briefing will end with an opportunity for everyone to learn the individual requirements of the art. Try your skill while meeting the varsity and ROTC rifle team members. Refreshments will be served and there will be door prizes. Closing time at 8 p.m.

JANICE T. SAFFIR, University piano instructor, will give a solo piano recital at 8 p.m. Thursday in Baldwin Hall Auditorium. She will perform "Fantaisie in C minor, K. 475" by Mozart, "Sonata Opus 101" by Beethoven, and two works by Chopin: "Berceuse Opus 57" and "Ballade in F minor, Opus 52."

Everyone is invited.

AAUW MEMBERS (the American Association of University Women) are eligible to receive "seed money" grants given for research and projects which reflect the purposes of the AAUW. Selection of recipients is based on the design and usefulness of the planned activity. The award range is $300-$900. For more information contact Ms. Martha Burns, Director, Fellowship Office, American Association of University Women, 2401 Virginia Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20037, 202-785-7734.

THE DEADLINE FOR APPLYING FOR THE DANFORTH FELLOWSHIP is Nov. 15. If you are acquainted with top students who are interested in college teaching, have them contact Mike Davis, 103 Laughlin Hall, ext. 3418, for more information and application forms.

THE WOODROW WILSON INTERNATIONAL CENTER FOR SCHOLARS announces the availability of 40 fellowships for persons from the U.S. and other countries with diverse disciplines, occupations and professions to work individually and in groups at the Center's offices for periods ranging from a few weeks to more than a year. For more information contact Mrs. Edith Holbrook, Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars, Smithsonian Building, Room 321, 1000 Jefferson Drive, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20560, 202-281-6156.

PERSONS INTERESTED IN PHILOSOPHY AND RELIGION are invited to a meeting scheduled by the Social Science faculty for 3 p.m. Nov. 10 in the Alumni Room of the Student Union. Henry Smits will give a presentation on job opportunities in philosophy and Meredith Eller will speak on job opportunities in religion. Robert Schnucker will talk about students graduating with a major in philosophy and Kay Blair will talk about non-traditional methods of finding jobs.

On Nov. 11 from 1-5 p.m., representatives of various seminaries will be available to talk with students about options in theological education, their seminary's relationship to local churches and preparation for admission. The representatives will hold a panel discussion at 3:30 p.m.

Interested persons also are invited to attend one or more of the classes in introduction to theology which Meredith Eller is giving at 11:30 p.m. on Mondays at the Wesley House.

THE INTERNATIONAL ESPERANTO LANGUAGE will be on exhibit Nov. 1-12 in Pickler Memorial Library. Esperanto is a planned language which can be learned with ease, whereas native tongues are usually learned with difficulty. In addition to items on display in the lobby, a videotape showing how the language sounds will be located in the browsing area. The exhibit is presented by Tom Reed of the Fine Arts Division. The videotape was produced by the University Audiovisual Department with University staff, students, and local townspeople. Participants are Albert Chi, Mills Yamoah, Bruce Shefferman, Michael Davis, Richard Heun, Ann Reed, Jolein Paulding, Mary Kenney, Gilda Alvarez, and Nan Karel. The tape was directed by Carol Race of Audiovisual with Cliff Brown as engineer.

COME ON! At its report meeting Friday, drive chairmen of the United Way campaign compared their totals to date. Heading the list is KCOM with 101% of its goal already reached. Then there's NMSU ... with only 59% of our goal recorded. Remember, the Adair County United Way serves all of us through the USO, the Boy Scouts, the YMCA, the Sojourners Public Library, the American Red Cross, the Arthritis Foundation, the Girl Scouts, the Salvation Army, the Sheltered Workshop, the RSVP and the Kirksville Day Care Centers, Inc.

A WORKSHOP ON PROJECT R.H.I.S.E. (Rockford Handicapped Infant Services Expansion) is scheduled for Friday under the sponsorship of the University's speech pathology and audiology department. The project is a model of service delivery to inner city and rural areas concerning the identification and programming of infants between the ages of 0 and 3 years displaying handicapping conditions or developmental delays. Registration will be held from 8:30 to 9 a.m. in the Tangerine Room with the first session immediately following. Everyone is welcome.

FACULTY NOTES ... Rose Shanight, Home Economics, attended a satellite instructional materials meeting at Macon sponsored by the Department of Elementary and Secondary Education. She is a member of the steering committee for the State Curriculum Instructional Materials for Home Economics....Lydia Inman, Graduate Dean, served on an American Home Economics Association accreditation team Oct. 3-6 to review the college of Home Economics at Kansas State University....Melvin Conrad, Science, attended a seminar conducted by Dr. B. L. Turner of the University of Texas Oct. 14 at the University of Missouri-Columbia. Conrad and his colleagues Max Bell and David Hanks attended the 23rd Annual Systematics Symposium on Chemosystematics Oct. 15-16 at the Missouri Botanical Garden, St. Louis....Jim Barnes, Language and Literature, has had a poem, "Elegy for the Girl Who Drowned at Goats' Bluff," accepted for publication in a forthcoming issue of The Nation. He is giving a poetry reading this week at Oklahoma State University and is being interviewed and recorded on tape for the new Oral Archives at OSU....James Pauls, Fine Arts, will have a mixed media of leather and plastic titled "Bind" on exhibit in the Nebraska Wesleyan University Small Sculpture and Drawing Show at Lincoln, Neb. He'll have a cast aluminum piece titled "Rutch" in the 27th annual Quincy Art Club Show opening Nov. 6 in Quincy....Marlow Ediger, Education, had the following articles accepted for publication: "Diagnosing Pupil Achievement in Spelling," in School and Community, "Changes in Society and the Curriculum" in Illinois ASCD Supervision and Curriculum, and "Basal Readers, the Pupil, and the Curriculum" in the Nebraska English Counselor....Leon Karel, Fine Arts, was recently awarded a certificate for outstanding service by the National Association for Humanities Education....Stuart Vorkink, Social Science, Ollin Drennan and Denman Evans, Science, attended a University of Missouri-Rolla Energy Conference Oct. 14 in Rolla....Jerry Vitteroe, Betty Cochran, Sandy Ligon and Dave Gruennert, Business, accompanied a group of University students on a three-day field trip to Chicago Oct. 21-23. The trip was sponsored by the business clubs and gave the students a look at the world of business that exists outside the classroom environment....Lonny Morrow, Special Programs, was appointed to the Title II-IV E.S.E.A. state advisory council by the State Board of Education Oct. 18.