THE HOME ECONOMICS DIVISION will hold an open house from 1:30 to 4 p.m. today in Violette Hall. The annual event commemorates the founding of the American Home Economics Association and the birth of its founder, Ellen H. Richards, who was born on Dec. 3, 1842. All students, faculty, and staff are invited to tour the various rooms comprising the Home Economics Division.

THE FREE ENTERPRISE INSTITUTE will meet at 7 p.m. tonight in 184 Violette Hall. Students from all divisions are invited to attend. The local chapter, sponsored by the Business Division, is in competition with clubs in other area schools to see which group can best promote free enterprise in America. A course in free enterprise is being offered next semester for interested students. For more information on the class or organization, call the Free Enterprise Institute Office at ext. 2069.

PHI ALPHA THETA will have Dr. Ruth Towne, professor of history, as a guest speaker at 7:30 tonight in the Alumni Room of the Student Union Building. Dr. Towne will discuss a book she recently had published. The public is invited to attend.

INTERNATIONAL CLUB will meet at 8:30 tonight in Room 6 of the Student Union Building. Projects for next semester will be discussed. The public is invited to attend.

GRADUATE STUDENTS are reminded that theses are due tomorrow in the Office of Graduate Studies, 203 Administration/Humanities Building. Comprehensive results are due Dec. 9.

THE DEADLINE for turning in money for the Alpha Phi Omega March of Dimes Dance-a-thon is tomorrow. The money can be turned in from 12:30-5 p.m. today and 8-12 a.m. tomorrow at 207 Violette Hall or at 315 E. Normal evenings. For further information, call Justin Doerle, president, at 665-6382, or Dave Bowmaster, vice president, at 665-2517.

LAW SCHOOL REQUIREMENTS will be discussed by Pat Kelly, dean of the law school at the University of Missouri-Kansas City, at 3:30 p.m. tomorrow in the Alumni Room of the Student Union Building. Dean Kelly will present information about the UMKC Law School as well as general requirements for admission into any law school.

THE WOMEN'S BASKETBALL TEAM will travel to Macomb to meet Western Illinois University in a 7:30 p.m. game tomorrow.

THE UNIVERSITY BRASS CHOIR will present its Fall Concert at 8 p.m. tomorrow in Baldwin Auditorium. The concert is free and open to the public.

DUCK'S BREATH MYSTERY THEATER, a group performing theater of the absurd, will present a mini-concert at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the Georgian Room of the Student Union Building. Admission is free to holders of Student Activities Cards and 50 cents to all others. Student Activities Board is sponsoring the event.

THE MEN'S WRESTLING TEAM will participate in the Graceland Invitational Saturday at Lamoni, Iowa.

THE MEN'S BASKETBALL TEAM will participate in the Washburn Classic this weekend in Topeka.

THE UNIVERSITY CHORUS will perform at 3 p.m. Sunday at the First Christian Church. The University Brass and Percussion Ensemble and the First Methodist Church Junior Choir also will be performing. The public is invited to attend at no charge. Dennis Loy, graduate assistant in Fine Arts, is in charge of the program.

UNITY will meet at 9 p.m. Sunday in the Student Union Building. Unity, an organization consisting of members from each club on campus, has the objective of creating better relations between students and the members of the community. Each organization is urged to send at least one representative to this meeting.

STUDENTS ARE REMINDED that several people on campus are available for counseling those who have academic problems or are considering dropping out of college. Resident assistants, hall directors, division offices, academic advisers, Freshman Counselors (ext. 7166), the Dean of Students (ext. 7162), the Dean of Instruction (ext. 7102), and the Student Counseling Service (ext. 7233) are all available to help students.

FACULTY AND STAFF MEMBERS with children who will reach age 19 during 1977 and who are not full-time students should contact Blue Cross-Blue Shield for a sponsored membership application for the child to be covered after Dec. 31. Applications can be obtained by writing to Blue Cross-Blue Shield, P.O. Box 14882, St. Louis, Mo. 63178.

THE READING STUDY SKILLS LAB is asking that all students who used the Lab this semester fill out an evaluation form for the lab between now and Dec. 9. The form can be obtained at the Lab, located on the Third Floor of the Library. Any student interested in signing up for study skills classes for the spring semester may do so now or the week of Jan. 10. Students needing help with studying or reading are invited to drop by the Lab. The Lab will be closed the week of Dec. 12-16.

ALL FACULTY, STAFF, AND STUDENTS are encouraged to share any news they have for the campus through "Northeast Today." To insure accuracy, we ask the news to be written out and sent to the Public Relations Office, McKinney Center. The absolute deadline for news is 10:30 a.m. the regular working day before the Monday and Thursday publication dates.
