CONGRATULATIONS TO President (Grandfather) and Mrs. Charles J. McClain on the birth of their first grandchild, Gregory Charles Kinkeade. The 10-pound, 1-ounce baby boy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Kinkeade of Montgomery City and was born at 5:50 a.m. Saturday, Oct. 21. Mrs. Kinkeade (Anita) is the daughter of President and Mrs. McClain.

A DEMOCRATIC MEET-THE-CANDIDATES NIGHT will be from 5-7 p.m. Sunday in the Activities Room of the Student Union Building. At this time, faculty, staff and students will be able to meet and visit with U.S. Sen. Thomas Eagleton and local Democratic candidates. They were invited to visit Kirksville by 2nd District Rep. Harry Hill who is sponsoring the reception.

HYPNOTISM will be the topic of a program at 7 tonight in the Main Lounge of Centennial Hall. Dr. Fred Shaffer, assistant professor of psychology, will be the guest speaker. The program, sponsored by resident assistants from Centennial and Missouri halls, is open to everyone.

LIBRARIES AND INFORMATION SERVICES will be discussed at 7 tonight in the Tangerine Room of the Student Union Building. Dr. Richard Brownlee, director of the State Historical Society, will talk briefly on information and society. The meeting will be sponsored by the League of Women Voters and the Northeast Missouri Library Network. It is one of 28 meetings being held by Missourians as a preliminary to the Governor's Conference on Libraries in November.

ALL NURSING STUDENTS may attend the meeting of the Student Nurses Association at 7 tonight in Rooms 2 and 3 of the Student Union Building. The guest speaker will be Jana Corbett, nurse practitioner at Planned Parenthood in Kirksville.

A FACULTY RECITAL with James Buckner, instructor of fine arts, on trumpet and Dr. Frederic Kirchberger, professor of music, on piano will be at 8 tonight in Baldwin Auditorium. The public is invited to attend. No admission will be charged.

HOMEMADE HOAGIE SANDWICHES will be sold at 4 p.m. Sunday in front of Centennial, Missouri, Blanton-Nason, Brewer, Dobson and Ryle halls. The sandwiches cost 85 cents. The French Club will sell the sandwiches.
