NORTHEAST NOTES

NMSU painting majors, senior John Harrelson and junior Doug Hannant had works accepted into the 33rd Annual Quincy Art Club Show held recently at the Quincy Art Center. The show, which consisted of all media, was juried by Dr. Gerald Bolas, director of the Washington University Gallery. It included selected works from artists within a one hundred mile radius of Quincy.

Daniel Keberle, Fine Arts, will be performing as a guest soloist with the Chillicothe High School Symphonic and Jazz Bands on Thursday. He will also be appearing as guest soloist with the Trenton High School Symphonic Band on Tuesday, May 10.

Sigma Phi Epsilon, social fraternity was recognized on April 11 by the Missouri Senate. Senate Resolution No. 194 was offered by Senator Doctorian and adopted to recognize the success Sigma Phi Epsilon has had at Northeast both academically and socially since its inception on March 28, 1981. David Lascu, chapter adviser and Wallace Trosen, Alumni Board President, were also recognized within the resolution.

Robert J. Martin, Education, gave a presentation on "Coping with Criticism and Praise" at the Conference of Human Relations Instructors held on the University of Iowa campus earlier this month.

Terri Sandler, president of NMSU's Student Nurses Association, recently was awarded a $1000 scholarship sponsored by the Brown Shoe Company through the National Student Nurses Association. Terri was one of 129 scholarship and grant winners out of 5,000 applications received. The national scholarship was based on financial need, academic achievement and involvement in community activities related to health care and student nursing organizations.
