THE CALENDAR EDITION of "Northeast Today" for the months of January, February and March will be published Jan. 4, 1983. The deadline for submitting information on special events of campus-wide interest is 5 p.m. Monday, Dec. 13. To insure accuracy, items should be submitted on forms available in the Public Relations Office, 202 Administration/Humanities Building.

FINANCIAL AID INCREASES will be available to some students due to increased government funding. All students' financial aid for the current year will be reviewed to determine distribution. If a student's financial aid has not been increased, it is because the student is not eligible to receive additional funding. All students who received aid for the fall term should check at the Business Office, 105 Administration/Humanities Building, to determine if an increase has been received. A signature is necessary on the revised award letter or the additional aid will be cancelled. Students should verify the revisions on the following dates:

Today	A-D
Tuesday	E-K
Wednesday	L-R
Thursday	S-Z

CHANGE OF PROGRAM for the Spring 1983 schedule may be made from Dec. 1-22 and from Jan. 7-19. There will be no change of program between Dec. 23 and Jan. 6. Free add-drop will be from Jan. 7-19. Beginning Jan. 20 there will be a $5 fee for change of schedule until March 16. Change of program forms are available in the Registrar's Office, 104 Administration/Humanities Building.

WOMEN AND ALCOHOLISM will be the topic of a program to be presented by Caryl Kurzjeski, outpatient counselor for Transitional Care Counselling services of Columbia, at 7:30 p.m. today in 305 Administration/Humanities Building. The program, sponsored by the National Organization for Women, will deal with the effects of drinking on women's health and childbearing.

CHRISTMAS ACTIVITIES at the Baptist Student Union this week include a candlelight service at 9 p.m. today, caroling at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday and a toy auction for children at 7:30 p.m. Friday.

A PROGRAM ON SNAKES will be given by herpetologist Dale Ertel at 7 p.m. Tuesday in the conference room in Centennial Hall.

A JOINT MEETING of the Political Science Club and the Young Democrats will be held at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in 212 Administration/Humanities Building.

KANSAS CITY, KANSAS PUBLIC SCHOOLS will be on campus Tuesday to interview education majors for teaching positions. For more information, contact the Career Planning and Placements Center, McKinney Center.

AN ADVENT SERVICE of Holy Communion will be held at 10 p.m. Wednesday at the Trinity Episcopal Church for Wesley House worship.

PRAYER AND FASTING FOR PEACE with Justice will be held at noon each Wednesday in December at Wesley House.

AN INTERNATIONAL CHRISTMAS DANCE, sponsored by the Student Senate, will begin at 8 p.m. Thursday in the Missouri Hall cafeteria. Students attending the open event should dress in native costumes.

PROJECT HOST FAMILIES, sponsored by the Student Senate and Red Cross, is looking for families to host international students over Christmas vacation. For more information, contact the International Student Office, 204 Kirk Memorial, 785-4215.

THE BOARD OF REGENTS will meet at 9 a.m. Friday in the Conference Room of the Student Union Building.

THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF UNIVERSITY WOMEN will hold a Human Rights Day breakfast at 7 a.m. Friday in the Spanish Dining Room of the Student Union Building with guest speaker Ruth Towne, professor of history. Reservations should be made before Tuesday by contacting Lydia Inman, 203 Administration/Humanities Building, 785-4109. A fellowship dinner will also be held at 6:30 p.m. Dec. 13 in the Spanish Room. For dinner reservations, contact Sherry Eitel, 100 Pickler Memorial Library, 785-4530.

AN SAB TRIP to Stephen's College in Columbia to see a performance of either "Nutcracker Suite" or "A Christmas Carol" will be taken Saturday. The cost is $7 or $5 with an SAB card and students should sign up before Wednesday at the SAB Office in the Student Union Building.

CHILDREN'S LITERATURE will be discussed by Philip Sadler, assistant professor of literature at Central Missouri State University, Warrensburg, at a meeting of the International Reading Association to be held at 10 a.m. Saturday in 228 Violette Hall. Discussion will include the Children's Literature Festival in Warrensburg, which Sadler coordinates.

A CLOTHING CONSTRUCTION test-out exam will be given at 2:30 p.m. Jan. 12 in 171 Violette Hall. Passing the exam would allow entry into an advanced clothing construction class without taking this prerequisite. Interested students should sign up at the Home Economics bulletin board or contact Bev Jensen, home economics instructor.

RESIDENCE HALLS will close at 10 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 16 for Christmas break.

CANDY CANES, ROSES AND MISTLETOE will be delivered as a Santa Surprise by Phi Beta Lambda honorary business organization. The items may be purchased from 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. today through Thursday in the Student Union Building. The items will be delivered with an anonymous note and one must pay a small fee to find who sent the gift.

CHRISTMAS BUTTONS will be sold by the Delta Chi little sis organization from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. today through Dec. 10 in the Student Union Building for $1 per button.

PHOTOS WITH SANTA OR MRS. SANTA, sponsored by the Student Activities Board, will be taken from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday in the concourse of the Student Union Building. Special appearances will be made by Santa's elves. The color photographs will cost $1.

SANTA-GRAMS will be delivered to the residence halls by Alpha Psi Omega honorary dramatics fraternity for 75 cents. Students may register for the grams from 9:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Tuesday through Friday in the Student Union Building.

A BACKRUB to relieve stress and tension will be given from 8 to 10 p.m. Tuesday in the Blanton Hall main lobby for persons purchasing a 50 cent ticket at the door. The project is sponsored by the Blanton-Nason Hall Council.

A TEASEL CREATURE SALE, sponsored by the Spartans, will be held from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. today through Friday in the concourse of the Student Union Building and in the Administration/Humanities Building.

CHRISTMAS CARDS AND FRESH FLOWERS will be sold by the International Club from 8:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the Student Union Building.

BAKE SALES should be scheduled through the Student Activities Office, 204 Administration/Humanities Building, to avoid conflicts.

CHRISTMAS CARDS designed by Sharri Carroll, junior, and silkscreened by the Artistic Students of Baldwin will be on sale from any ASOB member for 50 cents each or five for $2.

ECHO YEARBOOK is sponsoring a cover contest for the 1983 yearbook. A $25 prize will be given to the winner. Entries should be simple in design, follow the theme of "In the Lead" and be submitted to the Echo Office, 310 Laughlin Building, by Friday. For more information contact the Echo Office at 785-4450.

THE POSITION of Resident Safety Patrol will be open next semester. Applicants must be of sophomore or above status, have a 2.5 grade point average and have no record of disciplinary problems.
