

NORTHEAST TODAY

MONDAY, Sept. 11

1978

"HAPPENINGS"

TODAY, Sept. 11

- 3-5 pm Vet's Club Book Exch.
- 4 pm APS Mtg., 240 SH
- 6:30 pm Free Enterprise Institute, 120 VH
- 6:30 pm KEAP Dinner Mtg., Geo. Rm., SUB
- 6:30 pm AAUW, Elaine's Dining Rm.

TUESDAY, Sept. 12

- 9:07 am "Area Scene," KIRX-AM
- 4 pm Field Hockey, NMSU Hockey Field
- 5:30 pm Pol. Sci. Picnic, Red Barn Park
- 6:30 pm Cosmetic Dem., 4th Fl. Lounge, RH
- 7:30 pm Debate Team Mtg., 308 LB

WEDNESDAY, Sept. 13

- 2 pm Energy Hearing, Conf. Rm., SUB
- 3:30 pm Pre-Law Club Mtg., 215 A/H
- 3:45 pm Elem. Ed. Club Mtg., 253 VH
- 7 pm SCEC Mtg., 251 VH
- 7 pm Weight Watchers, Dining Rm., CH

THE FINAL MEETING of the Kirksville Energy Awareness Program is scheduled for 7:30 tonight in the Georgian Room of the Student Union Building with dinner preceding the meeting at 6:30. The featured speaker will be Pat Danner (B.A. 1973), federal cochairman of the Ozark Regional Commission, an agency that distributes federal money for economic development in the five-state Ozark region. Danner will talk about "Energy: The Case for Conservation." A slide/tape produced by KEAP showing the overall Kirksville energy drive will be presented at the meeting.

MEMBERS OF ALPHA PHI SIGMA national scholastic honorary will meet at 4 p.m. today in 240 Science Hall. Dr. Max Bell, sponsor, will discuss the organization, which is open to membership. For information on membership requirements or the meeting, call Susan Schillermann, club president at ext. 2656

FREE ENTERPRISE INSTITUTE members will meet at 6:30 p.m. today in 120 Violette Hall. All interested students are welcome to attend. Call Monica DiGiovanni, club sponsor, at ext. 2069 for details.

ALL WOMEN GRADUATES OF A COLLEGE or university are invited to attend a meeting of the American Association of University Women to be held at 6:30 tonight at Elaine's Dining Room. "Women's Rights/Human Rights" will be the program presented by Valerie Vaughn, representative of the Missouri Commission on Human Rights, at the dinner meeting. The remaining AAUW meetings of the academic year will be at 7:30 p.m. on the second Sunday of each month in the Alumni Room of the Student Union Building. For further information contact Mary J. Kohlenberg, AAUW Corp. Rep. for NMSU, at 283 Violette hall, ext. 2758; or Anna Mae Schnucker, treasurer, at 665-8235

STUDENTS WHO USED THE BOOK EXCHANGE sponsored by the Vet's Club have one last chance to pick up books and money from 3-5 p.m. today in Room 4 of the Student Union Building. All money not picked up will go to the Vet's Club Christmas party for underprivileged children.

THE GRADUATE READING PROGRAM will be discussed by Dr. Nancy Kiger, assistant professor of reading, and Kay Clapp, a recent graduate with an M.A. in Reading, at 9:07 a.m. Tuesday on "Area Scene" of KIRX-AM. They will talk about assistance available to the community for children with reading problems at the University.

THE WOMEN'S FIELD HOCKEY TEAM will play their season opener against the University of Missouri-Columbia at 4 p.m. Tuesday at NMSU.

POLITICAL SCIENCE MAJORS and their guests will have a picnic at 5:30 p.m. Tuesday in Red Barn Park. The picnic will be sponsored by the Political Science Club. All majors and potential majors are welcome.

A COSMETIC DEMONSTRATION will be at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday in the 4th floor lounge of Ryle Hall. This program is open to all students, faculty and staff.

THE DEBATE TEAM is open to new members this week. No experience is necessary. An introductory meeting will be at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in 308 Laughlin Building. Call David Buckley, director of debate, at ext. 2155 for details.

AN ENERGY HEARING sponsored by the House Interim Committee on Assistance to the Elderly for Utility Costs will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday in the Conference Room of the Student Union Building. The committee will be taking public testimony. Second District Rep. Harry Hill is a member of the committee. Interested students, faculty and staff are invited to attend.

THE PRE-LAW CLUB is scheduled to meet at 3:30 p.m. Wednesday in 215 Administration/Humanities Building. Anyone interested in law school or in the legal system is invited to attend. For additional information contact John Anderson, sponsor, at ext. 3380, or Bryce Jones, sponsor, at ext. 2070.

THE ELEMENTARY EDUCATION CLUB will meet at 3:45 p.m. Wednesday in 253 Violette Hall. All old and new members are welcome.

THE STUDENT COUNCIL FOR EXCEPTIONAL CHILDREN will have its next meeting at 7 p.m. Wednesday in 251 Violette Hall. A slide presentation on the Special Olympics will be given by Deb Shoemaker, director of recreational activities at the Diagnostic Clinic. All faculty, staff and students are invited to attend.

NMSU WEIGHT WATCHERS will have their first meeting of the semester at 7 p.m. Wednesday in the Centennial Hall Dining Room.

WHAT IS YOUR ADDRESS and phone number? Blue Key service fraternity wants to make sure it has your correct address and phone number for the student-faculty phone directory. Stop by the Blue Key table in the Student Union Building today and check to make sure your address and phone number are correct for the directory.

THE PROPOSED KIRKSVILLE HOUSING CODE is available for review in the Dean of Students Office, 204 Administration/Humanities Building. The final public reading of the code will be at 7 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 19, in a place to be announced.

RESERVED SEATS for the Lyceum Series are available to NMSU faculty and staff and the community. A limited number of season tickets may be purchased at $7.50 for NMSU faculty and staff and $12.50 for the community. General admission tickets will be $3 per community person, and faculty and staff are admitted by showing their ID cards. All persons interested in purchasing tickets should call Dr. Gilbert Kohlenberg, Lyceum chairman, at ext. 7131.

THE KIRKSVILLE PARKS AND RECREATION DEPARTMENT needs several student coaches for the fall children's soccer program. The season involves Saturday morning games from late September to early November, plus one practice a week. For more information contact Terry Lodge, parks recreation director, at City Hall at 665-7792 before Friday.

ITEMS ARE NEEDED for an auction sponsored by the staff of Windfall, the campus literary magazine, to fund their publication. Each donor will be acknowledged when the item or service is put up for bid. Windfall staff members will arrange to pick up any items. Call Betty Anderson at 665-1398, Bruce Castle at ext. 2915 or Dr. Shirley Morahan at ext. 2159 to arrange item pickup.

THE NATIONAL ORGANIZATION FOR WOMEN is sponsoring speakers to inform any organization on campus about the extension of the Equal Rights Amendment. Interested groups may contact "Extension" speakers by calling Carri Colvin, NOW Special Projects Coordinator, at 665-8535.

THE BOARD OF REGENTS of Northeast Missouri State University will hold its regular monthly meeting at 10:30 a.m. Friday in the President's Office/Board Room of the Administration/Humanities Building.

THE STUDENT NATIONAL EDUCATION ASSOCIATION will meet at 4 p.m. Wednesday in 240 Violette Hall. The topic for discussion is "Do teachers have the right to usurp parental authority?" All education majors are invited to attend.

ALL FRESHMEN INTERESTED IN RUNNING FOR STUDENT SENATE on the Residence Hall Political Party platform should attend a meeting of the party at 7 p.m. Tuesday in the Main Lounge of Dobson Hall. Discussion will center around freshman participation in Student Senate.

THE LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE DIVISION faculty will host a picnic at 5:30 p.m. Wednesday in Red Barn Park. All division majors and potential majors are invited.

THE BIG BROTHER/BIG SISTER organization will hold its introductory meeting at 7 p.m. Tuesday in 210 Administration/Humanities Building. Everyone is invited to attend.

THE READING GROUP which meets monthly to discuss contemporary works is open to new members. Interested persons should send a note and a copy of their schedule to Dr. Shirley Morahan, group sponsor, in 313 Administration/Humanities Building or call ext. 2149. The selection for September is the humorous novel "Serial" by Cyra McFadden.

NORTHEAST NOTES

David D. March, professor emeritus of history, discussed "Migrations into Missouri Before the Civil War" at the Sept. 6 meeting of the Mid-Missouri Genealogical Society in Jefferson City.

A poem by Jim Barnes, Language and Literature, will appear in the American Visual Communications filmstrip-cassette-book. The program is titled "Poetry of the American Indian, Part I."

"Poem as Waterline," a poem by Jim Thomas, Language and Literature, has been chosen for publication by the editors of Kansas Quarterly.

Edward P. Webber, who received his M.A. in Special Education this summer, was awarded a $500 study grant from Alpha Gamma Delta Founders Memorial Foundation. He is a consultant for learning disabilities in Area Education Agency #16 in Fort Madison. Lonny Morrow, Special Education, was his adviser.

Donovan Conley, Director of Aquatics, has recently had a paper accepted for publication in Illinois Parks and Recreation. The article is entitled "Circuit Training for Lifeguards."

Mary Belle Martin, Fine Arts, has been appointed as a courtesy faculty member of the Psychiatric Department of Kirksville Osteopathic Hospital. Martin serves as a practicing art therapist.

The Circle K Club at Northeast won first place in the bronze category of club achievement awards at the international convention held Aug. 19-23 in Orlando, Fla. The competition was among 165 clubs with 10-20 members from 30 districts worldwide. Terri Steffes, a sophomore from Marceline and president of the NMSU Club, accepted the trophy. Her husband, Bob Steffes, a junior from Marceline, was one of 14 selected of 114 who applied for the Jay N. Emerson Award for his work as Lieutenant Governor of the Missouri-Arkansas District in 1977-78. He now is governor of the district.