HURRAH!

STUDENT PAYCHECKS...Regular student and work-study checks will be available at 8 a.m., May 5 at the cashier's window of the Business Office. All student time cards must be turned in by 10 a.m., May 2 in order for the checks to be ready May 5. Any time cards turned in after May 2 will be paid on June 10.

Please turn in work-study time cards to Debbie Ray in Financial Aids and regular student time cards to Sue McKeehan in the Business Office. Any student leaving before May 5 may leave a stamped, self-addressed envelope with Sue in the Business Office.

HATS OFF TO SECRETARIES TODAY!!! Today is "National Secretaries' Day." Here's to all the dedicated secretaries on campus who help to keep the University running smoothly.

PARTY POSTPONED...The reception honoring Creola Jones has been postponed to May 4 from 2-4 p.m. in the Conference Room of the SUB. Everyone's invited to come and wish her well on her retirement.

The reception had been scheduled for this afternoon but was postponed because of a family illness.

A SPECIAL STUDENT SENATE ELECTION for Councilwoman # 2 will be held Thursday. The run-off election is between Cathy Jepson of the Students for Students Party and Nanci Miller of the Student Participation Party. Voting will take place from 8 a.m.- 4 p.m. on the third floor of the SUB. Voting will not be held in the residence halls as it was for the general election last week.

UNIVERSITY AWARDS ASSEMBLY TONIGHT at 8 in the Activities Room of the SUB. All faculty, staff, and students are invited to attend and join in congratulating the honorees.

THIS IS THE LAST ONE...the last issue of Northeast Today for the spring semester, and the last issue that I will edit before my "retirement" May 6. Thanks to all those who contributed news items or otherwise kept me informed throughout my three years as editor of this publication.

GOOD LUCK TO ALL the candidates in the "Miss Kirksville" pageant Saturday. All 12 gals are Northeast students: Crystal Carlson, Brenda Whitebread, Marla Osborn, Marti Barker, Freda Schreffler, Christy Bickel, Glenna Roberts, Linda Neville, Bonnie McLaughlin, Sherrie Newman, Diane Curtis, and Theresa Voss.

The pageant begins at 8 p.m. in Baldwin Auditorium. Tickets may be purchased at the door for $2.50 for reserved seats and $1.50 for general admission.

MINI COMMENCEMENTS, MAXI COMMENCEMENT...A "mini commencement" for business certificate graduates will be held at 8 p.m. Friday in the Georgian Room of the SUB. Jerry Vitte-toe, associate professor in accounting, will be the speaker.

A special pinning ceremony will be held at 8 p.m., May 5 in the Activities Room of the SUB for candidates for the bachelor of science degree in nursing. Dean Krueger will be the speaker.

An ROTC commissioning ceremony will be held at 1:30 p.m., May 6 in the Activities Room of the SUB. Two cadets will be commissioned into the regular Army; six will receive reserve commissions. Everyone is welcome to attend.

Harold Caskey, state senator from District 31 and former Northeast faculty member, will be the speaker for the University-wide commencement ceremonies May 6 beginning at 10 a.m. in Stokes Stadium.

A DISPLAY OF SCUBA DIVING and all phases of aquatics is on display on the first floor of the Library April 29-May 6. Fontaine Piper, director of aquatics, organized the display.

FUNSEEKER CARDS FOR FACULTY/STAFF...Once again, Six Flags Over Mid-America is offering University faculty and staff an opportunity to join its "Six Flags Funseekers Club." By presenting a family membership card (available in the Public Relations Office), at the St. Louis recreation park or any other Six Flags park, each member of your family receives a special discount on admission. Additional family savings are available by using the cards for a reduced rate on a specially priced two-day ticket, for overnight lodging facilities, and for other participating nearby attractions.

"Funseeker" cards and additional information are available in the P.R. Office, McKinney Center.

NORTHEAST GRADS ELIGIBLE FOR AAUW...the American Association of University Women is a nationwide association of women who have in common a baccalaureate degree and a desire to think and act upon issues and needs facing the nation and the world. Northeast's chapter is one of more than 1,820 local branches.

The AAUW offers approximately 100 American and 60 international fellowships each year for advanced graduate and post-doctoral study in a host of fields. Research and project grants are given to members' projects which offer significant service.

If you are an international student you may join the International Federation of University Women based on a degree acceptable for admission by an accredited U.S. institution such as Northeast.

For further information about the AAUW contact Mary Jane Kohlenberg, VH 283, or write Membership Office, AAUW, 2401 Virginia Ave., N.W., Washington, D.C. 20037.

GRADUATION REHEARSAL TOMORROW...at 11:30 a.m. in Baldwin Auditorium.

"WINDFALL," the University's new literary magazine, will be distributed in the Student Union Friday. It will be available in the foyer of the Library through next week.

THE DEADLINE FOR THE HOMECOMING THEME CONTEST has been extended to 5 p.m. Friday. The contest is open to students, faculty, and staff. First prize is $25. Ideas should be placed in the Student Senate box in the SUB office.
