ALUMNI FAIR entry forms have been delivered to all campus organization mailboxes in the Student Union Office. Organizations that have not received an entry and would like to be represented at the fair may obtain one at the Public Relations Office in McKinney Center. Entry forms may be turned in to the Circle K mailbox in the SUB Office or to the Public Relations Office.

The purpose of the fair, which will be on display over Homecoming weekend in the Quiet Lounge of the SUB, is to provide a place where alumni can see what the organizations they once belonged to are doing now and to remember what those organizations were like. A group of alumni will judge the displays and the winning organization will be announced before the Homecoming football game.

A USED BOOK SALE sponsored by Kappa Omicron Phi national home economics honor society will be 8:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. today through Tuesday in the southwest corner of Violette Hall. The proceeds will go into a scholarship fund. The books are home economic text and reference books.

ENTRY FORMS FOR THE MUSCULAR DYSTROPHY DANCE MARATHON may be obtained from 9 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. today through Friday at the east door of Violette Hall. The public is invited to dance in the MDA Dance Marathon that will be held Nov. 16 and 17. Alpha Sigma Gamma and Alpha Phi Omega service organizations are sponsoring the marathon.

THE ANNUAL CROP WALK for world hunger will start at 8 a.m. Saturday with registration for the walkers. The 20-mile walk sponsored by the Lutheran Student Movement will start at the Faith Lutheran Church on Baltimore and LaHarpe streets at 8:30 a.m., go through Kirksville to Thousand Hills State Park, and end at the church. Signup to walk or to sponsor someone will be from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. today through Thursday in the concourse of the Student Union Building. For more information call the Lutheran House at 665-6488.

STUDENTS MAY RESERVE SEATS TO A KANSAS CITY CHIEFS football game from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. today through Friday in the concourse of the Student Union Building. The trip, sponsored by the Student Activities Board, is Sunday, Nov. 4, at Arrowhead Stadium, when the Chiefs take on the San Diego Chargers. Tickets are $6 plus the transportation fare that has not yet been announced. The bus will leave from the University at 6 a.m. The game starts at 1 p.m.

HOMECOMING CONCERT TICKETS will be on sale from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. today through Friday in the concourse of the Student Union Building. Tickets are $4 for holders of Student Activities Board cards, $6 for students, faculty and staff, and $8 for all others. The concert, featuring "Ozark Mountain Daredevils" and "Missouri," is sponsored by SAB.

THE SKI TRIP TO WINTER PARK, COLO., sponsored by the Student Activities Board has 35 seats available. The trip is now open to the public. Those who would like to go on the trip, which costs $190, should contact SAB travel chairwoman Kathy Iman at ext. 3154 or stop by the SAB table from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. today through Friday in the concourse of the Student Union Building. Those who go on the trip should pay a $50 deposit by Friday. The trip is Dec. 28 to Jan. 4, 1980.

ANY STUDENT INTERESTED IN JOINING ALPHA PHI SIGMA national honorary fraternity should attend the meeting at 5 p.m. today in Room 3 of the Student Union Building. Dr. Max Bell, club sponsor, will speak on the history of APS. Any student who has had a grade point average of 3.0 or above on a 4.0 scale for the past two semesters of college or high school is eligible for membership. For more information contact APS member Elloise Gard at ext. 2586.

"TEST PREPARATION: HELPFUL HINTS FOR ESSAY AND OBJECTIVE EXAMINATIONS" will be the topic of a workshop presented by the Pit Crew, which consists of members of the counseling staff. A presentation will be given at 6:30 p.m. today in the main lounge of Centennial Hall. All students are invited to the presentation.

TICKETS FOR A PIG ROAST sponsored by the Political Science Club will be on sale from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Tuesday through Thursday in the concourse of the Student Union Building. The roast will begin at 4:30 p.m. Saturday at the Thousand Hills State Park Shelter House. Tickets are $2 in advance and $2.50 at the door. All students, faculty and staff are invited to the roast.

THE HISTORICAL SOCIETY CLUB will hold a membership drive meeting at 7 p.m. Tuesday in Room 6 of the Student Union Building. The public is invited to the meeting.

THE TABLE TENNIS CLUB will meet at 6:30 p.m. Tuesdays in the Little Gym in Pershing Building. All students, faculty and staff members may attend. Those who have their own table tennis equipment should bring it to the meetings.

FRANK DAVEY, partner with McGladrey Hendrickson & Co., will be the guest speaker at the Accounting Club meeting at 7 p.m. Wednesday in 140 Violette Hall. Davey will discuss what a student should expect during the first year of employment with a public accounting profession. The public is invited to the meeting.

"TRISTANA" will be shown at 8 p.m. Wednesday in Baldwin Auditorium. Admission is $1 per student, faculty or staff member. University Film Club card holders will be admitted free. The movie is sponsored by the University Players Film Club.

HOMECOMING 1979 will be the subject of KHQA-TV's Studio 7 at 7:15 a.m. and the end of the late movie on Thursday on Channel 7. Student Senate President D.W. Cole and 50-year graduate Rene Hunt will be guests on the program.

PROGRAMS ON HUNGER THROUGHOUT THE WORLD sponsored by the United Campus Ministries will be on Thursday. The 98th District Rep. Pat Dougherty, Missouri coordinator for Bread for the World, will discuss the hunger situation from 8-9:20 a.m. in 211 Administration/Humanities Building; 9:30-10:20 a.m. in 112 Science Hall; and from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. in 240 Violette Hall. At 7 p.m., Dougherty will speak at a hunger meal and seminar in the Dining Room of Centennial Hall. Students with meal tickets may eat this meal as their evening meal but must sign up at one of the Campus Ministries by Wednesday evening. Those who do not have a meal ticket should sign up at one of the ministries and pay $1. At 9 p.m., Dougherty will speak at the Come Unity Worship service in the Activities Room of the Student Union Building. The public is invited to the events.

A PZAZZ SWIM PARTY will be from 7-9:30 p.m. Thursday at the Natatorium. All students are invited to swim, to dance and to participate in games. Admission for the Pzazz swim party, sponsored by the Student Activities Board, is free.

UNITED WAY STUDENT DRIVE, which is today through Friday, has several activities planned to raise money. A cheerleader kissing booth and the Kangaroo Court will be set up from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Wednesday in the mall of the Student Union Building. One of the activities planned for Centennial Hall is a water sponge throw from 3-6 p.m. Wednesday in front of Centennial Hall. Housing Director Ron Gaber and Karen Capello, director of Centennial Hall, will be two of the targets.

A food fast will be held Thursday in the residence halls. Students who would like to fast should contact their resident assistants. American Food Management will contribute 70 cents to United Way for each student who fasts. Plaques will be presented to each residence hall, Greek organization and campus organization that pledges the most money per person in their group to United Way. Suzie Brake, 1979 NMSU graduate, and Mary Rhodes, senior, are co-chairwomen of the student drive.

The University drive is at 50 percent of the $12,000 goal, but many pledge cards have not yet been turned in. Presently, KCOM is at 70% of their United Way drive.

MID-TERM IS FRIDAY. It also is the last day to drop full semester courses without code and the last day of first half block courses.

THE SENIOR TEST will be given today through Friday in the Administration/Humanities Building for all seniors graduating in December. Any senior graduating this semester who has not received a letter informing him of the day, room and time of the test, should contact the Testing Office, 103 A/H, ext. 7184. Seniors who plan to graduate in May can take their tests during the spring semester.

THE BOOK READING GROUP will meet at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in the home of member Kay Blair, 2122 S. Marion. The selected reading for this month is "Rondevous at Rama" by Arthur C. Clarke. All interested faculty, staff and students are invited to the meeting.

"THE GREEK TYCOON," starring Anthony Quinn and Jacqueline Bisset, will be shown at 7 and 9 p.m. Friday in Baldwin Auditorium. The movie, sponsored by the Student Activities Board, is free to holders of SAB cards and $1 to all others.

"MARGARET SANGER-HUMAN RIGHTS ADVOCATE" is the topic of a writing essay contest for students sponsored by Planned Parenthood. A $350 scholarship will be given to the student handing in the best essay. The essay must be turned in by Oct. 31 to the Planned Parenthood Office at 2002 N. Baltimore. The essay should be a 1500-word, typed and double-spaced composition. It should include the student's name, address and college.
