GSL Information Available

Supplemental Guaranteed Student Loan Applications and general information guidelines for 1987-88 GSLs are available in the Financial Aids Office, A/H 100. The Supplemental Application must be completed and submitted to the Financial Aids Office along with an application from your lender, if necessary, by June 1, in order for your loan check to be available by the beginning of fall semester. The GSL process for 1987-88 has changed significantly. Please read the general information carefully and contact the Financial Aids Office if you have questions.

Choir Performs

Unique Ensemble Gospel Choir presents its Spring Concert at 4 p.m., May 3, at the First United Methodist Church, 300 E. Washington St. The LBC Gospel Choir from the University of Missouri-Columbia will be a special guest at the concert.

Karelis to Speak

Charles H. Karelis, director of the Fund for the Improvement of Postsecondary Education for the U.S. Department of Education, will deliver the address at the 1987 Spring Commencement at 10 a.m., May 8.

Reception for Kohlenberg, Towne

Following Commencement, May 8, a reception for retiring faculty Ruth Towne, dean of graduate studies, and Gilbert Kohlenberg, professor of history, will be held at 1:15 p.m. in the old president's office on the south side of Baldwin Hall. Next year's lecturer for the Kohlenberg/Towne Lectureship will be announced at the reception. Send contributions for the lectureship to the Alumni Office, A/H 112.

Mary Jane Kohlenberg Honored

The Division of Math and Computer Science will host a reception honoring Mary Jane Kohlenberg, retiring assistant professor of mathematics, from 3-5 p.m., Friday, SUB, Conference Room. Everyone is invited.

FINAL EXAM SCHEDULE

All classes scheduled for two consecutive periods will take their examinations beginning the first hour of the scheduled time. For example, students in CS 195 (03) Fortran Programming I, which is scheduled from 11:30 a.m.-1 p.m., Tuesday and Thursday, will start their final examination Monday, May 4, at 7:30 a.m.

Any student who has three examinations on the same day may appeal to the Dean of Instruction no later than Friday for permission to reschedule one examination.
